NEW YORK

Young Sam & Lynn Murphy
June 6/1992

~~Dear "Socks",~~

I have just heard a new joke, or rather my human heard it. It goes: "If we (the People) want to get rid of that trashy Monica, we should send her for a ride with Teddy Kennedy!" My human says, Here's hoping you get along with "Buddy". Have your humans tell him "No!" if he gets rough with you. I maybe find you a loveable Kitty since you look like my black + white Kitty "Valerie".

Dear Socks,

My name is Nora Feeney. I just read a book about a cat named Socks. Do you like your friend Buddy?

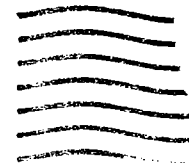

The book was about a cat named Socks and his owners have a baby and he doesn't get as much attention. How you get the name Socks?

My dad has written a letter to your owner, Bill, and he wrote back. I would really like it if you would write back or send me a picture of you.

Dear Socks,

I think you are very cute. I LOVE your little white paws.
This letter to you is an English assignment ^{and a} grade. Please write back! I was wondering if it isn't to much, I would like for you to send a photo or information about yourself as a reply. My cat likes all the pictures I have that I have cut out of magazine. I collect all these cat$ plush animals. I have Salem the cat & lots of others but not you. I feel so silly. I am writing you this letter when I don't have a plush of you!!! If you know on the top of your mind were I can get one of you please tell me. Like I said this is an English assingment so please have a response by the end of May, if at all possible. Thank-you for your time and please write back. Thanks again!!!
