PAT YOUNG:

I have cleaned out that pending file that we had over here. I am sending you everything in these two folders -- there is no more.

I did not go in and update the log numbers.

All yours.

SECRETARY OF THE ARMY
WASHINGTON

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

11-28-94

November 28, 1994

The Honorable William J. Clinton
The President
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

During the days leading up to and including the Thanksgiving holidays, I visited your Army troops in Panama, Haiti, Kuwait, and Saudi Arabia. In the course of those visits, several soldiers and officers spoke to me about the recent remarks by Senator Jesse Helms.

The tenor of their comments is best represented by a Sergeant Major, a grizzled 25-year Army veteran accompanied by two of his colleagues, who said: "Sir, what can we do about Senator Helms' comments? They do not represent our views. We can't let him talk like that about our Commander-in-Chief."

The bottom line is that your soldiers, their noncommissioned officers, and their officers respect and support you. They are loyal to you and committed to carry out your orders as their Commander-in-Chief and President whenever and wherever you call upon them. They always have been.

With respect,

Togo D. West, Jr.
