

TALMIRA L. HILL

Talmira Hill is a Program Associate at The Annie E. Casey Foundation where since 1995 her work in the Research and Development unit has focused on youth development and economic opportunity for vulnerable young adults making a transition to adulthood. Prior to joining Casey, Ms. Hill worked as a Special Assistant to the Under Secretary in the U.S. Department of Education focusing on high school education reform and workforce education and training. Before joining the Clinton administration, Ms. Hill worked in the policy advocacy field with the Center for Law and Education on issues of education for low-income children and youth. In the international field, Ms. Hill worked as an International Research Coordinator at the Johns Hopkins University on health research. As practitioner with Africare, Ms. Hill worked in Senegal, West Africa on issues of literacy for community economic development. She holds a Master of Education degree from Harvard University and a Bachelor of Science degree in International Politics from the School of Foreign Service at Georgetown University.