Dear Socks:

How do you like the white house I'm in? I like it. I love animals but I love cats the most. But if you're white and gray I want to tell you I like white and gray cats the most. I used to have six cats but one something bad happened to it. And the other one died I think. And now I only have to boy cats and one girl cat. A long long time ago when I was one or was't even born yet my dad had a cat named Socks. I least I think.

Dear Socks,

This week our class researched some interesting facts about the White House. We spent one day discussing White House pets. Each student had to choose an animal to be the White House pet and tell why it would make a good pet. Several of my students chose a cat for their pet!

We read in Mailbox Magazine that if we wrote you a letter, we would probably get a response. If you have time, my students would love to hear from you and if possible get your autograph. This activity was a great way to review the parts of a friendly letter also!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Jackson's third grade class

Dear Docks,

I would be glad to have you come to Horace Mann Elementary.
Are you a Boy or a girl? How is the owner of you? Do you get to go where you want? How is it like being a cat? Do you have cloths and socks on? I have 7 cats. Their names are Sue, Blizzerd, and Tigger. I forgot the rest.

Dear Socks,

I would love to be you. You so lucky! You get to live in the White House with the president and his family. We have been learning about the White House.
Is it fun living in the White House? I mean how is it? Can I have your pawprint? I can understand if you don't want to give it to me. I just thought it be fun to have the president cat's pawprint.

Sincerely,
Harry

Dear Mr. President,

I am a first grade teacher at the Lt. Clayre P. Sullivan School in Holyoke, Massachusetts. I have a wonderfully bright group of children who are blossoming into great readers and writers. Recently, we read a story called The Good Bad Cat. In this story, the cat does many good things and many bad things. We had great fun extending this story as we talked about Socks. The children thought of questions to ask Socks about good, or bad things that he may do. I hope that you enjoy the ideas of these great writers of our future.

Thank you for your time and interest.

Very Sincerely,

Dear Socks,

Hello, my name is Tammy Jones and I am very fortunate to be the teacher of a wonderful group of first graders here at Central School in Huntsville Alabama. Over the past few weeks we have been learning about our country. In this unit we also learned a lot about the capitol of our country, Washington D.C., and about the First Family. We have had a lot of fun discovering things in books and on the internet.

My students are using their friendly letter skills to write you. I hope that you will be able to respond to some of their letters this summer. They will be very excited to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Tammy Jones

Dear Socks,

I had a cat but somebody stole her on Halloween night.
My mommy had cat stuff for her but when we got home she was gone so we had to take the cat stuff back to the store that we got that cat stuff at. I loved my cat very much.
Her name was Whiskers. When I got up close to Whiskers she would cuddle up on my legs. You must really like it

Dear Socks,

I hope you are fine and a very Happy Christmas to you I know that Santa will like you and put a lot of gifts in your stocking. It will be decorated with ribbons, lights and beautiful decorations. You will be hanging on the chimney. Please give a message to Santa that I want a Barbie Doll for Christmas. Wishing you a Happy New Year. Will see you soon.

With

Love
