Dear Ms. Lovell,

I am enclosing a copy of a letter that was sent to First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton, dated April 2000. As Head of the Chapter of the Associate Member Group of the non-profit Association FEMMES d'EUROPE, I would like to call special attention to our Millennium fundraising project.

We are in the process of compiling a Millennium Cookbook with recipes from our European Union and Non-Union members consisting of 150 international recipes. We would be especially honored if Mrs Clinton would send us her favorite recipe to be included in this publication. The United States is one of our non-EU members.

I would appreciate your assistance in this matter and look forward to receiving a response in the very near future. On behalf of the Association I would like to thank you for your assistance. I remain,

Sincerely,

Hedy Watters

Head of the Associate Members Group

Brussels, April 2000

Madame,

Please allow me the honor of introducing myself as the Head of the Associate Group to the Association of European Women in Brussels - a non-profit philanthropic organization with no political ties. The Association of European Women was established in 1976. Women of diverse backgrounds in the Belgian community have come together volunteering their time toward a common goal to assist the less fortunate women, children and the handicapped worldwide. The President d'honneur is Mrs PRODI, the spouse of the President of the European Commission. The Association has 1200 members, all volunteers. The Associate Group is an international group consisting of ladies from many different countries that are not members of the European Union. It includes the wives of Ambassadors and senior representatives of the business community in Brussels and other ladies who represent the highest levels of Governments accredited to the important diplomatic institutions in Brussels. We are delighted that the wife of your Ambassador in Belgium is a member of our group.

Once a year the Association selects important projects worldwide, which will be supported with financial assistance. To be able to realize our aim, we must raise money. The contribution of each National group and the Associate group is an essential feature of the Association. In order to achieve this worthwhile objective, the members organize many events such as concerts, exhibitions, theatre performances, lunches, etc. Another important landmark in the Women of Europe's year is the traditional Christmas Bazaar at the end of the year. This year the Associate Members have decided to celebrate the millennium by producing an international cookbook, which will demonstrate their cultural diversity and commitment to supporting women and children worldwide.

*To Mrs Hillary Rodham Clinton
First Lady of the United States
White House

The benefit, which will come from this book, represents our commitment to supporting women and children worldwide. We believe that this international cookbook will be the attraction of the year among many different organizations and institutes.

To this end we kindly ask you to support our project by providing us with a recipe or two that will draw on the special heritage and culture of the kitchen of your distinguished country. For more precise information about the Association of the Women of Europe, I am sending you hereby enclosed a pamphlet.

Please accept our sincere thanks for your understanding and eventual contribution to our project, which is extremely important for the success of our fund-raising efforts.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Ms. Mcguire

We are so very excited that you will be a part of our MOM'S Club Cookbook! Your recipe will be a wonderful addition to our cookbook, while enabling our organization to assist a great charity, The Family Tree.

As I mentioned in our phone conversation, the Mom's Club is an international non-profit support group for stay at home mothers. In Howard County alone, we have more than 450 members! We offer our members a multitude of activities that empower women to feel content in their choice to stay at home with their children. One of the group's best attributes is that we are active in our community. We wholeheartedly support philanthropic events that benefit children and families in Howard County.

This year, we have chosen to raise funds for THE FAMILY TREE. This non-profit organization is the leading Maryland agency in the prevention of child abuse and education in strengthening of families statewide through its many free community based programs. ONE HUNDRED PERCENT of the proceeds though the sales and advertising of this cookbook will benefit THE FAMILY TREE.

We ask that you support our cookbook by submitting a family-friendly recipe to be published along with your business's name. Your participation will show that you support children and families in the community. Your recipe adds a celebrity quality to our cookbook and will appear at no charge!

The cookbook will be a professionally designed laminated cookbook. In our marketing, we will distribute press releases to all major media, list sales via the MOM'S Club and The Family Tree web sites, and donate a copy to Howard County Public Library so that as many families as possible can enjoy this publication. We will also seek to create a media sensation by trying to promote the cookbook on local television news stations.

The deadline for submitting recipes and advertisements is April 17, 2000. I'm sure that you will want to take advantage of the accessibility to so many community members by placing an advertisement in our cookbook. I have enclosed an advertising cost sheet for your convenience and I am sure you will find it's well worth the modest tax -deductible cost. We will send you a letter with the specifics for your tax purposes. Please send submissions to me at the address written above.

I, and the MOM'S Club members, look forward to your support in this wonderful and delicious project!

Sincerely,

Linda Lagala-Spano
MOM'S Club member and Family Tree Volunteer

Dear Mrs. Clinton,

In celebration of our 25th Anniversary, the Army Officers Wives' Club of the Greater Washington Area (AOWCGWA) is producing a Silver Jubilee Cookbook. This cookbook will include recipes from members both past and present.

Our cookbook will proudly feature a special Honorary section in which we will showcase recipes from the spouses of senior military leaders and dignitaries in the greater Washington area. We invite you to share that special menu for your favorite meal, informal or family, or social occasion (brunch, reception, cocktail party, luncheon or dinner). We would welcome the complete menu for the entire meal and those ever helpful "tricks of the trade" for entertaining. The Honorary section will definitely be the highlight of our Jubilee collection.

Enclosed are several recipe forms. Please feel free to duplicate the forms as necessary or submit in your own format. The recipes may be returned to me at the address below or emailed to BDHonore@aol.com. Please feel free to call me with any questions.
