Dear Mrs. Sagawa:

Thank you for taking time to meet the Executive Directors and staff of City Year. I realize that your schedule is very hectic and for that reason, I am even more appreciative for the meeting.

I was very impressed to learn of your critical role in helping to develop AmeriCorps. AmeriCorps is a vital part of City Year's, and many programs, existence. As we approach the new millennium, I hope that support for AmeriCorps programs will increase throughout the country.

Thank you for your time. I look forward to meeting with you if your work brings you to Chicago. Please do not hesitate to call me at (312) 464-9899 ext. 25.

Respectfully,

Dear Ms. Sagawa,

Thank you for your letter of April 9th.

I had no idea we had crossed paths before and apologize for my moment of forgetfulness. I always remember that Echoing Green Conference, because Ed Cohen set me up to follow a remarkable performer that, if you recall, gave a song, dance, and oratory recital. All I could think of was what a challenge it was going to be to follow this Broadway performer with a talk for which I had only prepared some sketchy notes – as Ed said, nothing special, very informal (!).

Again, thanks for your letter and I do hope we have the chance to meet again soon.

Sincerely,

Mario Morino

Dear Shirley:

Thank you very much for taking the time to meet with me, Dave Mercer and Barbara Ott to discuss ways the YMCA might partner with the Administration. How fortunate that you could spend so much time with us.

We are eager to work with you on key elements of President Clinton's agenda — child care, juvenile justice, and substance abuse prevention. As we mentioned during our visit, the YMCA is available as a resource to you and your office. Local YMCAs are available for visits by members of the Administration, and the YMCA of the USA Public Policy Department is available to assist you in your efforts to develop youth and family policy.

The YMCA is extremely appreciative of your time, effort and interest. President and Mrs. Clinton are lucky to have you on board, and I look forward to working with you in the future.

Sincerely,

Eden Fisher Durbin

Dear Shirley:

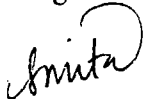

It was wonderful to see you last week. Thank you for the lunch. I truly appreciate the time and interest you have taken in advising us about Link. Your suggestions were very helpful, and I look forward to following up with the contacts you provided.

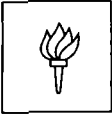

As you know, our goal is to launch this concept through a one-year pilot program, which will work with community-based nonprofit organizations and academic institutions in three metropolitan areas – Seattle, the Bay Area, and New York City. In addition, the pilot will include research projects from a select group of national nonprofit and advocacy organizations.

Link has moved ahead in fund-raising and setting up the pilot sites. We are now in the process of identifying and contacting national organizations to host research projects. Your suggestions will be an excellent base from which to develop a pool of potential national pilot participants.

I will keep you posted on our progress in the next several months as we develop and implement the pilot. Good luck in your work – it sounds exciting. I look forward to seeing you again soon.

Dear Shirley:

Thanks so much for sending along your monograph, which I had not in fact seen and am very glad to have now. It offers a terrifically integrative perspective on all the streams of service, federally funded and in civil society, is nicely situated in a comprehensive view of what has been going on in service over the last decade (and longer), and presents the most precise overview of policy issues and some of the most creative new policy proposals I've seen. No wonder they hired you!

Thanks also for the suggestion about Chris Edley. Although I wrote him once in late 1997 about Service Learning and the President's Race Relations Initiative, I did not send him the position paper once I'd finished it in 1998. So, I appreciate the suggestion and have now sent it off to him. We shall see what happens.

I do hope you'll keep me posted if there is anything I can do for you and your office concerning these matters of mutual interest.

Best of luck with your important and pressing work there, especially as reauthorization efforts get fully under way on the hill.

Regards,

Susan M. Andersen
