Dear Dr. Chuang:

Thank you so very much for the invitation to Ms. Sandra Thurman, Director of the Office of National AIDS Policy, to speak at the upcoming AIDS conference in Taipei. Unfortunately, Ms. Thurman will be unable to attend.

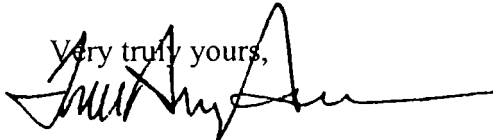

Ms. Thurman is just completing an extended trip to Africa in advance of a Congressional fact-finding mission she will be leading in April. Preparation for that upcoming trip will require that Ms. Thurman stay here in Washington. However, we hope that this trip will help increase attention on the international aspects of the AIDS pandemic.

I also understand from my good friend Tom Stillitano that you were kind enough to extend the invitation to me. I am also unable to attend the conference as I will need to assist in preparations for the upcoming Congressional trip.

Please be assured that we remain very interested in visiting Taipei and learning more about your good work to address HIV and AIDS. Ms. Thurman and I will work with Tom and David Yao to find the earliest opportunity for that visit.

Again, we truly appreciate your generous invitation and look forward to meeting with you soon. We hope that your conference is successful, and furthers your efforts to bring an end to AIDS.

Very truly yours,

Todd A. Summers
Deputy Director
Office of National AIDS Policy
