Dear Mr. Robinson:

Stan Scott sent me a copy of your resume and indicated your interest in government service. Your talents and background are such that I would hope we could find a suitable position for you.

Positions at the White House and elsewhere in the Administration are opening up gradually, but in light of the President's desire to trim the size of government, some spots are not being filled.

We have included your resume in our Talent Bank, a computerized file of exceptionally qualified people. I will get in touch with you as soon as something comes up that you might find interesting.

Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Samuel A. Schulhof

Dear Mr. Samuels:

Stan Scott sent me a copy of your resume and indicated your interest in government service. Your talents and background are such that I would hope we could find a suitable position for you.

Positions at the White House and elsewhere in the Administration are opening up gradually, but in light of the President's desire to trim the size of government, some spots are not being filled.

We have included your resume in our Talent Bank, a computerized file of exceptionally qualified people. I will get in touch with you as soon as something comes up that you might find interesting.

Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Samuel A. Schulhof

Stan Scott sent me a copy of your resume and indicated your interest in government service. Your talents and background are such that I would hope we could find a suitable position for you.

Positions at the White House and elsewhere in the Administration are opening up gradually, but in light of the President's desire to trim the size of government, some spots are not being filled.

We have included your resume in our Talent Bank, a computerized file of exceptionally qualified people. I will get in touch with you as soon as something comes up that you might find interesting.

Best wishes,

Sincerely,

William N. Walker
