

Lissa - for next week

1101 17th Street, NW Suite 1102
Washington, DC 20036
202 785-4500 Fax 202 785-3539

1994 NATIONAL PARK FOUNDATION AWARDS

Theodore & Conrad Wirth Environmental Award

For outstanding leadership in the preservation of environmental resources, both nationally and internationally

Laurence W. "Bill" Lane, Jr., Co-Chairman, Lane Publishing Co.; former Publisher, Sunset Magazine; Ambassador & COM, Australia & Nehru, 1985-89; Ambassador & Commissioner General Japan, 1975-76; member of the Vail Symposium Steering Committee; provided initial funds for the Vail Initiative; Founder/benefactor of the highly successful new Mt. Rainier and Olympic Park Fund; contributed more than $200,000 to the NPS Parks as Classrooms education program in California; Chair of the NPCA 75th Anniversary Conference

National Park Foundation Partnership Leadership Award

Recognizes the outstanding partnership contributions of external organizations in advancing the missions of the National Park Service (Award Committee selected two winners in 1994)

Friends of Meridian Hill Park for their outstanding volunteer rehabilitation effort that dramatically rescued the Park from crime and physical decay and restored the Park to its former glory for the good of the community.

Dade County Public Schools for twenty years of cooperative efforts enabling more than 250,000 students, teachers and parents to learn about the critical issues facing the Everglades ecosystem.

Harry Yount National Park Ranger Lifetime Achievement Award

For excellence in "rangering" resulting in the appreciation for the art and science of the Park Ranger profession on the part of the public as well as other members of the profession

Richard T. Gale