

Little Rock, AR.
Jefferson Elementary
School January 7, 1993
January 7, 1993.

Dear President Clinton,

I would like for you to really try to stop people from polluting. Because I think it's a crying shame, that people are ruining our beautiful planet. Pollution is making a hole in the ozone layer, which is causing global warming. I know that the ozone layer acts as a blanket at night to keep us warm. And in the day time it keeps us cool.

Amy Nash