SUBJECT: swett constituent re: whcoa

I just spoke with Virginia Emory who Congressman Swett referred to us for the Conference on Aging. I suggested that she call Bob Blancato at the Conference and that we would keep her apprised of any developments. I'll send off a note to the Congressman to that effect.

SUBJECT: Former Congressman Dick Swett and the WH Conf on Aging

Swett called me today to say he has a constituent who very much wants to participate in the WH Conf. on Aging, he feels she is someone who is very qualified. I explained there is a sep. administrative structure outside WH putting this together, that I would have you call the woman (which was his real request)...he is faxing now a one pager on her and Roz will get that to you asap, Lynn. Please then call her and determine what it is she is wanting, what process to refer her to if there is anything to be done and then do a quick courtesy follow up note to him. I don't have a current address for him, assume our political folks can help us find him.

Thanks.

Dear Mr. Swett;

Carol Rasco asked me to follow up with Virginia Emory regarding the White House Conference on Aging. Ms. Emory's background in gerontology and her commitment to the concerns of the elderly are very impressive.

As I discussed with Ms. Emory, we have not yet made final decisions on our delegate nominations and will keep her interests in mind.

Thank you for bringing such a qualified person to our attention.

Sincerely,

Lynn Margherio

SUBJECT: White House Conference on Aging

Upon further review, two delegate nominations, Karen Gilgoff and Lois Wellington, have already been named through other channels. This means that we only have 78 names and will be able to choose another two people from the "not chosen" list. Maybe we will want to leave these two slots open until we get feedback from all the other agencies regarding the list we sent them today. I have left for the day but we can discuss it further tomorrow or Tuesday.

Thank you

P.S. Remember I will be skiing from Friday until Monday.
