Nixon pardon

Dear President Ford:

God willing, I will support you at the November election. But, before then, I would like to voice my opinion over what you had publicly stated about those European states. I feel you should have elaborated a little, because I suspect what you really meant, is that SPIRITUALLY, THOSE COUNTRIES CONSIDER THEMSELVES INDEPENDENT OF RUSSIAN DOMINATION, AS THEY LIVE IN THE HOPE OF BEING EVENTUALLY FREE.

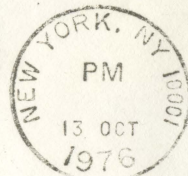

As for your pardon of ex-President Nixon, that, for me, was a noble gesture; it showed not only compassion and true understanding on your part, but it set a fine Christian example for our nation and the world. In fact, even today many still look up to our ex-President, both at home and abroad (as when I last went to Bermuda people there thought highly of Nixon and even wished we had allowed him to finish out his term of office).

Closing, with best wishes to you for your continuation in office as our President.

Sincerely,

Francesco Bivona
(Mr.) Francesco Bivona

Honorable Gerald R. Ford
President of the United States
White House
Washington, D.C. 20013
