The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights is a temporary, independent, bipartisan agency established by Congress in 1957 and directed to:

- Investigate complaints alleging that citizens are being deprived of their right to vote by reason of their race, color, religion, or national origin, or by reason of fraudulent practices;
- Study and collect information concerning legal developments constituting a denial of equal protection of the laws under the Constitution;
- Appraise Federal laws and policies with respect to equal protection of the laws;
- Serve as a national clearinghouse for information in respect to denials of equal protection of the laws; and

CIVIL RIGHTS DIRECTORY

This Civil Rights Directory is distributed as a service of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights under its clearinghouse function. All information in the Directory is based on that supplied by the agencies and organizations listed.

The Directory consists of five sections:

- Section A: Officials of 38 Federal agencies who are responsible for monitoring, administering, coordinating, and enforcing various aspects of equal opportunity laws and policies.
- Section B: Federal officials with liaison responsibility for programs of special interest to Spanish-speaking groups.
- Section C: National private organizations with civil rights programs.
- Section D: Official State agencies with civil rights responsibilities.
- Section E: County and municipal commissions with civil rights responsibilities.

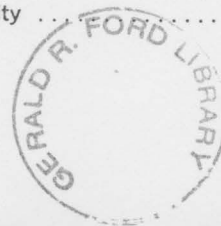

For convenience, the telephone numbers listed are those which can be reached via commercial facilities. The interdepartmental Dial System (IDS) Code appears beneath the address of each Federal agency. In most instances, intergovernmental calls may be completed by dialing the appropriate interdepartmental Dial Code plus the last four digits of the number listed. Area codes are in parentheses.

This is a listing of Federal officials who have responsibility for monitoring, administering, coordinating, and enforcing various aspects of equal opportunity laws and policies. Since space limitations preclude listing every official, the Commission has been selective with a view toward including at least one key contact person for each major area of civil rights responsibility as indicated by the reporting agencies. Officials are listed under the following major areas:

Title VI (Civil Rights Act of 1964)—Discrimination based on race, color, or national origin is prohibited in federally assisted programs.

Federal Employment (Executive Order 11478)—Discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, or sex in the employment practices of the Federal Government is prohibited.

Contract Compliance (Executive Order 11246)—Federal contractors and subcontractors and contractors engaged in federally assisted construction are prohibited from discriminating in their employment practices.

Note: Most agencies whose programs include federally assisted construction have assigned compliance responsibility to the person responsible for compliance by Federal contractors and subcontractors. Unless otherwise noted, the single caption, "Contract Compliance," is used to cover both types of compliance activity.

Title VII (Civil Rights Act of 1964)—Discrimination in employment practices because of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin is prohibited by private employers of 25 or more persons. Title VII also prohibits the U.S. Employment Service, federally assisted State and local employment services, private employment agencies, and labor organizations from discriminating.

Title VIII (Civil Rights Act of 1968)—Discrimination on account of race, color, religion, or national origin in the sale, rental, advertising, and financing of certain types of housing is prohibited.

Executive Order 11063—Discrimination because of race, color, creed, or national origin in the sale or rental of certain categories of federally aided housing is prohibited.

Direct Federal Programs—Discrimination is prohibited by various agency regulations and equal opportunity policies in those programs which are administered directly by the Federal agency (such as Veterans Administration hospitals and Social Security payments) and which, therefore, are not covered by Title VI.
