

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

OFFICE OF PRESIDENTIAL SCHEDULING

Please Deliver to: Laura CappsNumber of Pages (including cover sheet): 4Fax Number: 62239Sender: Karin KullmanDate: 6/3/98

Message: _____

Note: The information contained in this facsimile message is CONFIDENTIAL and intended for the recipient ONLY. If there are any problems with this transmission please call (202) 456-2823.

JUN-01-98 01:24P ARK BAR ASSOCIATION

501 375 4901

P.01

JACK A. McNULTY
PRESIDENT
P. O. Box 7808
PINE BLUFF, ARKANSAS 71611
(870) 534-5532 FAX: (870) 534-5582

400 W. MARKHAM • LITTLE ROCK, AR 72201 • 501-375-4606 • 1-800-609-5668 • FAX: 501-375-4901

Nancy Hernreich
Assistant to the President
1600 Pennsylvania Ave NW
Washington, D.C. 20500-2000

VIA FAX 202-456-6703

Dear Nancy:

Please find accompanying this letter a request to President and Mrs. Clinton for a congratulatory video message for the occasion of the Arkansas Bar Association's 100th Annual Meeting, which will be held June 10-13th in Hot Springs, Arkansas. In visiting with Shelby Woods and Skip Rutherford at Cranford Johnson Robinson Woods in Little Rock, our Bar Association staff learned that because of the President's upcoming trip to China, this request is very much in the nature of "short notice." And because of that, we would greatly appreciate anything you could do to assist us in this matter.

For your convenience, I have taken the liberty of accompanying this with a list of "talking points" that might serve to help President and Mrs. Clinton, should they be able to fulfill our request. If you need any further information or have any questions, please feel to contact either myself, at 870-534-5532, or Don Hollingsworth, Association Executive Director, or Judith Gray, Associate Executive Director at 501-375-4606.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Jack A. McNulty, President
Arkansas Bar Association

JACK A. McNULTY

PRESIDENT

P. O. Box 7808

PINE BLUFF, ARKANSAS 71611

(870) 534-5532 FAX: (870) 534-5582

400 W. MARKHAM • LITTLE ROCK, AR 72201 • 501-375-4606 • 1-800-609-5668 • FAX: 501-375-4901

President and Mrs. William J. Clinton
1600 Pennsylvania Ave NW
Washington, D.C. 20500-2000

Dear President and Mrs Clinton:

We at the Arkansas Bar Association are currently celebrating our Centennial Year and we will be holding our 100th Annual Meeting in Hot Springs June 10th-13th. In honor of this historic occasion, we would like to ask if you, as our two most prestigious Association members, would consider making a short congratulatory video message for the occasion. I realize that this is relatively short notice in light of your upcoming trip to China, however, we would be deeply honored if you would do this. We are expecting a record-breaking turnout for this Grand Celebration and a message of congratulations from you will make the occasion truly momentous.

Thank you for your consideration.

Best Regards,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'Jack', written over a horizontal line.

Jack A. McNulty, President
Arkansas Bar Association

Adrienne H. Brietzke
Director of Publications and Special Projects

Program
AVLE

Arlington Hotel
501.623.7771

Judy Gray
501.375.4606

904

- More than 1,000 lawyers and judges are expected to attend the 100th Annual Meeting of the Arkansas Bar Association, June 10-13, 1998 at the Arlington Hotel in Hot Springs, Arkansas.
- The highlight of the program is the keynote address by U. S. Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas
- Former Governors Sid McMath, Dale Bumpers and David Pryor participate in a panel moderated by Steve Barnes for a historical perspective on how lawyers influenced the history of this state.
- Other featured presenters include Arkansas Governor Mike Huckabee, American Bar Association President-Elect Philip S. Anderson, and United States Circuit Judge Richard Arnold.
- The Arkansas Bar Association is a voluntary association of over 4,100 Arkansas lawyers which was founded in 1898.
- The Association's purposes include improving the administration of justice, providing continuing legal education for attorneys through programs and publications, helping educate the public about the American judicial system and their rights and responsibilities and promoting lawyers' adherence to high ethical standards and a sense of public responsibility.

- President (his meeting): Jack A. McNulty, Pine Bluff

Wife: Montine

- Incoming President: Robert M. Cearley, Jr., Little Rock

- Program Chair: Fred S. Ursery, Little Rock

AVLE Idury

PRESIDENT WILLIAM J. CLINTON
VIDEO MESSAGE FOR THE ARKANSAS BAR ASSOCIATION
JUNE 11, 1998

Hillary and I are honored to be a part of the 100th anniversary meeting of the Arkansas Bar Association. I've enjoyed being a part of your annual meeting year after year, and wish I could be with you for this centennial celebration. In particular, I would have loved listening to former Governors Sid McMath, Dale Bumpers, and David Pryor give their historical perspective on how lawyers have shaped the history of this state. I just hope a lot of time was allowed for that part of the program. . .

One hundred years ago, the association was formed under the leadership of the great U.M. Rose, who went on to become president of the American Bar Association in 1901. Edward L. Wright followed in those footsteps, becoming ABA President in 1967. I'd like to congratulate Philip S. Anderson -- the ABA's incoming president for taking that tradition a step further. The far reaching influence of Arkansas Bar Association and the excellent tradition of its leadership is a great tribute to Arkansas.

Arkansas lawyers do their vital share of pro-bono work in nearly every county across our state. I commend the association for implementing a citizen service project called "100 Hours for 100 Years" and encourage all of your members to become involved. Pro-bono work is a national priority of mine; I am grateful that the Arkansas Bar Association shares this commitment.

I'd like to praise Jack McNulty for his fine leadership and dedication to the Arkansas Bar Association. I'm confident that Robert Cearley will uphold the distinction as he guides this organization into its second century. As a proud due-paying member for 25 years, I thank all of you for the valuable public service you have provided for the people of Arkansas. Here's to 100 more years.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE AFFAIRS

FAX COVER SHEET

NOTE: THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS FACSIMILE MESSAGE IS CONFIDENTIAL AND INTENDED FOR THE RECIPIENT ONLY.

DATE: 6/9

TO: Laura Capps

FAX: 62239

FROM: Elisa Millsap
Telephone: (202) 456-7848 Fax: (202) 456-2604

RE: _____

PAGE 1 OF 12

If there are any problems with this transmission, please call (202) 456-6620.

PRESIDENT WILLIAM J. CLINTON
VIDEO MESSAGE FOR THE ARKANSAS BAR ASSOCIATION
JUNE 11, 1998

Hillary and I are honored to be a part of the 100th anniversary meeting of the Arkansas Bar Association. I've enjoyed being a part of your annual meeting year after year, and wish I could be with you for this centennial celebration. In particular, I would have loved listening to former Governors Sid McMath, Dale Bumpers, and David Pryor give their historical perspective on how lawyers have influenced the history of this state. I just hope a lot of time was allowed for that session. . . Shaped

One hundred years ago, the association was formed under the leadership of the great U.M. Rose, who went on to become president of the American Bar Association in 1901.

check his can provide extra send
Edward L. Wright ~~followed in these footsteps~~, becoming ABA President in 1967. I'd like to congratulate Philip S. Anderson -- the ABA's current incoming president for taking that tradition into a new century a step further. The far reaching influence of Arkansas Bar Association and the excellent tradition of it's leadership is a great tribute to our state.

Arkansas lawyers do their vital share of pro-bono work in nearly every county in the state. I commend the association for implementing a citizen service project called "100 Hours for 100 Years" and encourage all of assoc. members to become involved. Pro-bono work is a national priority of mine and I am grateful that the Arkansas Bar Association shares this commitment.

I'd like to praise Jack McNulty for his fine leadership and dedication to the Arkansas Bar Association. I'm confident that Robert Cearley will uphold the distinction as he guides this for 25 years organization into its second century. As a proud due-paying member ~~since 1973~~, I would like to thank all of you at the Arkansas Bar Association for the valuable public service you have provided for the people of Arkansas. ~~Here's to 100 more years.~~

I wish another 100 years of success.

PRESIDENT WILLIAM J. CLINTON
VIDEO MESSAGE FOR THE ARKANSAS BAR ASSOCIATION
JUNE 11, 1998

Hillary and I are honored to be a part of the 100th anniversary ~~meeting~~ of the Arkansas Bar Association. I've enjoyed being a part of your annual meeting year after year, and wish I could be with you for this centennial celebration. In particular, I would have loved listening to former Governors Sid McMath, Dale Bumpers, and David Pryor give their historical perspective on how lawyers have shaped the history of this state. I just hope a lot of time was allowed for that part of the program. . .

Not just for the
The far reaching influence of Arkansas Bar Association and the excellent tradition of its leadership is a tribute to our state. ~~One hundred years ago~~, the association was formed under the leadership of the great U.M. Rose, who went on to become president of the American Bar Association in 1901. Edward L. Wright followed in those footsteps, becoming ABA President in 1967. I'd like to congratulate Philip S. Anderson, the American Bar Association's incoming president, for carrying the legacy further.

Arkansas lawyers do their vital share of pro-bono work in nearly every county across our state. I commend the association for implementing a citizen service project called "100 Hours for 100 Years" and encourage all of your members to become involved. Pro-bono work is a national priority of mine; I am grateful that the Arkansas Bar Association shares this commitment.

✓
I'd like to praise Jack McNulty for his fine leadership ~~and dedication to the Arkansas Bar Association~~. I'm confident that Robert Cearley will uphold the distinction as he guides this organization into its second century. As a proud due-paying member for 25 years, I thank all of you for the valuable public service you have provided for the people of Arkansas. Here's to 100 more years.

~~At 10:11~~