Dear Depository Librarian:

The Library Programs Service (LPS) distributed the title, The National AIDS Strategy (NAS) Appendices - 1997, from the White House Office of National AIDS Policy. LPS was unaware that this document was meant to be distributed with the companion text for NAS. For this reason, I am requesting that you immediately remove this publication from your shelves and place it temporarily on hold in your office. Once the issuing agency distributes the companion text I will notify you by letter to release the Appendices for public use and circulation.

Descriptive Information on this publication:

Title: The National AIDS Strategy (NAS) Appendices -1997
SuDocs Number: PR 42.2:AC 7/997/APP.
Shipping List Number: 96-0373-P

COMMENTS:

Sheila-

The sample letter was very helpful. Attached is a draft^{letter} for National AIDS Strategy. Let me know if this works at your end. (I'll also send an electronic copy to the address on your fax cover.)

Thanks for your help -

Jane Sanville

October 7, 1996

Dear Depository Librarian,

On October 4th 1996 (?), the Library Program Service distributed the title, The National AIDS Strategy (NAS) Appendices - 1997, from the White House Office of National AIDS Policy. LPS, unaware that this document was meant to be distributed with the companion text for NAS, inadvertently shipped it to depository libraries.

For this reason, I am requesting that you immediately remove this publication from your shelves and place it temporarily on hold in your office. Once the issuing agency distributes the companion text for distribution with the Appendices, I will notify you by letter to release the document for public use and circulation.

Dear Depository Librarian:

Recently, the Library Programs Service distributed the title, Infertility: Medical and Social Choices, from the Office of Technology Assessment. LPS, unaware until today that the issuing agency placed a temporary distribution embargo on this publication, inadvertently shipped it to depository libraries.

For this reason, I am requesting that you immediately remove this publication from your shelves and place it temporarily on hold in your office. Once the issuing agency removes its embargo on use, I will notify you by letter to release the document for public use and circulation.

Dear Depository Librarian:

On April 19, 1988, I wrote to you concerning the publication, Infertility: Medical and Social Choices, from the Office of Technology Assessment. At that time, I asked that you remove this book temporarily from your library shelves because of a distribution embargo placed by the agency.

I am pleased to report that the Office of Technology Assessment has eliminated the embargo on this publication. Please release this document for public use and circulation.
