Mothers' Voices Mission Statement

Mothers' Voices believes that everyone deserves the chance of a lifetime. Mothers' Voices is a movement of mothers working for a public climate responsive to the continuing urgency of the AIDS epidemic.

We recognize that public and private attitudes toward sexuality and substance use inhibit a successful response and threaten progress in the fight against AIDS. Therefore, through a national grassroots network, we educate and empower mothers to raise their voices to promote public policies that advance efforts for AIDS education, prevention, research, treatment, and ultimately, a cure.
