Dear Jacks ~ (

Christmas 1995

I'm your long-lost Roman cousin! When my parents saw your picture they thought we were twins. There's just one difference between us, though, as I'm blind. (I'm dictating this letter to an American friend who's in Rome right now.) My mom talked to a veterinarian, but there's no chance for a transplant. I will remain blind. But I'm very happy in a loving home with my parents (Anna-Maria and Garibaldo Marfe) and my siblings, both cat (Pirina) and human (Cristine). (My parents just have one daughter like you just have Chelsea) I would love to meet my Aunt Hillary and Uncle Bill for a chat. We are friends with our

Dear Socks,

Hello from Delaware!! My name is Amber Still. I hope you have a very good Christmas! What do you want? Mice probably. I want a Super Nintendo! But, no matter what you get, I still hope you have a very merry Christmas!!

My cat  "Little Aunt" looks alot like you! He is 4. How old are you? Or, do you not want to tell?

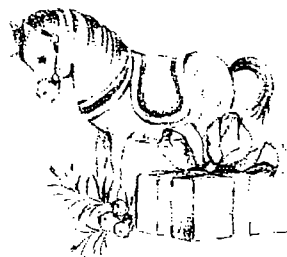

I heard that you were breaking some antiques in the White House! But, that's not true, is it? Because Santa knows if your naughty or nice! So, be good! Because, I want you to get good presents!

Do you know "Toonies the Driving Cat?" He's on Saturday Night Live! Gotta go!

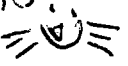

Love,
Amber

Merry Christmas!

May your Christmas be filled with all that brings you happiness (like mice!)

Love,
Amber

Dear Sacks:

I learned in 1992 how important household pets are during an election year. The first time I saw you on TV I knew you would become a very popular celebrity. I live with an elderly lady that everyone calls Granny Pete. She is 76 years old and a real "dyed in the wool" Democrat. When she decided to use the whole front of her house to campaign for Bill and Al I thought it was my duty to help her as much as I could. When she made all these signs to go on her house I knew that was my chance to do my thing to get the message across. When I caught her taking pictures of her house I jumped at the chance to get in the act. I'm sending you a couple of pictures so you will know what I'm talking about. She had lots of these pictures made and I understand she sent them to people all over the country. They must have helped a little because we won the election. Now we have to get ready for '96. I would appreciate very much having an autographed picture of you.

Please sign it "To Poobie" (that's my name) from Socks.

I promise to work real hard until '96 so you can live in the White House another 4 years.

Believe it or not, I'm one dog that really likes cats.

Hoping to hear from you soon,
Your fellow Democrat.

My address is - ~~"Poobie" to Dora Knabb~~

P.S. Thank you in advance for the picture.
