Dear Mr. Ruppe:

I have now set up shop in the Transition headquarters, Federal Building No. 7, corner of 17th and H Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C. While it will be necessary for me to divide my time between the Capital and New York until January 20, my associates -- Ken Belieu and Bill Timmons, both "Deputy Assistants for Congressional Relations" -- will operate from the temporary Washington office. Ken will be concentrating on Senate matters, and Bill on House matters. Please call on them if they can be helpful in any way during this governmental hiatus.

The D. C. office switchboard is 395-2000 and the New York number is (212) 421-3100.

Hope to see you soon.

Dear Mr. Ruppe:

President-Elect Nixon has asked me to express his appreciation to you for bringing to his personal attention Mrs. Eagle's support of George McIntyre for Secretary of Agriculture.

While events have passed us by as far as the Agriculture Secretaryship is concerned, I trust you will convey to Mrs. Eagle Mr. Nixon's appreciation for her interest. Please assure her that her comments have been added to the numerous accolades Mr. McIntyre has received, and that consideration is being given to his desire to participate in the new Administration.

With cordial regard,

Sincerely,
