MESSAGE:

Attached is a list of people who were on the Mint's guest list who have either not been called by the White House, are asking that another name be substituted for theirs, or a combination of both!!

Specifically, please note that the people from Hallmark Cards are very important partners the Mint is beginning a relationship with. They are standing by - corporate jet and all - to see if their folks can join us. It would be wonderful if we could accommodate their request.

Please let me know if I can be of any help in this effort. THANKS!!

Subject: RE: List from the U.S. Mint

Shirley,

The names listed below are late additions to the White House invitation list. I know how much you want to wrap this up, but listed below are some additional Congressional names requested by Glenna Goodacre and contacts for the Mint as a result of Director Diehl's meeting with the pay telephone industry last week. This is a very important audience for us to "win over" to using the dollar coin once it's in circulation. If it helps, they will understand the late invite, since Philip just recently made the associations with them.

Thanks for your understanding. If you have any questions, feel free to give me a call or e-mail. THANKS!

Dear Shirley,

Enclosed please find two copies of a booklet we received a few weeks ago. It was prepared by the Spring Ridge Elementary 2nd grade students who were invited to the Dollar Coin Design Unveiling last May. The pictures are precious and you can tell by their writings that this was a day they will always remember. I thought you would enjoy seeing it.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Harris and Students;

I was recently given a copy of Mrs. Harris' Class Goes to Washington!. What a wonderful way for me to remember the Sacagawea Coin Unveiling.

As every writer knows, making the transition from concept to written word can be difficult. And yet, you have done an amazing job in describing the excitement of the day. The words and accompanying pictures made it easy for me to imagine your feelings when your White House journey was announced, the sound of your Game Boys on the long bus ride to Washington and your excitement at seeing the Secret Service dogs. Of course what I most enjoyed were your descriptions of the event. I too found it beautiful and exciting. I am especially pleased that you were happy with the design of the coin.

Thank you again for all your hard work and effort. Keep writing and continue to work hard in school.

Sincerely,

Hillary Rodham Clinton
