Dear Buddy,

I like you. Do you like Socks?

I like dogs better

My two dogs are cute.

They're outside dogs.

Dear Buddy,

Hi, my name is Amanda. How are you doing with Socks? Are you friends yet? I have a dog named Lacey. She doesn't want to live with our cat. Do you have your own room? If you do, could you send me a picture of it? How is it to live in the White House? Do you go outside a lot? My dog is outside from 7:00 AM to 7:30 PM unless there is a storm or something. Before I end this letter, I was just wondering if I could have your paw print, made from you instead of a machine? Can I have your family's autograph, too?

Dear Buddy,

So, how's it going at the White House? How does it feel to be the first dog? I'm a big fan of yours. Also, how's that cat, "Socks"? Is it really hectic over there?

I have a dog named Penney, she's a girl. I also have a cat named Patches, he's a boy.

Does the White House have a movie theater? How many "color" rooms does the White House have? What are their colors? I live in a really small town, how big is Washington DC? Do you roam the White House alot? How many walks do you get outside? Who usually walks you?

I'm sure it must seem hectic for you at the White House. However, I would appreciate it if you could include answers to some questions for me in your response.

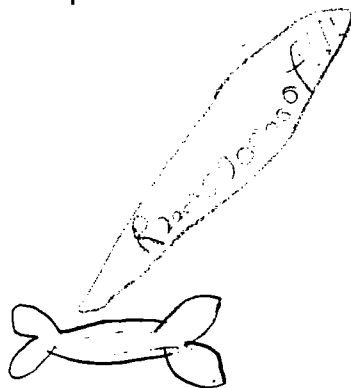

I'm in the 7th grade at Holy Family School. I am 13 years old. Also, I am writing this for an English assignment. Write Back!
