My Dear Mr. President,

We are writing to you because we are all concerned about the financial crisis of New York City. We feel that if federal money is given to New York City this will start a precedent for other cities who practice fiscal irresponsibility. We also feel that New York City has gone over its budget and should be an example for other cities with financial difficulties. Of our Nation is going to stay the strongest nation in the world, our cities and states must learn to handle their money with responsibility.

Very respectful yours
Dolbi McCoy and Dolbi Maidment
