

The original documents are located in Box 6, folder “9/10/75 - Capitol Hill Club Foundation” of the Sheila Weidenfeld Files at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Gerald R. Ford donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

9/8/75
6:00 pm

PROPOSED SCHEDULE

THE PRESIDENT AND MRS. FORD'S
ATTENDANCE AT THE FUNDRAISING
RECEPTION AT THE CAPITOL HILL CLUB

Wednesday, September 10, 1975

6:00 pm Fundraising reception begins.

6:30 pm The Vice President and Mrs. Rockefeller arrive reception.

6:55 pm The President and Mrs. Ford board motorcade on South Grounds.

MOTORCADE DEPARTS South Grounds en route
Capitol Hill Club.

[Driving time: 5 minutes]

7:00 pm MOTORCADE ARRIVES Capitol Hill Club (Main entrance).

PRESS POOL COVERAGE

The President & Mrs. Ford will be met by:

Mr. & Mrs. Harold Collier, Capitol Hill Club
President

Mr. & Mrs. Charles Marke, Reception Chairman

The President and Mrs. Ford, escorted by greeters, proceed to Eisenhower Lounge.

7:02 pm The President and Mrs. Ford arrive Eisenhower Lounge and informally greet guests.

PRESS POOL COVERAGE

ATTENDANCE: 300 (Total)

7:20 pm The President and Mrs. Ford proceed to MacArthur Dining Room.

7:22 pm The President and Mrs. Ford arrive MacArthur Dining Room and informally greet guests.

PRESS POOL COVERAGE
ATTENDANCE: 300 (Total)

7:37 pm The President and Mrs. Ford and Harold Collier proceed to platform.

7:39 pm Introduction of the President by Harold Collier.

7:40 pm Presidential remarks.

PRESS POOL COVERAGE

7:45 pm Remarks conclude.

7:50 pm The President and Mrs. Ford depart MacArthur Dining Room en route motorcade for boarding.

7:55 pm MOTORCADE DEPARTS Capitol Hill Club en route South Grounds.

[Driving time: 5 minutes]

8:00 pm MOTORCADE ARRIVES South Grounds.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

FUNDRAISING RECEPTION
AT THE CAPITOL HILL CLUB

Wednesday - September 10, 1975

Departure: 6:55 P.M.

Dress: Informal

From: Terry O'Donnell ^{TD}

BACKGROUND:

A $1,000 per couple fundraising reception for the National Republican Club of Capitol Hill will be held this evening at the Club building. This reception is one element of an overall plan for placing the Club on solid financial footing.

This evening is billed as a "Reception and Buffet" honoring the President, Mrs. Ford, the Vice President, and Mrs. Rockefeller. The evening's activities are informal and are scheduled to commence at 6:00 p.m. Approximately 300 guests are expected to attend.

You will mingle with the guests in the Eisenhower Lounge and in the MacArthur Dining Room and, following introduction by Harold Collier, deliver brief remarks.

SEQUENCE:

6:55 p.m.

You and Mrs. Ford board motorcade on South Grounds and depart en route Capitol Hill Club.

7:00 p.m.

Arrive Capitol Hill Club where you will be met by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Collier, Capitol Hill Club President and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marke, Reception Chairman.

PRESS POOL COVERAGE

Escorted by greeters, you and Mrs. Ford proceed to Eisenhower Lounge and informally greet guests.

PRESS POOL COVERAGE
ATTENDANCE: 300 Total

NOTE: This is dependent upon how many are present. If everyone has moved upstairs, you will go directly to the MacArthur Dining Room.

7:20 p.m.

You and Mrs. Ford proceed to MacArthur Dining Room and informally greet guests.

PRESS POOL COVERAGE

7:37 p.m.

You and Mrs. Ford, Vice President and Mrs. Rockefeller, and Harold Collier proceed to platform.

NOTE: The Vice President will have already spoken to the group prior to your arrival.

7:39 p.m.

Harold Collier introduces you.

7:40 p.m.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS. (Airport stand available)

PRESS POOL COVERAGE

7:45 p.m.

Your remarks conclude. You and Mrs. Ford depart MacArthur Dining Room en route motorcade, board, and depart for the White House.

8:00 p.m.

Arrive South Grounds.

#

Portfolio

- Amusements
- Television

SECTION C THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1975

TV TONIGHT

Guy Lombardo And Ellery, Too

By Bernie Harrison
Washington Star Staff Writer

If you've ever watched one of Guy Lombardo's New Year's Eve specials, you'll get a kick out of the "Ellery Queen" premiere tonight (WRC-4 at 9). That's when and where the murder happens — just about the time the Royal Canadians are playing one of the hits of 1946, "Is You Is or Is You Ain't My Baby?" in their patented style and making it sound almost grammatical.

That's the most intriguing part of the hour show, however, and the decision to set the series back in the 40's pinpoints the series' major problem — how to update the hopelessly dated Ellery Queen sleuthing formula.

In the opener, it takes Ellery, played by Jim Hutton, almost three quarters of the show to find a taxi, collect his date and get to the Hotel Astor (which no longer exists) and meet his father (David Wayne). It takes him about five minutes to solve the murder. Will the old-fashioned technique work? (Introductions of the principals at the start, melodramatic characters, and a closing invitation by Ellery for viewers to name the killer). I doubt it. The charm, despite Lombardo, is minimal, the characters grubby, and an old B

—Washington Star Photographer Walter Oates

Betty Ford was in a mood to tease her husband last night, to the amusement of Vice President and Mrs. Rockefeller and fund raiser Chairman Charles Marks.

Betty's Joke Leaves Ford Speechless

By Ruth Dean
Washington Star Staff Writer

Betty Ford teasingly tried a bit of one-upmanship on her husband last night when she grabbed the mike away from him just as he was about to speak at a Capitol Hill Club fund raiser.

"Excuse me. Didn't you know I was club where they'd shared guest of honor billing with Vice President and Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller at the $1,000-a-ticket event, Mrs. Ford confided to a friend that she couldn't resist the impulse "because of all the flak I've gotten (over her recent television interview)." Then she added: "He could have fixed me. I would have

Stone, and speak briefly to them. The Fords were expected at 7 p.m.

But the Rockefellers arrived 45 minutes late, and the vice president found himself caught in the tight time schedule. In fact, he was interrupted in mid-speech by a club official summoning him to make haste downstairs to greet

"louder." Not missing a beat, Rockefeller tapped the mike and explained his soft-spokenness: "I'm so modest. It's appropriate for vice presidents. We all learn our place."

He praised Ford as "a man of courage and faith in this country," and told the guests, many of whom have been heavy campaign givers in the past "to give

A Very Hard Act to Follow

By Dorothy McCardle

First Lady Betty Ford briefly stole the show from her husband, the President, last night at the Capitol Hill

"I thank you from the bottom of my heart," said the President, "and the Capitol

the platform, shook hands and signed autographs for a good half-hour. They stayed 55 minutes altogether.

The Fords arrived just as Rockefeller was making his speech from the

The Washington Star

Portfolio

● Amusements

● Television

SECTION C THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1975

TV TONIGHT

Guy Lombardo And Ellery, Too

By Bernie Harrison
Washington Star Staff Writer

If you've ever watched one of Guy Lombardo's New Year's Eve specials, you'll get a kick out of the "Ellery Queen" premiere tonight (WRC-4 at 9). That's when and where the murder happens — just about the time the Royal Canadians are playing one of the hits of 1946, "Is You Is or Is You Ain't My Baby?" in their patented style and making it sound almost grammatical.

That's the most intriguing part of the hour show, however, and the decision to set the series back in the '30's pinpoints the series' major problem — how to update the hopelessly dated Ellery Queen sleuthing formula.

In the opener, it takes Ellery, played by Jim Hutton, almost three quarters of the show to find a taxi, collect his date and get to the Hotel Astor (which no longer exists) and meet his father (David Wayne). It takes him about five minutes to solve the murder. Will the old-fashioned technique work? (Introductions of the principals at the start, melodramatic characters, and a closing invitation by Ellery for viewers to name the killer). I

—Washington Star Photographer Walter Oates

Betty Ford was in a mood to tease her husband last night, to the amusement of Vice President and Mrs. Rockefeller and fund-raiser Chairman Charles Marks.

Betty's Joke Leaves Ford Speechless

By Ruth Dean
Washington Star Staff Writer

Betty Ford teasingly tried a bit of one-upmanship on her husband last night when she grabbed the mike away from club where they'd shared guest of honor billing with Vice President and Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller at the $1,000-a-ticket event, Mrs. Ford confided to a friend that she couldn't resist the impulse "because

Stone, and speak briefly to them. The Fords were expected at 7 p.m.

But the Rockefellers arrived 45 minutes late, and the vice president found himself caught in the tight time

"louder." Not missing a beat, Rockefeller tapped the mike and explained his soft-spokenness: "I'm so modest. It's appropriate for vice presidents. We all learn our place."

A Very Hard Act to Follow

By Dorothy McCardle

First Lady Betty Ford briefly stole the show from her husband, the President, last night at the Capitol Hill Club.

"I thank you from the bottom of my heart," said the President, "and the Capitol Hill Club thanks you from the platform, shook hands and signed autographs for a good half-hour. They stayed 55 minutes altogether.

The Fords arrived just as Rockefeller was making his speech from the same platform. He had reached "fiscal

