Dear FIELD(title) FIELD(lname):

I want to thank you for allowing us the opportunity to consider your application as a White House Student Intern for our project on "Youth and HIV/AIDS: The American Agenda."

We received a large number of applications from exceptionally qualified young people such as yourself. Unfortunately, we can fill only three positions for the project. I regret to inform you that you were not one of the finalists selected for the program, but I do want to offer my personal thanks for your demonstrated commitment to HIV/AIDS as a significant challenge to all Americans, and to young Americans in particular.

In the process of reviewing the applications, we were struck by the wealth of talent, energy and expertise that individuals such as yourself have offered to help with this initiative. They are skills and insights that are very important to our quest for a sound national policy on HIV/AIDS and youth. Accordingly, as we move forward in our research, we may wish to solicit your input on areas in which you have demonstrated skill or experience. I hope you will see fit to participate in these inquiries.

If you have any questions about your application to the program or the program itself, please feel free to contact Jerry Atchison at (202) 632-1090.

Your continued advocacy on behalf of a sound national policy on HIV/AIDS and youth is more important than ever. I sincerely appreciate your interest in helping us address these issues of critical national importance, and I applaud your determination to see this horrible epidemic finally defeated.

Sincerely,

Patricia S. Fleming

Dear Ms. Spruill:

I want to thank you for allowing us the opportunity to consider your application as a White House Student Intern for our project on "Youth and HIV/AIDS: The American Agenda."

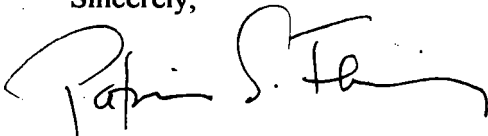

We received a large number of applications from exceptionally qualified young people such as yourself. Unfortunately, we can fill only three positions for the project. I regret to inform you that you were not one of the finalists selected for the program, but I do want to offer my personal thanks for your demonstrated commitment to HIV/AIDS as a significant challenge to all Americans, and to young Americans in particular.

In the process of reviewing the applications, we were struck by the wealth of talent, energy and expertise that individuals such as yourself have offered to help with this initiative. They are skills and insights that are very important to our quest for a sound national policy on HIV/AIDS and youth. Accordingly, as we move forward in our research, we may wish to solicit your input on areas in which you have demonstrated skill or experience. I hope you will see fit to participate in these inquiries.

If you have any questions about your application to the program or the program itself, please feel free to contact Jerry Atchison at (202) 632-1090.

Your continued advocacy on behalf of a sound national policy on HIV/AIDS and youth is more important than ever. I sincerely appreciate your interest in helping us address these issues of critical national importance, and I applaud your determination to see this horrible epidemic finally defeated.
