Dear President Clinton,
Mrs. Clinton and Chelsey;

Dear "Socks",

Congratulations we are so happy that the best man won (President Clinton). My humans Jackie and Michele Pickell cast their votes for President Clinton. I am only six months old and couldn't vote but "Socks" with President Clinton, Mrs. Clinton, Chelsey and you, in the White House everything looks great for the next four years. I hope you and your family have a purr-fectly wonderful holiday season, and that Santa leaves some cat-nip under the tree.

Your friend and fellow cat,

Mr. Mistofffolees (A.K.A MR. M)

P.S. My humans Jackie and Michele send their regards.

A Warm Christmas Wish
for a Very Special Cat

Fluffy little feline friend
who makes demands of me,
who chooses on a whim
when you would like my company
and scales the highest chest of drawers
but can't get down a tree...
Spoiled and sassy butterball
who perches anyplace--
like on the book I'm reading
and even on my face-- who stalks the little rubber mouse with cunning, lynxlike grace...

Dear Socks,

We were viewing the evening news with our person today and saw footage (as is it pawtage) of your encounter with Buddy. You have so much to put up with, at that big white house. People coming and going all the time, Chelsea going away to school, and now that young roach invading your territory. Shhhush! Well we just wanted to wish you the best and send you our total support. If you need some time away, our place is always open. Call anytime.

Dear Dr. Pet Psychologist

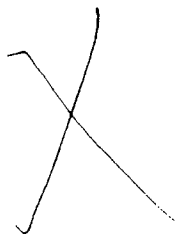

Q: The President got a new chocolate Labrador, and everyone seems very excited. But how does Socks feel?

A: Much like a child dealing with his first sibling, Socks is going through a tough time. Deirdre Ryan-Rivas, an animal-behavior counselor with the ASPCA, says Socks "is going to be a little upset. The cat needs to have a room of his own. Fortunately, they have a lot to choose from." Dr. Bonnie Beaver, a veterinary behaviorist at Texas A&M, agrees. "The biggest problem you worry about is that the dog can bother the cat around the litter-box area. The cat gets all postured and ready to eliminate and along comes this pest. So a lot of them stop using the litter box."

Dear Socks:

Wishing you
a Festive Christmas
and a Happy New Year.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus...

He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy....

Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see....Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders there are unseen and unseeable in the world.
