Dear Mrs. Ford:

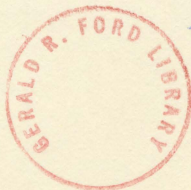

It is a very sad state of affairs when the first lady of the land comes out in public with her endorsement of immorality.

As a wife and mother, we would have hoped that the president's wife would have held up the ideals of family life and sex as God intended it -- within the framework of the commitment of marriage. Unfortunately, you choose to condone abortion and immorality.

Fortunately, the American public has a choice, too: to eliminate your husband's chances of running for election next year.

It's too bad you didn't listen to your theology-student son a little more.!!

Very SINCERELY,

Thomas F. Crawley
