

CRIME BILL -- DOLLARS FOR WYOMING, 1995 - 2000
(Revised 8/22/94)

LAW ENFORCEMENT

- * 100,000 POLICE -- Guaranteed minimum of $44 million -- more than 500 police officers at $75,000 per officer.
 -  Given Wyoming's share of the population and the additional $6.5 billion in discretionary dollars, Wyoming should expect a total of about $50 million over the next 6 years.
 -  Of the total, up to 85% can be used to hire about 600 police officers. At least 15% -- $8 million -- can be used to help pay the training, overtime and administrative costs of implementing community policing in Wyoming.
- * PRISONS & BOOT CAMPS -- $13 million for prison grants, including military-style boot camp prisons. An additional estimated $13 million is possible if Wyoming meets the "Truth in Sentencing" target of second-time violent offenders serving 85% of their sentences.
- * BYRNE ENFORCEMENT GRANTS -- $1 billion in the Trust Fund will help continue full funding for these grants, including Wyoming's $2 million annual share.
- * RURAL LAW ENFORCEMENT GRANTS -- $6.5 million for drug and crime enforcement in Wyoming's rural areas.
- * DISCRETIONARY GRANTS -- Wyoming's law enforcement agencies and courts may apply for:
 -  $1,000,000,000 -- Drug Court programs (treatment backed up by drug testing and certain punishment for non-violent offenders currently on probation.) Estimated $1.8 million for Wyoming -- enough for about 900 offenders over six years.
 -  $320,000,000 -- Criminal record systems (Brady Law), communications equipment, and DNA testing; and
 -  $200,000,000 -- Judges, prosecutors and public defenders (estimated $350,000 for Wyoming).

PREVENTION PROGRAMS

- * LOCAL PARTNERSHIP ACT -- $3 million in direct grants to cities and towns in Wyoming. Wide discretion permits local governments to use the dollars for education, drug treatment, and jobs programs.
- * VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT -- $2 million in grants for police, prosecutors and victims services; $600,000 in grants for shelters for battered women and their children; and Wyoming can apply for a share of $500 million in several discretionary programs.
- * AFTERSCHOOL AND IN-SCHOOL "SAFE HAVENS" FOR AT-RISK CHILDREN -- $1.3 million for non-profit, community-based organizations in Wyoming.
- * DRUG TREATMENT IN PRISONS -- $1.4 million to treat up to an estimated 1,200 drug-addicted prisoners in Wyoming prisons over the next 6 years.
- * LOCAL CRIME PREVENTION BLOCK GRANT -- $1.2 million in direct grants to cities and towns for various programs, including:
 -  ANTI-GANG GRANTS -- to give young people positive alternatives to gangs, such as academic and athletic after-school activities, mentoring programs and scout troops.
 -  MIDNIGHT SPORTS LEAGUES -- to give at-risk youth nightly alternatives to the streets, and for the U.S. Olympic Committee to develop supervised sports and recreation programs in high-crime areas.
 -  BOYS AND GIRLS CLUBS -- to establish clubs in low-income housing communities, and to encourage police officers to live in those communities.
 -  TRIAD -- for partnerships between senior citizens groups, police chiefs and sheriffs to combat crimes against elderly Americans.
 -  POLICE PARTNERSHIPS FOR CHILDREN -- for partnerships between law enforcement and social service agencies to fight crimes against children, and for the creation of youth councils to combat crime.
 -  VISITATION CENTERS -- for supervised centers for divorced or separated parents to visit their children in "safe havens" when there is a history or risk of physical or sexual abuse.

-  YOUTH DEVELOPMENT CENTERS -- to develop more effective education, training, research, prevention, diversion, treatment and rehabilitation programs for violent juveniles, including alternatives to school suspension and juvenile court diversion.
-  SAFE SENIORS CORRIDORS -- to provide older Americans with enhanced protection from crime by increasing police presence and crime prevention activities by community groups.
-  HOPE IN YOUTH -- to create Family Outreach Teams composed of youth, parents and school-parent organizers for mentoring, community organizing and peer counseling.
- * DISCRETIONARY GRANTS -- State agencies and non-profit organizations may apply for a share of:
 -  MODEL INTENSIVE GRANTS -- $626 million for intensive, comprehensive and flexible aid to areas, urban and rural, hardest hit by crime and violence.
 -  NATIONAL COMMUNITY ECONOMIC PARTNERSHIP -- $270 million to extend lines of credit of up to $2 million to community development corporations to provide small, low-interest loans to businesses in low-income neighborhoods.
 -  GANG RESISTANCE EDUCATION AND TRAINING ("GREAT") -- $45 million for school-based programs to teach children to resist peer pressure and understand the negative impact of gangs and drugs.
 -  URBAN RECREATION AND AT-RISK YOUTH -- $4.5 million to expand recreational facilities in high-crime areas.
