Liz,

I tried to reach you on the phone but missed you. I did speak to Julia

Stanley. The meeting with the Chief of Royal Protocol Faysal al-Fayez did not provide us with a great deal of feedback but there was some as follows:

--Royal Protocol (RP) strongly recommends that the FLOTUS arrive by air to Marka airport where an appropriate reception can be provided.

--Queen Rania will receive the FLOTUS. Queen Rania will be accompanied by Queen Noor and the wives of other senior Jordanian politicians.

--King Abdullah and Queen Rania are likely to host a lunch or dinner but RP has not confirmed this with them.

--The same is true for Queen Noor.

--The Amb. spoke in very general terms (and left no paper) about possible events that seem to fit the FLOTUS' interests. All seemed acceptable and doable to RP.

--RP strongly recommends that the party consider helos to Petra and back to same time and energy.

--The general timeframe works for the GOJ. After July 1 would be very problematic due to planned travel.

--RP will not get a proposed GOJ schedule back to us before 6/15 at the earliest because of the coronation/army day events, and the visit of the

Amir

of Bahrain on 6/12.

--All visit info should come (locally) to the GOJ via RP which will coordinate closely with Queen Noor's staff.

The Ambassador said he hoped to meet (prior to 6/15) with Queen Rania to discuss the program and her interests more fully.

Hope this is useful. I'll check this channel over the holiday weekend for news from your end. Got to run.

Robbie

Doug -

Greetings from Amman! Been awhile since we've "talked". Hope all is going well for you.

I wanted to see if you could point me in the right direction as to whom I might contact regarding the First Lady's schedule. I have heard that she may be coming to Jordan sometime towards the end of June.

There is an international childrens charity - the SOS Kinderdorf International. It is a private, non-political welfare organization which offer's orphaned and destitute children a permanent home in a 'village' atmosphere. In Amman, the SOS Children's Village consists of 12 houses, each with 9 children and a "mother" - a woman who spends her life raising the children. The Amman Marriott has sponsored a house of children for the past year. It's a great organization providing a warm, caring atmosphere for the children and has villages in 120 countries.

June 25th is the 50th anniversary of SOS worldwide and we are celebrating that here at the hotel with the filming of a Jordanian childrens show on property. We are selling tickets with the proceeds being donated to the SOS village here in Amman. This show is broadcast internationally on ART (Arab Radio and Television).

We are inviting Queen Noor, as she and the late King Hussein were the patrons of the SOS villages in Jordan (there are currently two, with a third being built in Irbid in the north). This event is also the kick-off for Marriott Corporation's sponsorship of the SOS organization as our regional charity throughout the middle east.

I was thinking that, if the First Lady is going to be in Jordan during that time - and her schedule permits - we would like to invite her to attend as well. I know that she is very much involved with children's causes, and the "village" aspect of the SOS organization ties in perfectly with her book. Politically, it seems like a great, positive way to show some goodwill with the people of Jordan, not to mention outstanding publicity for SOS International.

Is this something that you think she might be interested in? If so, how would I go about inviting her to make an appearance?

Thank you in advance for your thoughts.

Best Regards

Chris Zappia
