Dear Mr. President:

The enclosed letters were sent by me, on behalf of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, to Attorney General Janet Reno, Internal Revenue Service Commissioner Charles Rossotti, and White House Chief-of-Staff John Podesta requesting documents for the Committee's consideration of Carol Moseley-Braun's nomination to be U.S. Ambassador to New Zealand.

Your personal intervention was most helpful in making certain that the Committee received all the documents we had requested during our review of Richard C. Holbrooke's nomination. I hope that you will be similarly helpful in facilitating the transfer of these requested documents which are vital to the Committee's consideration of the Moseley-Braun nomination.

Mr. President, I will make this commitment to you: if you will ensure that all the requested documents, and answers to the Committee's supplemental questions to the nominee, are provided to the Committee no later than Monday, November 1, 1999, the Committee will hold a hearing to consider the Moseley-Braun nomination that same week, followed by a business session of the Committee at which the Moseley-Braun nomination will be the pending business.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

JESSE HELMS
