

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

The Washington Monthly

Title: The Foreign Service As Mirror of America

Issue: May 1973

Page: 5

Summary: If we're ever going to do anything about white-collar featherbedding, a good place to start is the Foreign Service, perhaps the most distinguished of all afflicted groups.

James

Fallows

Title: Busting Our Mental Blocks About Foreign Aid

Issue: March 1973

Page: 43

Summary: Now that the war is over and we're all ready to stop tampering with the underdeveloped world, here are a few reasons why we not only shouldn't stop but can't.

James

Fallows

Title: The Screwing of the Average Tax Payer

Issue: January 1973

Page: 38

Summary: The $55-billion welfare program with a reverse means test.

James

Fallows

Title: Picking Up the TAB

Issue: November 1972

Page: 20

Summary: The government's ban knocked the bottom out of the cyclamate business. But the people who brought you Fresca and Sucaryl may have found a way to cushion the blow at the public's

James

Fallows

Title:

Issue:

Page:

Summary:

James

Fallows

Title: The Decline of Citizenship

Issue: October 1996

Page: 44

Summary: It's not just immigration that's dividing us

James

Fallows

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

Title: The Media's Rush to Judgment

Issue: January/February 1994 Page: 10

Summary: Quick, facile, pronouncements on Clinton, the Gulf War, and Japan dramatize a dangerous new tendency: a McLaughlinized press would rather jump to conclusions than work to get it right.

James

Fallows

Title: Ambushed

Issue: September 1993 Page: 43

Summary: The biting memoirs of a former Bush speechwriter offer insight into why presidencies fail

James

Fallows

Title: Remembering Denny

Issue: June 1993 Page: 59

Summary:

James

Fallows

Title: First Choice

Issue: December 1992 Page: 15

Summary: Why Chelsea Clinton should attend public school

Deborah

Fallows

Title: Plains Talk

Issue: November 1992 Page: 43

Summary: Jimmy Carter's first bid for public office tells us about politics today

James

Fallows

Title: Lie in the Sky

Issue: April 1992 Page: 44

Summary: How Edward Teller sold America on Star Wars

James

Fallows

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

Title: Class Warriors

Issue: December 1989

Page: 46

Summary: Duty, honor, country. And coffins and grad school.

James

Fallows

Title: What's Wrong With Testing?

Issue: May 1989

Page: 12

Summary: Except for supressing the talented, protecting incompetents, and making us less productive—not much.

James

Fallows

Title: The Screw-You Spirit

Issue: March 1989

Page: 42

Summary: Tribalism and group antipathy

James

Fallows

Title: Who's A Snob and Who's Not

Issue: February 1989

Page: 34

Summary: 1979

James

Fallows

Title: California Dreamin'

Issue: October 1988

Page: 10

Summary: The trip West freed my father from the constraints of class and custom

James

Fallows

Title: Old Money

Issue: June 1988

Page: 60

Summary: Political Booknotes

James

Fallows

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

Title: The Conservative Mind: Patrick Buchanan

Issue: April 1988

Page: 42

Summary: He can be a likable character but his politics are poisonous

James

Fallows

Title: Manila Fudge

Issue: September 1987

Page: 53

Summary: How the U.S. tries to have it both ways in the Philippines

James

Fallows

Title: Putting the Brakes on the Orient Express

Issue: April 1987

Page: 39

Summary: Hope for American industrial recovery can be seen in Halberstam's vivid depiction of our economic decline

James

Fallows

Title: Mirror of Language: The Debate on Bilingualism

Issue: March 1986

Page: 57

Summary: political booknotes

James

Fallows

Title: The Divorce Revolution

Issue: February 1986

Page: 59

Summary: political booknotes

Deborah

Fallows

Title: Born to Rob? Why Criminals Do It

Issue: December 1985

Page: 36

Summary: Blame the culture, not just the chromosomes.

James

Fallows

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

Title: Born to Rob? Why Criminals Do It

Issue: December 1985

Page: 36

Summary: Balme the culture, not just the chromosomes.

James

Fallows

Title: Woman on a Seesaw: The Ups and Downs of Making It

Issue: July/August 1985

Page: 58

Summary: Political Booknotes

Deborah

Fallows

Title: The Politics of Motherhood

Issue: June 1985

Page: 40

Summary: A mother of two rejects the conservative and women's movement positions on family and proposes solutions for parents who want toraise their kids themselves.

Deborah

Fallows

Title: A History Lesson for the Professors

Issue: March 1985

Page: 25

Summary: What they can learn from the best journalists.

James

Fallows

Title: Bread and Circuses: Theories of Mass Culture and Social Decay

Issue: July/August 1984

Page: 59

Summary: Political Booknotes

James

Fallows

Title: The Stoning of Donald Regan: How I Set Off Washington's Great Gaffe Machine

Issue: June 1984

Page: 56

Summary: The Treasury secretary made a sensible suggestion about Social Security, and the politicians and the press creamed him for it.

James

Fallows

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

Title: On Political Books

Issue: March 1984

Page: 48

Summary: On Political Books

James

Fallows

Title: Class Act: America's Last Dirty Secret

Issue: January 1984

Page: 59

Summary: Political Booknotes

James

Fallows

Title: Decadent Societies

Issue: January 1984

Page: 60

Summary: Political Booknotes

James

Fallows

Title: Why Paul Fussell Thinks He's Better Than You

Issue: December 1983

Page: 36

Summary: A mean-spirited new guide to social class.

James

Fallows

Title: On Political Books

Issue: September 1983

Page: 52

Summary: Nuclear wizards and Ivan the Vincible

James

Fallows

Title: Just the Facts

Issue: July/August 1994

Page: 40

Summary: On Political Books-Sure, Bob Woodward can tell you what happened. But don't ask him to explain why it matters.

James

Fallows

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

Title: The Gridlocked Society

Issue: March 1983

Page: 44

Summary: And the answer is the moral equivalent of war. Really.

James

Fallows

Title: On Political Books

Issue: December 1982

Page: 56

Summary: On Political Books--Edie Sedgwick and Andy Warhol couldn't have cared less about the economy.

James

Fallows

Title: Language Barriers

Issue: September 1982

Page: 20

Summary: When it comes to conspicuous consumption, Proper Usage has become the new coin of the realm.

James

Fallows

Title: The Difference One Man Can Make

Issue: May 1982

Page: 10

Summary: In a Georgia company town, Wyman Westberry took on the gods--and won.

James

Fallows

Title: Why Mothers Should Stay Home

Issue: January 1982

Page: 50

Summary: Quantity time for your children, quality time for yourself.

Dchorah

Fallows

Title: On Political Books

Issue: November 1981

Page: 54

Summary:

James

Fallows

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

Title: Race and Culture

Issue: January/February 1995 Page: 59

Summary: Political Booknotes

James

Fallows

Title: On Political Books

Issue: July/August 1981 Page: 53

Summary: Review of Joseph A. Califano's, Governing America

James

Fallows

Title: "And If this Is Just Another Job, Then By God, I'm a Sorry Suck-Egg Mule!"

Issue: April 1986 Page: 12

Summary: A military without mind or soul

James

Fallows

Title: On Political Books

Issue: January 1981 Page: 55

Summary: James Fallows reviews "Self-Destruction: The Disintegration and Decay of the United States Army During the Vietnam Era" by "Cincinnatus".

James

Fallows

Title: Political Booknotes

Issue: October 1980 Page: 62

Summary: Reviews of:
Economics, Ecology, Ethics: Essays Toward a Steady-State Economy. Edited by Herman E.

Frank

Bowman

Title: Political Booknotes

Issue: September 1980 Page: 60

Summary: The American establishment

Gregg

Easterbrook

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

Title: Political Booknotes

Issue: September 1980

Page: 63

Summary: "The Question of Separatism: Quebec and the Struggle over Sovereignty" by Jane Jacobs

James

Fallows

Title: Political Booknotes

Issue: July/August 1980

Page: 59

Summary: "Human Scale" by Kirkpatrick Sale

James

Fallows

Title: On the Job: Sheeoskins Are For Sheep

Issue: March 1980

Page: 9

Summary: Diplomas look great on the wall, but they don't get the job done.

James

Fallows

Title: Mothers and Other Strangers

Issue: January 1980

Page: 22

Summary: At the pageant of Successful Women, the kids must wait outside

Deborah

Fallows

Title: The President and the Press

Issue: October 1979

Page: 9

Summary: Hostile as they may seem, they are united by a fascination with politics and an ignorance of history and government.

James

Fallows

Title: Who's a Snob and Who's Not

Issue: June 1979

Page: 10

Summary: How to tell Trillin from Trilling, and why it's important

James

Fallows

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

-
- Title: political book notes
Issue: April 1979 Page: 63
Summary: Schooled to order: A Social History of Public Schooling in the United States, by David Nasaw
- James Fallows
-
- Title: Big Ben
Issue: November 1995 Page: 44
Summary: Ben Bradlee left behind a fine newspaper, and a lot of good stories, but he didn't understand why journalism needs to explain.
- James Fallows
-
- Title: They Only Look Dead
Issue: May 1996 Page: 48
Summary: Political Booknotes
- James Fallows
-
- Title: Political Booknotes
Issue: January 1979 Page: 64
Summary: The Powers that Be: Processes of Ruling Class Domination in America, by G. William Domhoff is reviewed.
- James Fallows
-
- Title: Political Book Notes
Issue: February 1979 Page: 78
Summary: The Nature of Mass Poverty, by John Kenneth Galbraith is reviewed.
- James Fallows
-
- Title: The President and the Press
Issue: October 1979 Page: 9
Summary: Hostile as they may seem, they are united by a fascination with politics and an ignorance of history and government.
- James Fallows

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

Title: What Did You Do in the Class War, Daddy?

Issue: February 1977

Page: 29

Summary: In 1969 the Harvard boys went to Law School. The working-class boys from Chelsea went to South Vietnam. Now we're paying the price.

James

Fallows

Title: Mary McCarthy—The Blinders She Wears

Issue: February 1977

Page: 55

Summary: In her brief career as a political reporter she has mastered all the self-limiting tricks of the trade

James

Fallows

Title: The Seductions of Washington Society

Issue: September 1976

Page: 18

Summary: You can't change Washington if you're part of it.

James

Fallows

462-128 X

Title: Kennedy: The Playboy Image

Issue: June 1976

Page: 11

Summary: He doesn't belong in the driver's seat, but he can be a great senator.

James

Fallows

Title: Murder by the Book: The State Department's Biographic Register

Issue: April 1976

Page: 22

Summary: Why Richard Welch, the CIA station chief killed in Athens, was fingered by a State Department publication.

James

Fallows

Title: Waco, Wilt and the AMA

Issue: March 1976

Page: 27

Summary: The practical problems libertarians and conservatives overlook.

James

Fallows

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

Title: Moral Myopia — The Cigarette Scandal

Issue: February 1976

Page: 4

Summary: More people are dying of lung cancer, more people are smoking cigarettes, and more cigarette ads are being published by newspapers and magazines.

James

Fallows

Title: What Did You Do in the Class War, Daddy?

Issue: October 1975

Page: 5

Summary: In 1969 the Harvard boys went to Law School. The working class boys from Chelsea went to South Vietnam. Now we're paying the price.

James

Fallows

Title: The Gold in the Garbage: What the Left Can Learn from Ayn Rand

Issue: May 1975

Page: 54

Summary: The Den Mother of the Far Right has some lessons to teach us.

James

Fallows

Title: "The Most Famous Journalist in America"

Issue: March 1975

Page: 4

Summary: Joseph Kraft has days on which he's as good as he thinks he is, but too often too little time to prepare and too much deference to the powerful produce dullness and predictability.

James

Fallows

Title: Ben Bradlee and His All-Star Revue

Issue: January 1975

Page: 37

Summary: The Washington Post is the best newspaper in the country. The Austin American-Statesman is one of the worst. But all too often, the editors of both papers seem like characters out of The Front

James

Fallows

Title: Wheelchairs, Casework, and Bi-Lingual Education

Issue: December 1974

Page: 57

Summary: Leftovers for the reformers.

James

Fallows

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

Title: Michael Straight, Jack Anderson, The New York Review, and The Washington Monthly

Issue: October 1974

Page: 53

Summary: Jack Anderson can take criticism, but the higher-toned folks can't.

James

Fallows

Title: The Crazies Problem: Crazies by the Tail

Issue: September 1974

Page: 50

Summary: What did the Cuban Freedom Brigade, Ngo Dinh Diem, and G. Gordon Liddy have in common?

James

Fallows

Title: With Mailer, Millett, and Capote

Issue: June 1974

Page: 57

Summary: Wanting to be something versus wanting to do something. Up and In in Washington and New York.

James

Fallows

Title: Mary McCarthy -- The Blinders She Wears

Issue: May 1974

Page: 5

Summary: In her brief career as a political reporter she has mastered all the self-limiting tricks of the trade.

James

Fallows

Title: Doing a Little For Others and a Lot for Ourselves

Issue: April 1974

Page: 9

Summary: The foundations have formed a bucket brigade to help the South, but in their concentration on developing new and more elegant ways of passing the pail, they have lost sight of the fire.

James

Fallows

Title: Will Editors Ever Love Flaubert?

Issue: March 1974

Page: 30

Summary: Will they ever learn that fact and color and opinion don't have to be segregated but could be combined to produce a journalism that's genuinely "new" and needed, that the "novelist's eye" of

James

Fallows

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

Title: How We Can Survive the Seventies

Issue: February 1974

Page: 9

Summary: Inside our padded economy is a healthy system crying to be set free. Three ways to eliminate unnecessary jobs and give ourselves some real work for a change.

James

Fallows

Title: Chapter II of Moral Myopia: The Watergate Committee and its Staff

Issue: January 1974

Page: 12

Summary: Sam Dash, et al., can dish it out, but a rock magazine socks it to 'em and they can't take it.

James

Fallows

Title: Death on the Road: Going Beyond Nader and The Reader's Digest

Issue: December 1973

Page: 7

Summary: There are alternatives to preventive detention for drunks and teenagers.

James

Fallows

Title: The Great Stagflation Machine

Issue: October 1973

Page: 53

Summary: What Daniel Ellsberg can teach us about inflation.

James

Fallows

Title: 'Making It' Revisited: Nader, Podhoretz, and Morris

Issue: July/August 1973

Page: 57

Summary: Artists aren't the only ones whose integrity suffers when they pass a certain point on the road between wanting respect and craving fame.

James

Fallows

Title: Putting the Wisdom Back Into Intelligence

Issue: July 1973

Page: 6

Summary: Figuring out what we don't want the CIA to do--give us another Bay of Pigs or provide disguises for Gordon Liddy--is easier than deciding what we do want it to do. Setting an agenda for the CIA

James

Fallows

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

Title: The Limits of the Law

Issue: October 1998

Page: 34

Summary: Arthur Liman's career sheds light on scandals from Iran-Contra to Monicagate.

James

Fallows

Title:

Issue:

Page:

Summary:

James

Fallows

The Washington Monthly

Content Database

Author Index

Title: Rational Lampoon

Issue: July/August 1991

Page: 54

Summary: Finally, P. J. O'Rourke breaks from the right-wing bad boys

James

Fallows

Title: On the Home Front: All Glory, No Guts

Issue: April 1991

Page: 21

Summary: For most of America, freeing Kuwait was just another free ride

James

Fallows

Title: Class Can't Be Dismissed

Issue: March 1991

Page: 49

Summary: Before we can solve class problems, we have to recognize they exist.

James

Fallows

Title: Blood, Class and Nostalgia: Anglo-American Ironies.

Issue: November 1990

Page: 59

Summary: Political Booknotes

James

Fallows

Title: Pizza in Pushkin's Square

Issue: September 1990

Page: 58

Summary: Political Booknotes

James

Fallows

Title: White House Confidential

Issue: February 1990

Page: 45

Summary: The top speechwriter for Reagan and Bush takes you behind her lines.

James

Fallows