Dear Judith:

It was very thoughtful of you to take the time recently to express your best wishes.

These are exciting and challenging times for me. However, I do recognize the unique opportunity that I am fortunate in serving my country as a member of the President's staff. I shall give it all I've got.

For your sentiments about me upon this occasion, I am indeed grateful.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

I want to congratulate you on the reports which I have just read that you will soon be the highest ranking Black person in the Nixon Administration.

Since I last saw you in Washington, I, too, have made a change. As you can see from the stationery, I am no longer with WHDH in Boston, seeking your help to find other Black folks to work for WHDH. I am now General Manager of WLBT-TV in Jackson, Mississippi (of all places).

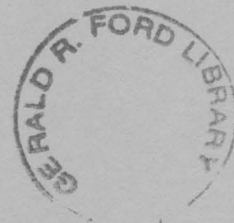

I wish you all the success in the world in your new position.

Dear Stan:

I was thrilled to learn of your appointment and wish to extend my heartiest congratulations.

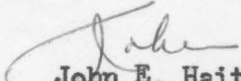

It was a pleasure to have met you personally as well as working with you during the Campaign of '72.

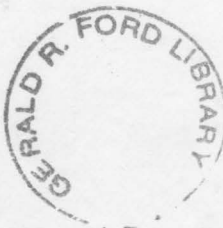

Realizing, of course, the need for you to get your feet firmly planted under your desk, I would like to be among the many who will be requesting your presence to introduce you to this area at an affair which I am in the process of putting together. The dates which have been proposed are the 27th & 28th of April or the 11th & 12th of May. If any of these proposed dates are acceptable, I would appreciate hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Press coverage as well as TV coverage can be obtained which would offer you a wide-range of exposure as far as eastern part of Massachusetts, Vermont and Upstate New York and Hudson Valley.

I can assure you the audience will be very receptive. I will forward to you more information as to the sponsorship of the affair and hoping that your schedule will permit you to accept. Best of Luck.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Scott:

I am writing to congratulate you on your appointment as Special Assistant to The President. You are to be commended for being chosen for this very high post. We at Miles College remember so well your being on our campus last year and the fine presentation which you made to our students and the address at the Hungry Club.

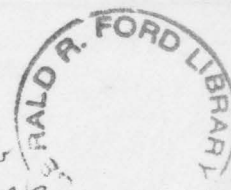

In talking with Emory O. Jackson last week, he stated that he would be seeing you in Washington very soon. I asked that he personally express my congratulations to you on behalf of Miles College and our great joy in hearing of your remarkable achievement. We hope that as you carry out your responsibilities that Miles College will be numbered among your interests.

Again, congratulations on your new appointment.

May I extend to you sincere congratulations upon your most recent recognition. In my humble opinion, the decision to recognize you is an excellent case of good judgment, not only for the administration, but for all who appreciate candor.

A few years have passed since you covered the movement in Chicago, NAACP, etc., but no matter where, I have always anticipated and received from your pen, that element of integrity that has never compromised human emotion in the face of visible reality.

My family joins me in wishing you a very happy and prosperous New Year.

The news of your new job is tremendous. I am very happy for you and I know you and your family are probably still trying to get used to the new role you will be playing. And, you will play it well.

Thank you for your contacts at the State Department. I was told who to contact for the visa I wanted and am now waiting for it to come through, after having filled out the necessary forms, etc. Keep your fingers crossed for me. I really want to make that trip to the Antilles.

Again, congratulations and lots of luck.

Dear Stanley:

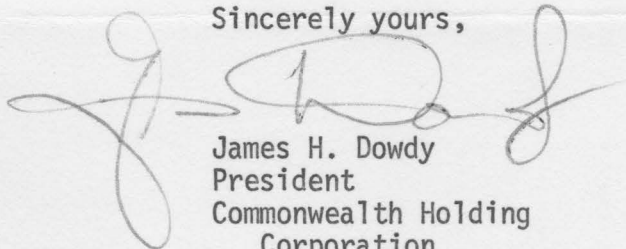

Just a note to thank you for allowing me to be one of your VIP guests at the Breakfast Dance for the wind-up of the four day inaugural functions. I took it as a personal gesture on which people build relationships.

I also wish to be one of the multitude of concerned Black men to congratulate you on your new appointment as Special Assistant to the President of the United States. It is a position well deserved and I am confident that you will make it a meaningful position - not only for Blacks but other minority Americans as well.

In that endeavor you not only need and should have the full support of every minority man and woman in the country. I personally pledge that support - not in the last month of an election, but now when time demands that Blacks start to build the political power we need in order to emerge from the present social welfare system and survive in the economic marketplace of the present.

I look forward to chatting with you after you've settled in your new office.

Dear Stanley:

I am sure you will understand that the pressure of the conference in Gaithersburg, Md. and the inaugural events surrounding your office prevented my seeing you and your family during my recent visit to the Washington area. However, let me again proffer my congratulations for your appointment to the President's staff. May you be able to accomplish much in that position!

The Hungry Club was happy and honored to offer the opportunity for Counsel Harry Render and you to appear on its forum last year. Future appearances, incidental to the public relations and needs for public relations and the national well being, may be in order and welcomed.

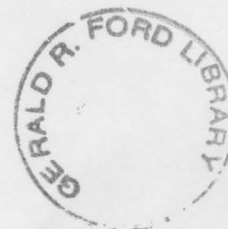

You, of course, are aware of what is happening to the Community Action Program, of which Atlanta's CAP is a significant part. This may lead to the necessity of asking for reciprocation which may be necessary for my survival and progress. Need I say more in light of events and possibilities?

Love to your family and all our acquaintances.

I was so pleased to read that the President had named you as a Special Assistant. This is a tremendous honor, richly deserved.

Needless to say, Stan, I wish you every success. More than that, let me emphasize again our continuing desire to be of assistance to you.

As I write you, my mind goes back to the picture of the little girl in Ohio who, in the 1968 campaign, held up for the President to see the sign "Bring us Together." This is one of NCCJ's principal tasks. I am sure this continues to be a matter of importance to the President and to you.

Best of luck, Stan. I look forward to our continuing association. Every good wish.
