Dear Socks,

In this package you will find letters from many of your fans in Campbellsville. The students in Mrs. Skagg's third grade class under the direction of Miss Creason, the student teacher, have been learning about Washington D.C. They have been eager to learn about our nation's capital. The class read about your new friend, Buddy, in Scholastic News and we hope that the two of you really are buddies now.

Sincerely,
The Third Grade Class

Dear Socks,

Do you and Buddy get along with each other?
Does Buddy play ruff?

I wish you were my cat.

You sure would be fun to play with.

I had a dog (it was a child puppy).

But it died it caught a disease.

I'm going to get another one

Dear Socks,

What's up? Not too much here. Why are you not being friends with Buddy? I know how it feels to have some one new in the house. Here are some solutions to your problem! - Put both of you in a cage till you are friends. Get one toy and you both try to take it up as a team and you get to be buddies!

Dear Socks,

Why don't you straighten up your acts with Buddy? I bet he's as innocent as you are. I would straighten out or if you don't, I'll tell you some of the solutions the president might use to get you two together. He might put you in a cage together and make you stay until your friends.

What is it like having fun? I'd say its itchy! Your house looks awesome, I'd say so my self! You be very good to Buddy!

RE: Letters to Socks

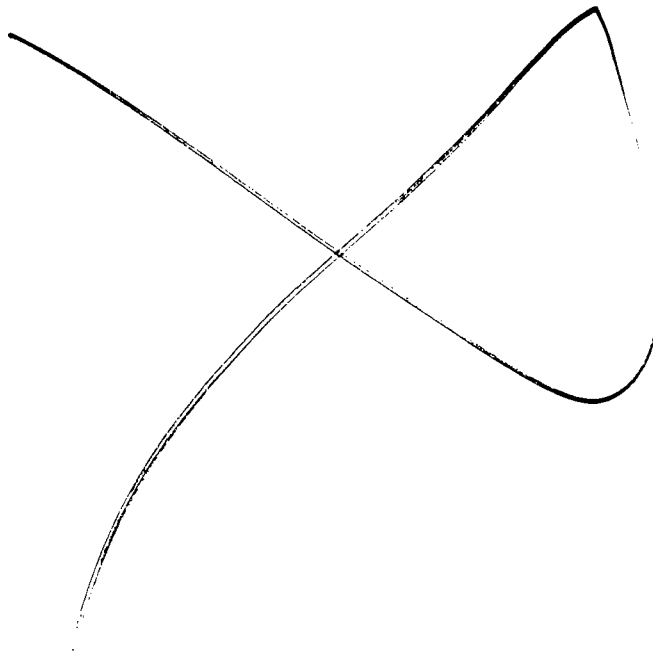

To whom it may concern,

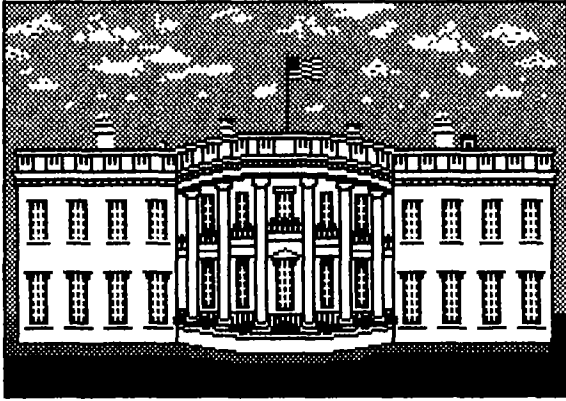

I am a 2nd grade teacher at Hunter's Green Elementary in Tampa, Florida. My class has just completed a unit of study on America. After learning about the White House, the children decided it would be a great idea to write to Socks, the White House cat. I'd really appreciate any response you could give us. The children are anxiously awaiting to hear from you.

Schmidt

Dear Socks,
We have been talking about
the White house
for a long time how
many are you? have
you been chewing
on furniture? Do you like to take a
bath? If you are wondering how

many cats I have
I have 2 cat. Do you get to go on walks a lot. Does
the president get
to take you on
walks? every day
do you get to go
on walks? how long
have you been in
in the White house?

Love Patty

Dear socks, Do you have to go down in the basement at night. What color of cat do you? What color is the basement?
What's going on at the White house? Are you getting in trouble any more? Does buddy chase you if he does run strait forward than turn back and hide. How do you get so smart? Well my name is Jesse Ray Smith. I like to play game boy and nintendo. At school I play tetherball every day.

Your friend
Jesse Smith

Dear Socks,
Is it fun living in the White House? Do you have any kittens? Does Buddy ever chase you? On my way to school for two mornings a cat has been on the roof of my neighbor house. I don't think that could ever happen to you.

from Logan

Dear Saks,

How are doing? Were you chewing or scratching the furniture? Which room were you doing too? I am 7 years old. My favorite thing to do is to play teather ball.

Love Craig

Dear Socks,

My Name is Monica are you a boy or girl? Have you ever chewed or scratched on furniture? do you like to sleep in the basement? I don't do you take a bath? I do do you have babies? I don't. Love Monica
