MEMORANDUM

TO: KATHY MARCONI
FROM: GRAYSON FOWLER
RE: TITLE I AND TITLE III DATA NEEDS
DATE: AUGUST 5, 1998

Following some discussions with the CAEAR Coalition members, I put together the following list of areas about which the Coalition hopes to gather data. Even though this is an ambitious list, I thought putting it down in writing might be helpful to us all. I have indicated in some areas that estimates would be helpful if the actual figures are not available, but this is true for all areas whether indicated or not. Thank you in advance for your assistance.

1. The total Title I EMA requests for FY 1998 versus the total Title I EMA awards for FY 1998.
2. The number of unduplicated Title I clients in FY 1997 and FY 1996 (or estimates).
3. The number of unduplicated Title I clients which were new in FY 1997 and the number in FY 1996 (or estimates) and the same numbers of Title III clients.
4. The average number of primary medical care visits per Title I and Title III client per year in FY 1997 and in FY 1995 and in FY 1996.
5. The average number of primary medical care visits per Title I and Title III client per year in FY 1997 and in FY 1995 and in FY 1996, for clients with 2 or more visits each.
6. The average cost per Title I and Title III patient per year in FY 1995, FY 1996, and FY 1997 (including medical care and labs only -- exclusive of drugs.)
7. The average length of a doctor's visit for a Title I and a Title III client in FY 1995 and in FY 1997.
8. Estimates of the number of Title I clients and the number of Title III clients who are not receiving care, and want it, or are receiving delayed care (as defined any way you are able to do so).

Memorandum to Kathy Marconi

9. Are more Title I EMAs funding treatment educators in FY 1997 than in FY 1996 and FY 1995?
10. Dollar total of the unfunded, but approved, FY 1998 Title III applications and the same for FY 1997.
11. Increase in the cost of Title III primary care from FY 1996 to FY 1997 — as in Section II.8.1 of the 1996 Program Data Report.
12. The number of Title III patients served in FY 1997 (primary care and case management) as in Section II.8.1 and Section II.8.5 of the 1996 Program Data Report.

THE IMPACT OF THE 1998 ELECTIONS ON TITLE I AND TITLE III OF THE RYAN WHITE CARE ACT

OVERVIEW

On November 3, 1998, the nation voted to maintain a Republican majority in both the United States Senate and House of Representatives. Overall, voters seem content with the political status quo. The Republican margin of control stayed the same in the Senate and declined by five seats in the House. Given that the party not holding the White House in a non-presidential election year usually gains seats, the message from the American voters can be interpreted to show a disapproval for the Republican's politics of impeachment and partisanship and a reinforcement of the 1996 voters' message of support for compromise and a centrist course.

In the wake of their unsuccessful showing, Republican disquiet over the leadership of Speaker of the House Newt Gingrich led Rep. Bob Livingston (R-LA), whom the Speaker had hand selected to chair the House Appropriations Committee, to mount a challenge to the Speaker. Speaker Gingrich, rather than fight, decided to step down as Speaker and resigned from the Congress. He was replaced by a Republican in a special election held February 23. Subsequent to the Gingrich resignation, Rep. Livingston, responding to reports of scandal, stepped down as Speaker-designate making way for the ascension of Rep. Dennis Hastert (R-IL) as Speaker.

Republican leaders, as they did at the beginning of the last Congress, stated their willingness to work with President Clinton, but it remains to be seen if cooperation can be achieved between the beleaguered Administration and an even more closely divided, partisan Congress.

The Congress convened on January 6, but almost immediately went into a district work period or recess. No real legislative work was begun until after the State of the Union message on January 18, and impeachment proceedings dominated the Senate, if not the Congress, until the beginning of another recess February 12.

The outlook for AIDS issues in this Congress, generally, appears marginally better. The Senate changed very little, while the House became very slightly more progressive. More importantly, the House may have slipped out of the control of the conservative Republican revolutionaries who came to power in 1994. Republican moderates -- and conservative Democrats -- are expected to hold the balance of power on a number of closely divided issues. Overall, it is still not a progressive Congress but may continue to wrest leadership from the Administration on some AIDS issues, sometimes for the good -- such as funding for the Ryan White CARE Act. Though most observers agreed it would be exceedingly difficult to get the last, more conservative, Congress to vote to spend more for AIDS than the President requested, that is exactly what happened for Title I in FY 98 and for both Title I and Title III in FY 99.

Election Report

The President, who once had large political reasons to favor AIDS funding, never has to face reelection again and has announced a number of other goals as his priorities. Indeed, AIDS funding has not been articulated as a priority for the Administration post 1996, and as increases in AIDS funding directly conflicted with the priority of balancing the budget, it has been a conservative, Republican Congress, not the Administration, that has provided the impetus for substantial increases in some titles of the CARE Act. Two years ago, we wrote: "Given this reality, the large increases realized in this election year (1996) are probably better viewed as an aberration than as a precursor." That has turned out, regrettably, to be true. On the positive side, the President has a strong record of support for AIDS issues generally, and the Vice President, and others with future political ambitions, continue to maintain important political reasons to support AIDS funding and reauthorization of the CARE Act within the Administration.

Following the first reauthorization of the CARE Act, the AIDS Drug Assistance Program (ADAP) replaced Title I as the principal factor driving appropriations for the Ryan White CARE Act. In the first five years of the CARE Act, the steady accretion of new Title I communities drove appropriations for the entire CARE Act. The reauthorized legislation, for the most part, capped the number of Title I eligible communities, thus removing it as an argument for increased funding. During this same period, the CAEAR coalition has substantially scaled back its advocacy efforts.

The new combination therapies have stirred a great deal of interest in the media and the Congress. Funding for drugs is supported by the community, by the Governors, and by the pharmaceutical companies which possess highly trained lobbyists and deep pockets for advocacy activities. For these reasons, funding for ADAP has not faced as many obstacles as other AIDS care programs. For all these same reasons, we have strongly urged the Coalition to articulate the message that primary care and support services are essential to the success of these new therapies, and to express the Coalition's funding goals in terms of this overall primary care context.

More recently, the efforts of the Congressional Black Caucus (CBC) to highlight the disproportionate impact of the HIV/AIDS epidemic on people of color communities and the disparity of health outcomes for people of color has led to a renewed emphasis on, and increased funding to address, these disparities. During the past year we have urged the Coalition to articulate the message that approximately two-thirds of Title I and Title III clients are people of color and the importance of funding for these two titles of the CARE Act in efforts to address the needs of people of color living with HIV/AIDS.

If the CAEAR Coalition is to succeed in reauthorizing the CARE Act for the second time and in continuing to realize substantial increases in Title I funding, it must articulate how the Title I program is essential to the implementation of the new combination therapies and responds to the needs of people of color living with HIV/AIDS; it must enlist the support of the ADAP and pharmaceutical companies' representatives; and it must intensify its now greatly diminished advocacy efforts.

UNITED STATES SENATE

Overview

The margin of control in the Senate remained the same as before the election -- a fifty-five/forty-five Republican domination. Senators met the first of December to select party leaders. Senator Trent Lott (R-MS), Majority Leader, and Senator Tom Daschle (D-SD), Minority Leader, retained their posts, as did Majority Whip, Don Nickles (OK). Minority Whip, Wendell Ford (KY), retired and was replaced by Harry Reid (D-NV), a member of the Labor/HHS/Education Appropriations Subcommittee and a supporter of Ryan White CARE Act funding. Advocates may recall that Reid was quite concerned during the last reauthorization about the disparity in funding between states with Title I EMAs and those without. That concern may be somewhat assuaged during this reauthorization by the addition of Las Vegas to the ranks of Title I EMAs.

None of the other top Senate leaders represents a state with a Title I EMA, though both Republican leaders come from states with a Title III grantee. Senator Daschle is considered supportive of the CARE Act on philosophical grounds. During the last reauthorization, Senator Dole, a supporter of the CARE Act was the Majority Leader. Even his staff's assistance, however, was not enough to overcome Republican opposition to an early reauthorization. The current Majority Leader, Senator Trent Lott, is far more conservative and an unlikely ally, should we need one. Senator Nickles was extraordinarily antagonistic during the last effort at early reauthorization, but supported the bill as finally produced in the last Congress by a Republican majority.

Senator Connie Mack, whose home state of Florida is home to many Title I EMAs and a number of Title III grantees, continues as Conference Chairman. Senator Paul Coverdell (GA) continues as the Republican Conference Secretary. Mitch McConnell (KY) defeated Chuck Hagel (NE) to continue at the head of the National Republican Senatorial Committee which seeks to elect Republicans to the U.S. Senate. Senator Larry Craig (ID) will continue as chairman of the Republican Policy Committee, a research service organization for Republicans. Senator Slade Gorton (WA) will continue as the chairman of the Senate Republican Committee on Committees, which makes committee assignments. The Chief Deputy Whip will continue to be Senator Judd Gregg (NH). Senators Coverdell, Gorton and Gregg all represent states with a Title I EMA; Senators Coverdell, Gorton and McConnell represent states with a Title III grantee.

On the Democratic side, Minority Leader Daschle will continue as the Democratic Conference Chair and as the Policy Committee Co-Chairman. Senator Bryon Dorgan (ND) moves from Assistant Floor Leader to Policy Committee Co-Chairman, replacing Senator Reid. Senator Richard Durbin (IL) becomes the Assistant Floor Leader. Senator Barbara Mikulski (MD) will continue as the Conference Secretary, with Senator Bob Kerrey (NE) becoming the Vice Chair. Senator Robert Torricelli (NJ) will replace Kerrey as the Chair of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee; Senator Patty Murray (WA) will become the Vice Chair. Senator John Breaux (LA) remains Democratic Chief Deputy Whip and the party's legislative liaison with the White House. Senator John Kerry (MA) remains the Chair of the Democratic Steering Committee, which is the Democratic counterpart to the Republican Committee on Committees. Senators Mikulski, Breaux, Kerry, Durbin, Torricelli, Murray and Reid represent states with Title I EMAs and with Title III grantees.

Election Report

In the Senate, the political environment remains roughly the same. Not only did the ratio of Republican members to Democrats remain the same, but the sum of the changes were basically a wash -- especially so on AIDS issues. In Indiana and North Carolina, Democrats Evan Bayh and John Edwards replaced conservative Republicans Dan Coats and Lauch Faircloth, but in Kentucky, Illinois and Ohio conservative Republicans Jim Bunning, Peter Fitzgerald and George Voinovich replaced Democrats Wendell Ford, Carol Moseley-Braun and John Glenn. In Arkansas, Democrat Blanche Lincoln succeeded Democrat Dale Bumpers, while in Idaho conservative Republican Michael Crapo succeeded conservative Republican Dirk Kempthorne. And in New York, liberal Democrat Charles Schumer replaced moderate Republican Alfonse D'Amato, but on AIDS issues there is little difference between the two. To reflect the Republican's 55-seat majority, they will continue to enjoy a two-seat advantage on all major committees.

The committee structure of the Congress is basically a mirror image. Reauthorization of the CARE Act will be first considered in each house of the Congress by an authorizing subcommittee. The subcommittee sends the bill to the full Committee in each House. The full Committee sends the bill to the House floor or the Senate floor, as appropriate. The full chambers pass the legislation and send it to a conference committee which resolves differences in the two versions of the bill and sends it back to each chamber for final approval. If each chamber approves the identical bill, it is sent to the President for signature into law.

Each step of this process has risks and pitfalls, and at any point, the legislation can be derailed. During the last reauthorization, a series of issues split the authorizing committees sometimes along party lines, sometimes along fault lines between the title interests.

Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions

It is good news for reauthorization that Senator James Jeffords (R-VT), a moderate-to-liberal Republican supporter of AIDS programs, remains at the helm of the Health, Education, Labor and Pensions (HELP) Committee, formerly known as the Labor and Human Resources Committee. It is the authorizing committee in the Senate for the CARE Act. Senator Jeffords is considerably more progressive than the Chairman during the last reauthorization, Nancy Kassebaum of Kansas, but for that very reason, may be in a more precarious political position with less control over the committee. Strong conservatives make up the bulk of the Committee Republicans and the new Republican members of the Committee seem more of the same: Sam Brownback (KS), Jeff Sessions (AL), and Chuck Hagel (NE) replace Senators Dan Coats (IN), John Warner (VA), and Mitch McConnell. The departure of Warner leaves Susan Collins (ME) and Chairman Jeffords as the only moderate

Election Report

Republicans, arguably making the Committee more conservative overall. No changes were made on the Democratic side where members remain solidly liberal in their political leanings.

The only Republican members of the Committee to represent states with a Title I EMA are Judd Gregg (NH), Mike DeWine (OH), and Sam Brownback (KS). Democrats Kennedy (MA), Dodd (CT), Mikulski (MD), Wellstone (NM) and Murray (WA) do represent states with a Title I EMA. Democratic Senators Tom Harkin (IA), nonetheless a very strong ally of the CAEAR coalition, Jeff Bingaman (NM) and Jack Reed (RI) do not. Republicans representing states with Title III grantees are: Jeffords, DeWine, and new members Brownback and Sessions. Democrats representing states with a Title III grantee are: Kennedy, Dodd, Harkin, Mikulski, Bingaman, Murray and Reed. Only Wellstone, among the Democrats does not.

The Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee roster follows (new members in bold):

Republicans

James M. Jeffords, VT, Chairman
Judd Gregg, NH
Bill Frist, TN
Mike DeWine, OH
Michael B. Enzi, WY
Tim Hutchinson, AR
Susan M. Collins, ME
Sam Brownback, KS
Chuck Hagel, NE
Jeff Sessions, AL

Democrats

Edward M. Kennedy, MA, Ranking
Christopher, J. Dodd, CT
Tom Harkin, IA
Barbara A. Mikulski, MD
Jeff Bingaman, NM
Paul D. Wellstone, MN
Patty Murray, WA
Jack Reed, RI

Senate Subcommittee on Public Health

Senator Jeffords has created a Subcommittee on Public Health since the last reauthorization. This Subcommittee will have initial jurisdiction in the Senate over the reauthorization of the CARE Act. Its Republican members include as chair, Frist (TN), Gregg (NH), Enzi (WY), Collins (ME), Brownback (KS), and Sessions (AL). Of these current five Republican members only two, Senators Gregg and Brownback, come from states with a Title I EMA. Two Republicans of the five, Senators Brownback and Sessions, represent states with a Title III grantee.

The Democratic members are: Kennedy (MA) who is Ranking, Harkin (IA), Mikulski (MD), Bingaman (NM) and Reed (RI). Only Kennedy and Mikulski of the five Democrats represent states with a Title I EMA; Harkin, Bingaman and Reed do not. All the Democratic members of the Subcommittee come from states with a Title III grantee. As noted, Senator Kennedy is the ranking Democrat on both the Health Subcommittee and the full Committee. However, during this reauthorization, he will not have as staff, Michael Iskowitz, one of the principal architects of the CARE Act and a brilliant legislative strategist, who has left the Senate for private employment.

Senate Appropriations Committee

Senator Ted Stevens (R-AK) will once again head the Senate Appropriations Committee. It is worth noting that Alaska ranks 49th of the 50 United States in biomedical research and does not include a Title I EMA or Title III grantee.

All three new Appropriations Committee members, Republican Senator Jon Kyl (AZ) and Democratic Senators Dianne Feinstein (CA) and Richard J. Durbin (IL) represent states with Title I EMAs and Title III grantees. Senators Feinstein and Durbin are longtime supporters of the CARE Act. Senator Kyl, however, was one of three United States Senators to vote against the last reauthorization of the Ryan White CARE Act. A list of the entire membership of the full Appropriations Committee is appended to this document.

Senator Arlen Specter (R-PA), a moderate, will continue as head of the Appropriations Subcommittee on Labor-HHS-Education, the most important Senate appropriations position from a CARE Act perspective. Subcommittee decisions regarding funding levels are rarely changed by the full Committee. Senator Specter represents a state with a Title I EMA and Title III grantees. Solid, positive relationships exist with the Senator and with the Subcommittee staff. New members to the Subcommittee on Labor-HHS-Education are Senators Stevens, Kyl and Feinstein, who replaced another strong supporter of AIDS programs from California, Senator Barbara Boxer.

Members of the Senate Labor-HHS-Education Appropriations Subcommittee are (new members in bold):

Republicans

Arlen Specter, PA, Chairman
 Thad Cochran, MS
 Slade Gorton, WA
 Judd Gregg, NH
 Larry E. Craig, ID
 Kay Bailey Hutchison, TX
Ted Stevens, AK
Jon Kyl, AZ

Democrats

Tom Harkin, IA, Ranking
 Ernest F. Hollings, SC
 Daniel K. Inouye, WV
 Harry Reid, NV
 Herb Kohl, WI
 Patty Murray, WA
Dianne Feinstein, CA

Senate Budget Committee

Senator Pete Domenici (R-NM) remains the chair of the Senate Budget Committee and Senator Frank Lautenberg (D-NJ) remains the Ranking Minority Member. Both Senators represent states with a Title III grantee, and Senator Lautenberg represents a state with multiple Title I EMAs.

Senators Phil Gramm (R-TX), Christopher Bond (R-MO), Slade Gorton (R-WA), Gordon Smith (R-

OR), Spencer Abraham (R-MI), Paul Sarbanes (D-MD), Barbara Boxer (D-CA), Patty Murray (D-WA), Ron Wyden (D-OR), and Richard Durbin (D-IL), all represent states with both a Title III grantee and a Title I EMA. Other Senators on the Budget Committee representing states with a Title I EMA are: Judd Gregg (NH) and Rod Grams (MN). All members of the Senate Budget Committee except Senator Snowe (R-ME), Senator Frist (R-TN), Senator Grams (R-MN), Senator Gregg (R-NH), Senator Conrad (D-ND) and Senator Johnson (D-SD) represent states with a Title III grantee.

Members of the Senate Budget Committee are:

Republicans

Pete V. Domenici, NM, Chairman
 Charles E. Grassley, IA
 Don Nickles, OK
 Phil Gramm, TX
 Christopher S. Bond, MO
 Slade Gorton, WA
 Olympia J. Snowe, ME
 Spencer Abraham, MI

U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVESOverview

In the House, Republicans retained a reduced majority with 223 votes. By comparison Democrats have 212 votes, including Vermont Independent Bernie Sanders, who will vote again with the Democrats. Democrats picked up five seats, contrary to the usual results for the party holding the presidency in a non-presidential election year. In addition, Rep. Livingston, initially the would-be successor to Rep. Gingrich, will himself resign from the Congress February 28.

The Republican's new top leadership line up includes:

Speaker of the House
 Majority Leader
 Majority Whip
 Conference Chairman

Dennis Hastert, IL
 Dick Armey, TX
 Tom DeLay, TX
 J.C. Watts, OK

Election ReportPage 8

All members of the House Republican leadership, except newly elected Conference Chairman Watts, represent Title I EMAs. Watts's predecessor, Rep. John Boehner (OH) did not represent a Title I EMA. All the Republican leaders come from states with Title III grantees. This having been said, none of the Republican leaders are considered strong supporters of the CARE Act.

The top Democratic leadership includes:

Minority Leader	Richard Gephardt (MO)
Minority Whip	David Bonior (MI)
Caucus Chairman	Martin Frost (TX)
Caucus Vice Chairman	Robert Menendez (NJ)

Among the Democratic leadership, Representatives Gephardt, Bonior, Frost and Menendez all represent Title I EMAs. All four also come from states with Title III grantees. Rep. Menendez represents a district served by numerous Title III sites. All four are considered supportive of the CARE Act.

It is vitally important that the Coalition update its list of Members of the House of Representatives who represent Title I EMAs. The information supplied in this report on members representing Title I EMAs is based on districts we established previously as within Title I EMA boundaries. The addition of new EMAs since the list was last updated, in 1995, together with some redrawn Congressional districts, make a new list a very important priority for accurate targeting and forecasting. In addition, it would be very helpful to have a full Congressional district breakdown of the locations of Title III grantees and the Congressional districts served by Title III grantees. At present, the CAEAR coalition has supplied us with only a partial listing.

House Commerce Committee

The House authorizing committee is the House Commerce Committee. No changes were made in the leadership of the Committee, Chairman Tom Bliley (R-VA) and Ranking Member John Dingell (D-MI) will continue in their roles. Republicans gave Democrats and themselves one new seat each on the panel, leaving the ratios, five more Republicans than Democrats, unchanged. In addition, some members from each side left the Congress. The resulting three new Democrats on the panel are Bill Luther (MN), Thomas Barrett (WI) and Lois Capps (CA). The seven new Republicans are: Heather Wilson (NM), John Shadegg (AZ), Charles Pickering (MS), Vito Fossella (NY) and Roy Blunt (MO), Ed Bryant (TN), and Robert Ehrlich (MD).

The Health and Environment Subcommittee of the Commerce Committee has initial jurisdiction over the CARE Act on the House side, and the most important action on the legislation in the House takes place in this venue. Michael Bilirakis (FL) will continue as Chairman and Representative Sherrod Brown (OH) will continue as Ranking member.

Election Report

The returning Republican members on the Health Subcommittee are: Michael Bilirakis (FL), Fred Upton (MI), Cliff Stearns (MI), James Greenwood (PA), Nathan Deal (GA), Richard Burr (NC), Brian Bilbray (CA), Ed Whitfield (KY), Greg Ganske (IA), Charlie Norwood (GA), Tom Coburn (OK), Rick Lazio (NY), and Barbara Cubin (WY). New Republican members on the Subcommittee are: John B. Shadegg (AZ), Charles Pickering (MS) and Ed Bryant (TN).

Republicans Bilirakis (FL), Greenwood (PA), Stearns (FL), Deal (GA), Bilbray (CA), Norwood (GA), Lazio (NY) and Shadegg (AZ) represent Title I EMAs. Republicans Upton, Burr, Whitfield, Ganske, Coburn, Cubin and Bryant do not represent Title I EMAs. All the Republican members of the Subcommittee, except Cubin of Wyoming and Bryant of Tennessee, represent states with a Title III grantee. Representatives Bilbray, Norwood and Lazio represent districts with at least one Title III grantee.

The returning Democrats on the Subcommittee are: Sherrod Brown (OH), Henry Waxman (CA), Edolphus Towns (NY), Frank Pallone (NJ), Peter Deutsch (FL), Anna Eshoo (CA), Bart Stupak (MI), Gene Green (TX), Ted Strickland (OH), Diane DeGette (CO), and Ralph Hall (TX). Thomas Barrett (WI) and Lois Capps (CA) are the new Democratic members to the Subcommittee.

Democrats Waxman (CA), Towns (NY), Deutsch (FL), Eshoo (CA), Green (TX), DeGette (CO) and Hall (TX) represent Title I EMAs. Unfortunately, the Ranking Democrat Brown (OH) does not represent a Title I EMA. Neither do Reps. Pallone (NJ), Stupak (MI) and Strickland (OH). All the Democrats represent states with a Title III grantee. Representatives with a Title III grantee in their district or who represent a district served by a Title III grantee are: Rep. Waxman, Rep. Pallone, Rep. Deutsch, Rep. DeGette, Rep. Capps, and Rep. Towns.

Members of the Subcommittee are (new members in bold):

Republicans

Michael Bilirakis, FL, Chairman

House Appropriations Committee

Rep. C.W. Bill Young, (R-FL), will assume the chairmanship of the full House Committee on Appropriations following Rep. Bob Livingston's resignation from that position earlier this year. Rep. Young has been a strong supporter of the CARE Act over some years, and his assumption of the Appropriations Committee Chair is a positive development for CARE Act advocates. Rep. John Edward Porter, IL, will continue as the Chairman of the Appropriations Subcommittee on Labor-HHS-Education, the most important Appropriations position from a CARE Act perspective. Rep. Porter, because of his strong support and commitment to CARE Act funding, should remain a focus of the Coalition's advocacy efforts. Rep. David Obey (D-WI) will retain the Ranking Member position on both the full Committee and the Labor-HHS-Education Subcommittee. A list of the full membership of the House Appropriations Committee is appended to this document.

The four new Republicans on the Appropriations Committee are: Jo Ann Emerson, MO; John E. Sununu, NH; Kay Granger, TX; and John E. Peterson, PA. There are seven new Democrats on the Appropriations Committee: James E. Clyburn, SC; Maurice D. Hinchey, NY; Lucille Roybal-Allard, CA; Sam Farr, CA; Jesse L. Jackson, Jr., IL; Carolyn C. Kilpatrick, MI; and Allen Boyd, FL. Representatives Lucille Roybal-Allard and Carolyn C. Kilpatrick represent districts with both Title I EMAs and Title III grantees, Rep. Sam Farr and Rep. Kay Granger represent districts served by a Title III grantee, and Rep. Jesse L. Jackson and Rep. Maurice D. Hinchey represent districts with a Title I EMA.

There are two new members on the Subcommittee on Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education: Rep. Randy "Duke" Cunningham (R-CA) and Rep. Jesse L. Jackson, Jr., (D-IL), both of whom represent Title I EMAs, San Diego and Chicago, respectively. Rep. Cunningham also represents a district with a Title III grantee.

The members of the House Labor-HHS-Education Appropriations Subcommittee are:

Republicans

John Edward Porter, IL, Chairman

House Budget Committee

The House Committee on Budget has undergone substantial changes in membership, but the leadership of the Committee has not changed. Rep. John R. Kasich (R-OH) will continue as the Chairman and Rep. John M. Spratt, Jr., (D-SC) will continue as the Ranking minority member. Two important allies, however, have left the committee -- Rep. Dan Miller (R-FL) and Rep. Lynn Woolsey (D-CA).

Rep. Chris Shays (R-New Haven, CT), Rep. Lynn Rivers (D-MI), Rep. Edward Markey (D-Boston, MA), Rep. James Moran (D-Alexandria, VA), Rep. Jim McDermott (D-Seattle, WA) and Rep. Tammy Baldwin (D-Madison, WI) are particularly strong targets for work on the budget resolution. All these representatives come from a Title I EMA with the exception of Rep. Baldwin, and all represent cities with a Title III grantee or grantees. Rep. Shays comes from a district with a Title III grantee.

Other members of the House Budget Committee representing Title I EMAs are: Bob Franks (R-NJ), Charles Bass (R-NH), Joe Knollenberg (R-MI), William Thornberry (R-TX), Jim Ryun (R-KS), Mac Collins (R-GA), Gary Miller (R-CA), Pat Toomey (R-PA), Ken Bentsen (D-TX), Darlene Hooley (D-OR), Joseph Hoeffel (D-PA). All members of the House Budget Committee, with the exception of Charles Bass (R-NH), Gil Gutknecht (R-MN), Van Hilleary (R-TN), John Sununu (R-NH), Zack Wamp (R-TN), David Minge (D-MN) and Bob Clement (D-TN) are from states with a Title III grantee. Some, such as Saxby Chambliss (R-GA), the second ranking Republican, Pat Toomey (R-PA), Ken Bentsen (D-TX) and Rush D. Holt (D-NJ) represent a district with at least one Title III grantee.

CONCLUSION

While the 106th Congress overall may be marginally more receptive on AIDS issues than the last, it is nonetheless clear that many hurdles are there to be crossed. Appropriations increases will not come easy despite budget surpluses. Rigid caps on domestic discretionary spending remain in place, and the two political parties differ greatly in how to spend the surplus.

Moreover, Gary Bauer's Family Research Council has again taken aim at the Ryan White CARE Act, calling for an audit of all AIDS funds before Congress reauthorizes the CARE Act which expires September 30, 2000. And 2000 is an election year. Late this year, maybe before, strong partisanship will settle in on Capitol Hill and remain there until after the elections. Little will be accomplished. In such a highly partisan context, attempts will be made to use issues, including potentially reauthorization of the CARE Act, for their impact in the fall 2000 elections. Failure to reauthorize the Ryan White CARE Act could be used to please a radical conservative base and simultaneously to anger/energize/mobilize a Democratic base. Advocates must beware to avoid the pitfalls of such political scenarios.

* Committee rosters are organized according to the order to which members are assigned to that committee. Selection is based, in part, on the individual member's desire to seek leadership positions or membership to a particular committee. Many times, past members on a committee will rank that position as a lower priority than membership on another committee or a leadership position. Therefore, new members on the committee may be selected earlier than past members with higher seniority.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

June 30, 1999

THE DIRECTOR

OMB BULLETIN NO. 99-04

TO THE HEADS OF EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND ESTABLISHMENTS

SUBJECT: Revised Statistical Definitions of Metropolitan Areas (MAs) and Guidance on Uses of MA Definitions

1. Purpose: This Bulletin establishes two new Metropolitan Statistical Areas (MSAs). It also provides guidance on the use of the statistical definitions of MAs.
2. Background: Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 3504(e)(3) and 31 U.S.C. 1104(d) and Executive Order No. 10253 (June 11, 1951), the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) defines MAs for use in Federal statistical activities. OMB updates these definitions each June, adding new areas that qualify as MAs and cities that qualify as central cities for MAs.
3. New MSAs: Auburn-Opelika, Alabama is defined as a Level D MSA (FIPS Code 0580) effective June 30, 1999. The Auburn-Opelika, Alabama MSA comprises Lee County, Alabama. The MSA's central cities are Auburn, Alabama and Opelika, Alabama.

Corvallis, Oregon is defined as a Level D MSA (FIPS Code 1890) effective June 30, 1999. The Corvallis, Oregon MSA comprises Benton County, Oregon. The MSA's central city is Corvallis, Oregon.
4. MAs: This Bulletin gives the definitions of all MAs in the United States and Puerto Rico based on the standards published on March 30, 1990, in the Federal Register (55 FR 12154-12160), the 1990 Decennial Census data, and 1998 Census Bureau population estimates. A total of 261 MSAs are recognized. There are 19 Consolidated Metropolitan Statistical Areas (CMSAs), consisting of 76 Primary Metropolitan Statistical Areas (PMSAs). List I provides titles and definitions of all MSAs; List II presents similar information for CMSAs and PMSAs. List III identifies the MSAs, CMSAs, and PMSAs in each State. List IV provides titles and definitions for the New England County Metropolitan Areas (NECMAs). MSAs, PMSAs, and NECMAs are categorized by their 1990 population size, as follows:

Level A -- Areas of 1 million or more
Level B -- Areas of 250,000 to 999,999
Level C -- Areas of 100,000 to 249,999
Level D -- Areas of less than 100,000

5. Uses of MA Definitions: All agencies that conduct statistical activities to collect and publish data for MAs should use the most recent definitions of MAs established by OMB.

OMB establishes and maintains the definitions of MAs solely for statistical purposes. In periodically reviewing and revising the MA definitions, OMB does not take into account or attempt to anticipate any nonstatistical uses that may be made of the definitions, nor will OMB modify the definitions to meet the requirements of any nonstatistical program.

We recognize that some legislation specifies the use of MAs for programmatic purposes, including allocating Federal funds. For example, as called for by the Social Security Act, the Health Care Financing Administration uses MAs to define labor market areas and gather hospital wage data that are used in developing a hospital wage index for the labor-related portion of a hospital's standardized Medicare payment. We will continue to work with the Congress to clarify the foundations of the MA definitions and the resultant, often unintended consequences of their use for nonstatistical purposes.

In a case where there is no statutory requirement and an agency elects to use the MA definitions in a nonstatistical program, it is the sponsoring agency's responsibility to ensure that the definitions are appropriate for such use. When an agency is publishing for comment a proposed regulation that would use the MA definitions for a nonstatistical purpose, the agency should seek public comment on the proposed use of the MA definitions. Please refer to M-94-22 on Use of Metropolitan Area Definitions, issued by OMB on May 5, 1994, for further information.

6. List of MA Definitions: This bulletin is available electronically from the OMB home page at <http://whitehouse.gov/OMB>; go to Bulletins. Copies of the list of MAs as of June 30, 1999, are available from the National Technical Information Service (NTIS), Document Sales, 5285 Port Royal Road, Springfield, VA 22161 (703-605-6000 or 1-800-553-6847) (Accession Number PB99-132698). This list is also available through NTIS in electronic form (Wordperfect) (Accession Number PB99-501538).
7. Inquiries: Inquiries concerning MA standards and the statistical uses of MA definitions should be directed to Suzann Evinger (202-395-3093).

INTRODUCTION

The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) defines metropolitan areas (MAs) following the official standards published in the Federal Register (55 FR 12154-12160) on March 30, 1990. MAs comprise metropolitan statistical areas (MSAs), consolidated metropolitan statistical areas (CMSAs), and primary metropolitan statistical areas (PMSAs). These areas are defined in terms of entire counties, except in the six New England States where they are defined in terms of cities and towns. New England county metropolitan areas (NECMAs) are an alternative set of county-based areas defined for New England States.

Effective June 30, 1999, there are 261 MSAs, 19 CMSAs, and 76 PMSAs, including 3 MSAs, 1 CMSA, and 3 PMSAs in Puerto Rico. Attached are four lists containing the definitions of these areas based on the MA standards published in the Federal Register on March 30, 1990, the 1990 Decennial Census data, and 1998 Census Bureau population estimates. List I is a comprehensive alphabetical listing of all MSAs, CMSAs, and PMSAs. It presents the definition and central cities for each MSA, and identifies each CMSA and PMSA by title only (referring the user to List II for their definitions). List II provides definitions of each CMSA and its component PMSAs. Both List I and List II present central cities in the order in which they appear in the area title and then in descending order of their 1990 populations. List III identifies the MSAs, CMSAs, and PMSAs by State, with cross references to the list on which to find each area's definition and central cities. Parentheses around MA titles in List III indicate that an area recently has become part of another or has a new title. List IV specifies the definitions of 12 NECMAs.

Miami-Dade County is now listed as the component of the Miami, FL PMSA, part of the Miami-Fort Lauderdale, FL CMSA. Miami-Dade County, Florida was formerly known as Dade County, Florida. The Federal Information Processing Standards (FIPS) county code has been changed from 025 to 086.

The first column of each list contains FIPS codes issued by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) in the Department of Commerce to standardize the coding of electronic data processing information. NIST has assigned a unique four digit code for each MSA, PMSA, and NECMA and a unique two digit code for each CMSA.
