Dear Socks,

X

I've been hearing a lot about you. Can I have your autograph and the president's autograph? Do you know my cat, Simba?

I will tell you how I got Simba. Well it all started when my dad went to work one of his friends from work

My dad said where do you get the cat flip. They asked my dad if he wanted one of their new born kittens. My dad said "No," but then he said, "Ok well maybe I'll have that one." So when my dad got home my friend was over, so he asked me to carry a box in the house. ~~For a while~~ Mom dad is home. He wants me to carry a box. So I went back to the car.

Then ~~he~~ ~~said~~ "What's in there?" I opened it and I saw a little tiny kitten crawling around in a box. That's the end. Well that's my story! Like it?

Sincerely,

Paula Ann DeJulia

I just finished reading a book about a cat named Socks, by Beverly Cleary. It was a great book.

In the book the cat named Socks is black & white and he looks like you too. I liked the part when they made a bed for him but instead he slept on the couch. That was funny.

Could you send me a picture of you? Thank you.
