I understand that we don't normally respond to COMEBACK letters with substantive issues. RECOMMEND you forward letter

Bob, I don't think this has changed much. Also, I'm sure Tony didn't read it, as there was an entire line repeated.

Not sure what Jim wants, but suggest ~~that~~ you return to Europe w/ a request for a more focussed letter. Still reads like a laundry list. J

O Primeiro Ministro

Lisbon, November 30, 1999

Dear Bill

I wholeheartedly thank you for the kind wishes you sent me on the occasion of the October 10th, legislative elections, following which I was reappointed as Prime Minister of Portugal.

My country is about to take up the Presidency of the European Union facing the challenge of participating in an increasingly globalized world, one in which every political and social players is called upon to act in a creative, responsible and open-minded way.

In this context, I am especially appreciative of the fact that both Portugal and myself may always count on the outstanding relationship with the United States of America and in particular with Your Excellency. I am convinced we shall now find renewed opportunities to cooperate toward the common goals that bring us together.

As I look forward to meeting you soon, please accept, Mr. President, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Sincerely yours

António Guterres

O Primeiro Ministro

Lisbon, November 30, 1999

Dear Bill

I wholeheartedly thank you for the kind wishes you sent me on the occasion of the October 10th, legislative elections, following which I was reappointed as Prime Minister of Portugal.

My country is about to take up the Presidency of the European Union facing the challenge of participating in an increasingly globalized world, one in which every political and social players is called upon to act in a creative, responsible and open-minded way.

In this context, I am especially appreciative of the fact that both Portugal and myself may always count on the outstanding relationship with the United States of America and in particular with Your Excellency. I am convinced we shall now find renewed opportunities to cooperate toward the common goals that bring us together.

As I look forward to meeting you soon, please accept, Mr. President, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Sincerely yours

António Guterres

His Excellency
Mr. William J. Clinton

O Primeiro Ministro

Lisbon, November 30, 1999

Dear Bill

I wholeheartedly thank you for the kind wishes you sent me on the occasion of the October 10th, legislative elections, following which I was reappointed as Prime Minister of Portugal.

My country is about to take up the Presidency of the European Union facing the challenge of participating in an increasingly globalized world, one in which every political and social players is called upon to act in a creative, responsible and open-minded way.

In this context, I am especially appreciative of the fact that both Portugal and myself may always count on the outstanding relationship with the United States of America and in particular with Your Excellency. I am convinced we shall now find renewed opportunities to cooperate toward the common goals that bring us together.

As I look forward to meeting you soon, please accept, Mr. President, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Sincerely yours

António Guterres

His Excellency
Mr. William J. Clinton
President of the United States of America
