KWANZA

"Meaning First"

December 26 — January 1

AN AFRICAN CELEBRATION

Kwanza is a word meaning "First" or in this case it signifies the First Fruits. Celebration of harvesting the first crops or first fruits is traditional in Africa.

On each day of the week of Kwanza, when asked, "Habari gani", the answer will not be "Njema", but one of the first, second, onto the 7th day, i.e. on the fifth day if someone asks "Habari gani", the answer would be Nia, which is the fifth principle.

The Mkeka is a straw mat on which all other items are placed.

The Kinara is a candle-holder which holds seven candles, and presents the original stalk from which we all sprang.

The seven candles represent the Seven Principles (Nguzo Saba).

The ear of corn represents the offspring or produce (the Children) of the stalk (the father of the house).

THE SEVEN PRINCIPLES (Nguzo Saba)

1. UMOJA (UNITY) To strive for and maintain unity in the family, community, nation and race.
2. KUJICHAGULIA (SELF - DETERMINATION) To define ourselves, name ourselves, and speak for ourselves, instead of being defined and spoken for by others.
3. UJIMA (COLLECTIVE WORK AND RESPONSIBILITY) To build and maintain our community together and to make our brothers and sisters problems our problems and to solve them together.
4. UJAMAA (CO-OPERATIVE ECONOMICS) To build and maintain our own stores, shops and other businesses and to profit together from them.
5. NIA (PURPOSE) To make as our collective vocation the building and developing of our community in order to restore our people to their traditional greatness.
6. KUUMBA (CREATIVITY) To do always as much as we can, in the way we can in order to leave our community more beautiful and beneficial than when we inherited it.
7. IMANI (FAITH) To believe with all our heart in our parents, our teachers, our leaders, our people and the righteousness and victory of our struggle.

Stan -

We have a grand and glorious past.

Let's continue to thrive for togetherness in 1974, through awareness, fortitude, determination, love, respect and understanding among ourselves.

happy kwanzaa

Kwanzaa is a holiday from our African heritage. In Africa the land is the source of life, the source of food and clothing. "The First Fruits" of a crop show how bountiful the harvest will be. Kwanzaa takes its name from these "First Fruits".

This year Kwanzaa is not a celebration of the first fruits for many thousands of people in West Africa. There will be no harvest. This year we pay respects to those who have starved and affirm our unity with the suffering people of this area.

During the Kwanzaa holiday, December 25 through January 1, Pride, Inc., lights seven candles to symbolize a rededication to using the seven principles of Kwanzaa in building a strong community: Umoja (Unity), Kuujichagulia (Self-Determination), Ujima (Collective Work and Responsibility), Ujamaa (Cooperative Economics), Nia (Purpose), Kuumba (Creativity), and Imani (Faith).
