RICHARD M. NIXON

WASHINGTON, D. C.

December 24, 1968

Honorable Earle Cabell
United States House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Cabell:

I have now set up shop in the Transition headquarters, Federal Building #7, corner of 17th and H Streets, N. W., Washington, D.C. While it will be necessary for me to divide my time between the Capital and New York until January 20, my associates -- Ken Belieu and Bill Timmons, both "Deputy Assistants for Congressional Relations" -- will operate from the temporary Washington office. Ken will be concentrating on Senate matters, and Bill on House matters. Please call on them if they can be helpful in any way during this governmental hiatus.

The D. C. office switchboard is 395-2000 and the New York number is (212) 421-3100.

Hope to see you soon.

Among the many and varied proposals which have come across my desk since I began endeavoring to coalesce Republican opinion for Mr. Nixon's policy and program development, I discovered to my horror that your December 12 letter in response to my request seems to have had no response.

To be so remiss is unforgivable. Both Mr. Nixon and I deeply appreciate the time and thought involved in your recommendations concerning the Post Office and Civil Service Committee and its work. On my return to Washington, your letter of November 27, which was acknowledged by my Administrative Assistant, Pat Roberts, was called to my attention.

After serving eighteen years as a member and chairman of the Post Office and Civil Service Committee, I can assure you I have a deep interest in the improvement of the postal service.

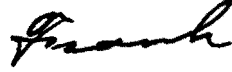

I have read the Kappel Report and doubt very much that Congress will approve it in its entirety, but I do believe there are several suggestions in it that President Nixon should incorporate in his message to Congress. Mr. Kappel conferred with me on several occasions during the writing of the report.

I have one suggestion I think we must keep in mind and that is the importance of working with representatives of the Labor Organizations for the Post Office employees. I have had excellent contacts with them during my many years of service. They have already discussed with me some proposed changes. The country is ready for some improvements in the postal operations and recommendations by President Nixon will be well received.

Dear Mr. Harlow:

Previously, I sent in a list of people in Kentucky who have worked actively for the nomination and election of President Nixon.

High on the list was the name of County Attorney ~~J. C. Denney, of Monticello, Kentucky~~, who was County Campaign Chairman for the President. The invitation was not forthcoming from the National or State level.

I earnestly ask that this active, intelligent and loyal Republican be sent an invitation to the Inauguration. Mr. Denney, in a recent letter to me, pointed out the fact that even though he strongly supported Presidential Candidate Goldwater he received an invitation to the Inauguration from the Democratic Party four years ago.

Even if Washington bursts at the seams, recognition of our good party workers is absolutely necessary if our party is to retain its strength.

Dear Mr. Nixon:

I want to compliment you on the appointment of Mr. Daniel Patrick Moynihan as your Special Assistant for Urban Affairs.

Recently, I read an editorial on his forthcoming book in which he mentions that the Community Action Programs attempt to politicize the poor. Since I have twenty-two counties in the Appalachian Area, I know that this is true. I know further that these so-called social reformers who have been sent into Eastern Kentucky have caused turmoil, trouble and strife. The report of an investigation which GAO conducted for me showed that very little of the millions spent in Eastern Kentucky filtered down to benefit the poor. Further, studies by a Task Force at the University of Kentucky have shown even less benefit to the poor. It is my feeling that jobs for the people of this area, productive jobs, would do more than anything else to benefit the poor. I feel that your appointee, Mr. Moynihan, has a keen insight into the problems of the poor and I look forward to working with him.

I feel that the Community Action Programs in Eastern Kentucky are failures.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Dear Cliff:

The President-Elect appreciated your letter of November 20 and its enclosed memorandum regarding the interest of Dorsey Richardson to serve on a special Task Force to study the Federal regulation of the securities industry.

Mr. Richardson's interest and your own good recommendation will certainly have every consideration as this effort proceeds.

I am looking forward to working with you during the 91st Congress.

Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Casey:

I have now set up shop in the Transition headquarters, Federal Building #7, corner of 17th and H Streets, N. W., Washington, D.C. While it will be necessary for me to divide my time between the Capital and New York until January 20, my associates -- Ken Belieu and Bill Timmons, both "Deputy Assistants for Congressional Relations" -- will operate from the temporary Washington office. Ken will be concentrating on Senate matters, and Bill on House matters. Please call on them if they can be helpful in any way during this governmental hiatus.

The D. C. office switchboard is 395-2000 and the New York number is (212) 421-3100.

Hope to see you soon.

Dear Bob:

Due to the great mass of mail which swamped my office after election, this is the first opportunity I have had to extend my thanks for your congratulatory wire. I deeply appreciate the sentiment of your telegram.

I look forward to the opportunity of working with you in the 91st Congress. I am confident that, once we get to Washington, we shall be able to set up a productive and efficient Executive-Congressional team, with the result that all of us want: good government for our country.

Mrs. Nixon joins me in sending our very best wishes for Christmas and the New Year.

Sincerely,

Richard Nixon

interested in a position as Deputy Postmaster General.

I cannot think of anyone who would be more com-

this position than George. He served in the Department

Dear Mr. President,

I've wanted to pen a quick note before leaving for the veto conference to send my congratulations on your victory. I can't begin to tell you what a thrill it will be to work once again with you and a Republican administration.

While our problems are tremendous, I feel confident that with the sincerity you will bring to Washington, and our determination to solve the problems, that we can with our collective efforts do the job that the American people want to have done.

Again, my congratulations and the best of wishes for the next four years.
