

The Labor Advisory Board

These outstanding union leaders are members of the American Income Life Insurance Company's Labor Advisory Board. With their advice, AIL and Bernard Rapoport, Chairman of the Board of American Income Life, provide substantial financial assistance to labor and labor-related causes, and develop programs to best meet the needs of union members and their families.

Membership on the Advisory Board constitutes neither an endorsement of American Income Life Insurance Company nor its products. The only obligation of membership on the Board is to provide guidance on how best AIL might serve the interests of their respective members and the labor movement.

Labor Advisory Board members recognize that AIL is a fully organized, 100 percent union company that offers supplemental insurance plans primarily to union members. AIL is honored to be among those "All-Union" companies cited by the AFL-CIO Union Label and Service Trades Department.

Talking Points for Hillary Clinton
AIL Labor Advisory Board Reception
Feb. 16, New Orleans, La.

Video

1. Regrets for not attending in person. Appreciate opportunity to send this video message. Look forward to seeing many of you in person during the campaign.
2. Thank AIL Labor Advisory Board for sponsoring reception and making this message available to the AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting attendees.
2. The AIL Labor Advisory is unique. Only group of its kind in business. Formed to advise AIL on the products and services offered to union members and their families. Excellent example of how labor and business can work together on behalf of consumers and union members.
3. I know and have worked with most of the members of the AIL Labor Advisory Board. Comprised of outstanding national and international labor leaders. You perform a great service for your members. We share many common goals and aspirations for the country and the American people.
4. Creation of the AIL Labor Advisory Board is a testament to the legacy of B Rapoport. B is one of my closest friends and have known him for many years. A businessman who understands the hopes and dreams of working families. A noted philanthropist who believes in social justice. (Other personal points.)
5. Look forward to welcoming AIL to New York. As senator, you will be the first business that I bring to the state. AIL's philosophy of support and friendship with the labor movement is a wonderful business commitment that we welcome in New York. AIL will be a valued member of the New York business community. I look forward to working with you to bring union members and business together to work on behalf of common goals.

6. Thank all of my labor friends for your support of my candidacy for Senator of New York. I have come to know many of you during my husband's presidency. Learned the value of union involvement in the life of our nation and the importance of a strong labor movement to the future of this nation.

7. Discuss candidacy relevant points/issues.

8. Upbeat close. Praise labor movement. State commitment to a strong labor movement. As senator will work closely with labor to improve life for working families. Together, we will win the election and, along with Chuck Schumer, make New York a 100 percent all-Democratic Party, all-union Senate delegation.
