MEMORANDUM TO: Members of the National Disability Policy Review
Team, Guiding Principles Workgroup

FROM: Bob Williams, Commissioner Administration on Developmental Disabilities
Convener, Guiding Principles Workgroup

SUBJECT: Process and timeline for review of Guiding Principles

I am writing to update you on the status of a discussion draft of the Guiding Principles.

A subcommittee of the full workgroup has continued to work on refining the document per input from the December meeting. This draft will be shared with the conveners of each workgroup in a meeting scheduled for the first week in February.

Following the conveners' review, a draft will be faxed to each of you and shared with the advocacy community for additional discussion and comment. The guiding principles workgroup may be convened prior to the full NDPRT meeting February 22 should comments received require further discussion.

Members of the full policy review team will discuss and adopt a final version of the Guiding Principles document at the meeting scheduled for February 22nd.

Should you have any questions, please contact Kate Warren at (202) 690-6120.

*Also, please check this as to ~~process~~ if timeline
before it goes out Thank,
Kate*

The following represents the collective thoughts and creative energies of Judy Heumann, Howard Moses, Susan Daniels, Liz Savage, Paul Miller, Andy Imp..., Speed Davis, Kate Warren and myself. It is meant to be a point of departure rather than a final product. Thank you! Bob Williams

The fundamental role of governments in respect to individuals with disabilities should be to assure the right of such persons (citizens?) to enjoy full inclusion and integration in the educational, economic, political, social and cultural mainstream of American society. In practical terms, therefore, governments must assure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to live as independently as possible; enjoy self-determination; make choices; and, to be productive throughout their lives. It is, therefore, in the Nation's interest that public policies, programs, benefits and activities affecting such individuals be designed and implemented to:

- o Provide strong, effective and fair enforcement of the Americans with Disabilities Act, Title V of the Rehabilitation Act, the Fair Housing Act Amendments, and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act to help end discrimination against Americans with disabilities and strengthen our Nation's communities and economy.
- o Strengthen the capacities of such persons and assure that needed services and supports are provided in a coordinated fashion which maximizes their control over their own lives and futures in the mainstream of American life.
- o Assure that any assistance provided to such a person is carried out in an individualized manner, consistent with the unique strengths, resources, priorities, concerns, choices, abilities and capabilities of that individual.
- o Support the efforts of families with children with disabilities to raise their sons and daughters at home and to include them in every facet of family and community life.
- o Improve access to the assistance, technology and supports which enable these individuals to have greater control over their lives and contribute more fully to their home, family, school, work and community life.
- o Assure that qualified individuals with disabilities have the opportunity to achieve equally effective results in all programs and activities by insuring such support is universally designed to meet the needs of the public and disability related needs as well.
- o Make it pay~~ff~~ for such citizens to work by creating incentives rather than disincentives to work and to pursue careers.
