

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 10, 1999

REFERENCE FOR:

Tristan Snell
511 Edwards Hall
Princeton University
Princeton NJ 08544

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation on behalf of Tristan Snell for the Rhodes Scholarship. Tristan was an intern in the Office of Communications during the summer of 1998, when I was Director of Communications. He worked on a wide range of projects both individually and in a group setting, and was always willing to enhance his knowledge of familiar and unexplored subjects. Some of Tristan's responsibilities included fielding many of the Communications office phone calls, writing correspondence, compiling relevant press clips, and a variety of other communications needs.

During his tenure in the Communications office, Tristan quickly learned the procedures and organization of the White House. He showed great initiative, creativity and enthusiasm for his work. Tristan became an invaluable asset to our fast-paced Communications office.

Our office is confident that his contributions to the Rhodes Scholarship program will be as valuable as those he made here. Please do not hesitate to contact Ruby Shamir at (202) 456-5696 with any questions.

Sincerely,

Ann F. Lewis
Counselor to the President

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 10, 1999

REFERENCE FOR:

Tristan Snell
511 Edwards Hall
Princeton University
Princeton NJ 08544

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation on behalf of Tristan Snell for the Rhodes Scholarship. Tristan was an intern in the Office of Communications during the summer of 1998, when I was Director of Communications. He worked on a wide range of projects both individually and in a group setting, and was always willing to enhance his knowledge of familiar and unexplored subjects. Some of Tristan's responsibilities included fielding many of the Communications office phone calls, writing correspondence, compiling relevant press clips, and a variety of other communications needs.

During his tenure in the Communications office, Tristan quickly learned the procedures and organization of the White House. He showed great initiative, creativity and enthusiasm for his work. Tristan became an invaluable asset to our fast-paced Communications office.

Our office is confident that his contributions to the Rhodes Scholarship program will be as valuable as those he made here. Please do not hesitate to contact Ruby Shamir at (202) 456-5696 with any questions.

Sincerely,

Ann F. Lewis
Counselor to the President

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 10, 1999

REFERENCE FOR:

Tristan Snell
511 Edwards Hall
Princeton University
Princeton NJ 08544

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation on behalf of Tristan Snell for the Rhodes Scholarship. Tristan was an intern in the Office of Communications during the summer of 1998, when I was Director of Communications. He worked on a wide range of projects both individually and in a group setting, and was always willing to enhance his knowledge of familiar and unexplored subjects. Some of Tristan's responsibilities included fielding many of the Communications office phone calls, writing correspondence, compiling relevant press clips, and a variety of other communications needs.

During his tenure in the Communications office, Tristan quickly learned the procedures and organization of the White House. He showed great initiative, creativity and enthusiasm for his work. Tristan became an invaluable asset to our fast-paced Communications office.

Our office is confident that his contributions to the Rhodes Scholarship program will be as valuable as those he made here. Please do not hesitate to contact Ruby Shamir at (202) 456-5696 with any questions.

Sincerely,

Ann F. Lewis
Counselor to the President

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 10, 1999

REFERENCE FOR:

Tristan Snell
511 Edwards Hall
Princeton University
Princeton NJ 08544

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation on behalf of Tristan Snell for the Rhodes Scholarship. Tristan was an intern in the Office of Communications during the summer of 1998, when I was Director of Communications. He worked on a wide range of projects both individually and in a group setting, and was always willing to enhance his knowledge of familiar and unexplored subjects. Some of Tristan's responsibilities included fielding many of the Communications office phone calls, writing correspondence, compiling relevant press clips, and a variety of other communications needs.

During his tenure in the Communications office, Tristan quickly learned the procedures and organization of the White House. He showed great initiative, creativity and enthusiasm for his work. Tristan became an invaluable asset to our fast-paced Communications office.

Our office is confident that his contributions to the Rhodes Scholarship program will be as valuable as those he made here. Please do not hesitate to contact Ruby Shamir at (202) 456-5696 with any questions.

Sincerely,

Ann F. Lewis
Counselor to the President

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 10, 1999

REFERENCE FOR:

Tristan Snell
511 Edwards Hall
Princeton University
Princeton NJ 08544

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation on behalf of Tristan Snell for the Rhodes Scholarship. Tristan was an intern in the Office of Communications during the summer of 1998, when I was Director of Communications. He worked on a wide range of projects both individually and in a group setting, and was always willing to enhance his knowledge of familiar and unexplored subjects. Some of Tristan's responsibilities included fielding many of the Communications office phone calls, writing correspondence, compiling relevant press clips, and a variety of other communications needs.

During his tenure in the Communications office, Tristan quickly learned the procedures and organization of the White House. He showed great initiative, creativity and enthusiasm for his work. Tristan became an invaluable asset to our fast-paced Communications office.

Our office is confident that his contributions to the Rhodes Scholarship program will be as valuable as those he made here. Please do not hesitate to contact Ruby Shamir at (202) 456-5696 with any questions.

Sincerely,

Ann F. Lewis
Counselor to the President

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 10, 1999

REFERENCE FOR:

Tristan Snell
511 Edwards Hall
Princeton University
Princeton NJ 08544

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation on behalf of Tristan Snell for the Rhodes Scholarship. Tristan was an intern in the Office of Communications during the summer of 1998, when I was Director of Communications. He worked on a wide range of projects both individually and in a group setting, and was always willing to enhance his knowledge of familiar and unexplored subjects. Some of Tristan's responsibilities included fielding many of the Communications office phone calls, writing correspondence, compiling relevant press clips, and a variety of other communications needs.

During his tenure in the Communications office, Tristan quickly learned the procedures and organization of the White House. He showed great initiative, creativity and enthusiasm for his work. Tristan became an invaluable asset to our fast-paced Communications office.

Our office is confident that his contributions to the Rhodes Scholarship program will be as valuable as those he made here. Please do not hesitate to contact Ruby Shamir at (202) 456-5696 with any questions.

Sincerely,

Ann F. Lewis
Counselor to the President

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 10, 1999

REFERENCE FOR:

Tristan Snell
511 Edwards Hall
Princeton University
Princeton NJ 08544

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation on behalf of Tristan Snell for the Rhodes Scholarship. Tristan was an intern in the Office of Communications during the summer of 1998, when I was Director of Communications. He worked on a wide range of projects both individually and in a group setting, and was always willing to enhance his knowledge of familiar and unexplored subjects. Some of Tristan's responsibilities included fielding many of the Communications office phone calls, writing correspondence, compiling relevant press clips, and a variety of other communications needs.

During his tenure in the Communications office, Tristan quickly learned the procedures and organization of the White House. He showed great initiative, creativity and enthusiasm for his work. Tristan became an invaluable asset to our fast-paced Communications office.

Our office is confident that his contributions to the Rhodes Scholarship program will be as valuable as those he made here. Please do not hesitate to contact Ruby Shamir at (202) 456-5696 with any questions.

Sincerely,

Ann F. Lewis
Counselor to the President