Dear President-Elect Nixon;

NOV 14 1968

EH
This is an unusual request I admit, and I only pray that it will reach you at all.

You see, my Father - Terrance E. Lowe - went to cast his vote for you on election day, along with my Mom. Immediately upon returning home his leg began to swell, and in agony was rushed to a nearby hospital, then transferred to The Philadelphia Naval Hospital at 17th & Pattison Ave.

To get to the point, he is at this moment undergoing surgery for amputation of that leg. They tried everything, but couldn't save it. I've cried and prayed until I can do no more - and thought perhaps if I wrote to you asking if you would be so kind as to send him a get-well message - I would be doing something constructive for him instead of wasting time with tears. I know it will cheer him considerably..God willing he comes through (He'll be 73 years old on Dec. 19th) to receive a kind word from you. I also realize I have no right to ask any of your time right now as I know your moments are precious; but so is my Dad precious to me, and he's the only one I have.

So forgive my audacity please, Mr. Nixon. My parents are poor (retired) people with little pleasures in life. To hear from you would be one of the few memorable events that will last 'til the end of his days.

Respectfully, and thank you from the bottom of my heart,

Mrs Raymond (Marilyn) Ulmer

Dear Mr. Nixon:

Now that you are to be the President of all the people, the majority of our citizens are willing, even anxious to do their best to help. We have the welfare of our country at heart and assure you of our sincere best wishes.

I write to you as a responsible conservative, not an "extremist," by any definition. Many conservatives voted for you, some good conservatives did not. But I believe I know very well what all reasonable conservatives are thinking just now, and can fairly guess what this large and growing segment of American thought would like to say to you.

Responsible conservatives hold a number of very deep convictions, and some perhaps less ardent, yet important opinions which we would like to submit to you as you begin your administration.

Among the inflexible convictions that all conservatives hold are these:

- (1) We want to see the war in Viet Nam ended without a communist takeover of South Viet Nam. Americans have spent too much money and blood for any less than this.
- (2) We want the move toward socialism in America reversed and the influence of the socialists ended in government, both in foreign and domestic policies.
- (3) We want a halt to inflation. We hope we can have prosperity with freedom, a steadily lessened national debt, with the preservation of a sound dollar.
- (4) We want criminal laws enforced, public order and safety restored. We specifically include in this a complete end to rampant anarchy and sedition on university campuses, and an end to riots.
- (5) We want America to take the initiative against communism at home and abroad, for all of us believe that communism can be stopped by forcing it to go on the defensive. We are angry with the current policy of permitting communism always to take the offensive, to act while our government merely reacts.
- (7) We conservatives want to hear our government always tell the truth and neither deceive the people nor attempt to get by with idealistic platitudes which reveal no creative thinking about the real causes of our great national problems.
- (8) We want America headed away from the collectivist welfare state, toward a strengthening of freedom and private enterprise.
- (9) We want an end to federal governmental interference with our private lives and businesses in areas where the federal government has no proper role.
- (10) We want patriotism and good citizenship exalted and treason and crime punished swiftly and surely.

We know that not even the President of the United States can wave a magic wand and perform those wonders overnight. But, for a change, we want our new President to mean his oath with all his heart when he vows on Inauguration Day, "I promise to defend and protect the Constitution of the United States."

It will greatly increase the confidence that conservatives want to have in you if you will also give consideration to some other matters:

- (1) Please appoint to the Supreme Court justices who will abide by the letter and meaning of the Constitution; men who will not overthrow the tried and true principles of our great social contract.
- (2) Please avoid any arrangement with other nations that will compromise our national sovereignty. World government is, we feel, a dangerous dream as long as there are communist forces to take advantage of our idealism.
- (3) Please don't permit trade with our deadly enemies and thus strengthen their slave regimes over their oppressed people.
- (4) Please don't let the liberal establishment, as exemplified by the Council on Foreign Relations, and similar groups, get so close to you that they begin to unduly influence your decisions.
- (5) Please don't name to your cabinet men who represent the tired and bankrupt policies of destructive liberalism.
- (6) Please don't make agreements with the communist countries (as President Kennedy did in Cuba) that virtually guarantee the perpetuation of a communist dictatorship unhindered by the forces of liberation. You can help those liberation forces in many ways, and we will support you in so doing.
- (7) Please do work for new and fresh ideas to solve our age-old national troubles. May your administration be a truly "Creative Society" finding among the people themselves the positive solutions to their own problems.

Many conservatives join me in pledging to you our loyalty, hard work, and prayers. We will do our best not to be unreasonable perfectionists. We are, I think, realists, and most of us know that "politics is the art of the possible."

Mr. President-Elect, we just want to know you are sincerely trying. Give us this assurance and the overwhelming majority of us will back you with joy and all the strength we have.

We are believers in the Republic. We want you to help us make the American dream become reality.

With deepest respect and hope, on behalf of many American conservatives;

Dear Mr. Nixon:

I hope you received the copies of my "VOTE FOR NIXON" song which Ned Sullivan Jr. and my Westchester County Republicans used so successfully during your campaign. As I wrote you, I am proud to have been with the Team and grateful to my friend Vincent Andrews who suggested that I write the song many months ago.

I enclose herewith a new song that we just completed

BRING US TOGETHER

which, of course, was inspired by that little girl's sign back in Ohio.

I hope you like the demo (trio) we just made and in about a week I expect to have printed copies which I will bring to your home. We all are proud of the way you've handled the situation and I hope that you will call on me for anything further service I can render.

I hope, too, that Miss Julie received the special copies of another song of mine entitled "BRIDE & GROOM" which we dedicated to Julie and David.

The best to all of you and we're behind you in your difficult task that lies ahead.

My dear President-Elect,

I have been an Assembly District Leader for a number of years. Eight years ago & this year also especially this year, I made certain my organization went all out for you. I have met you in person several times at Republican Dinners. Of course you do not recall it - most people are happy to forget me for which I admire their sagacity. Although I have been offered numerous positions by the party, I have turned them all down since I have a lucrative dental practice. I have never sought nor received anything politically until NOW. Now I want a favor from you. This Monday, Nov. 18th, my wife Annette whom you have also met, is having a cataract removed at the Manhattan Eye & Ear Hospital, 210 East 64th St. Despite her air of bravado I know she is scared stiff, even as you & would be. Would you please find a moment or so to have one of your secretaries drop a line - under your name - to the hospital, wishing her a speedy recovery? Frankly I know I am asking a lot, BUT, it is for the woman

I have been in love with for 26 years ever since we were married, not for myself. I know a letter from you will boost her morale & hasten her recovery immensely.
As a fellow Republican & as a fellow human being, please grant me the ONLY favor I have ever sought from the Republican Party.

Thank you,

Dear, Sir:

I'm a student of Taft Jr. High School. I'm writing to ask you to take in consideration reappointing Mayor Washington. It would be nice to let Mayor W. Washington stay in office. If you can remember the disturbance in April you will see Mayor Washington was very helpful in try to stop the disturbance. This is one his loyalty for Washington and other states, this proves he is very efficient for the job. Not because of this one cause but when he is set on doing something his mind is made to do, it right and not stopping until it is done. Mayor Washington believes in getting ~~involved~~ involve in public and political matters of the city and state. He did a lot to improve the slum area of Wash: 9 (that was a goal he was going to see through). I feel Mayor Washington would make a very good Mayor. So I hope you will take in consideration about letting Walter Washington being Mayor.

By Paul Harvey:

'Mr. President, Put Us Back Together Again'

Mr. President-elect, you have been elected by the American people. It was not the people of some other nation or of all other nations who elected you; you were elected by "us" — spelled U.S.

Mr. Nixon, your oath of office binds you to preserve, protect and defend "us" against all enemies, foreign and domestic. You sought and got our votes to govern us. Your first obligation is to us.

SINCE THE DAWN of the so-called nuclear age, some American presidents have allowed themselves to become preoccupied with what our enemies might do or what our allies might think.

We must assume that those previous administrators were scared. Thus they signed promissory notes binding us to 42 other nations.

Indeed, your predecessor, President Johnson, once said, "Ten hours of the day out of 14 I spend on the world — Latin-American, European problems, Vietnam, relations with the Soviet Union. . ."

THIS PREOCCUPATION with other nations and their problems has left our own neglected home front a chaotic shambles; we are now in worse trouble than are many of them.

Mr. President, come home.

Our American dollar, once a bulwark for all the world's currencies, is eroding so fast and supported by so little gold that last year some foreign countries were refusing to cash dollars for American tourists!

WINLESS WARS, waged in defense of unworthy governments with less than our best weapons for a lesser objective than victory — such wars are unworthy of our sons, and our enlightened sons know it!

Big government, buying votes with promises of "something for nothing" and "social equality" and "guaranteed security" — promises which no government can keep — fostered inevitable disillusionment and ultimate rioting.

There is but one way, Mr. President, that you can pull us back together: make our Americanism worthy of respect. Ultimately, if you do that, you will also rewin the admiration of the world. But put "us" first.

During your campaign, you promised "to return our nation to its rightful position of leadership . . ." I'm not sure what you meant by that.

The best city administrators are those who don't want to be governor. The most effective governor is the one who is not out running for president.

Right now we need a president of the United States who will give the United States his full time!

WE WERE LEADERS of this world for most of 100 years before we anointed ourselves its policeman. We "led" by being such a shining example that others were inspired to imitate us.

Then somehow we stopped leading and started meddling.

The father who is first and foremost good to his own family is inevitably a good neighbor.

He does not spoil with unearned ease nor disillusion them with unkept promises nor sentence them to undeserved punishment.

Disengage us, Mr. President, from this suffocating spider web of international involvements. You were not elected president of the world; you were elected president of the United States.

Richard M. Nixon President Elect
Dear Mr Nixon - I hate to bother you again but just to let you know there are thousands of voters just as worried as I - the way you are falling right in to the Johnson Humphrey mess. We elected you or voted for you & worked hard for your victory & yet you keep putting up to the Johnson Humphrey Association Communist Regime - we worked & voted for you because we thought you were a conservative & trusted you to take a clean break from this filthy mess we are in - but you seem to be casting along with the same old line hawk & sniper with that filthy mess we have now - now 2 like millions of others who voted for you are being disappointed in your attitude. Now there are ways & easy ways to clean our Government out that is to discharge every Communist democrat in washington & get it all clean

Cut Americans — Americans who are for God & the People of America and you can stop these riots instantly by tell them on a world Television space that we won't stand for it in America & the first one who insites or precipitates in a riot looting & burning will be arrested & sent to the Fed Prison and to the Colleges tell them the Jap 2
Payer is paying for his education & if they don't go to College to learn to be up right decent American Citizens they will be bored from College once & for all, also see that the Professors or the Faculty members who are teaching Communism in our Schools & Colleges are dismissed at once & see to it that no Communist can teach in our Schools or work in our Government or defence plants. Now a real American President a President who loves his Country & the People of America & the Lord of God can stop this Communist take over at once & that is just who is kind

All these riots and rallies the very idea of a President that will let a bunch of Communists shut down our schools & run the persons & teachers out & then lock the door & take over our colleges how if you are a true blood American can you go along with an Administration like the LBJ & HHH - Men who has thrown our country in to such chaos in this last 8 years & if you keep waving LBJ & HHH - and follow in their foot steps I hope there is enough people with nerve enough to impeach
you. Johnson should of been impeached 6 years ago - and maybe you don't know it but I do & read these letters written in regards to you and there is people like this in ever state in the Union like the Jack Society, & the Committee of the States & dozens of others whom I am in contact with weekly - now
I have worked for you in all your Elections & I never thought you at Election time would praise LBJ & this Administration like you are during you were Elected because we thought you would save America - so stop having any thing to do with the LBJ mess and go sit on the Nixon a man we trusted every time you try to get enemies with LBJ - he can right on TV and tell the American People - I am Bored - LBJ - we get so mad I don't hardly watch the news don't have another contact with these Communist Socialists & get down & pray to the American People you are of the material our Founding Fathers were & hear true American & don't elect one liberal to your staff we just as well had LBJ & HHH as to have had N. Rockefeller or Romney. they are so liberal they would be as bad as LBJ. Stand on your own & for the American People & rid this Country of Communism & Negroes let them go back to the Communist Countries and put a stop to everything coming in to this Country & take care of Americans let the Communists stay in their own country in

People of Lansing over here trying to take our good old way to the People having quite having America
I saw you at Martin Luther King's Funeral & I was shocked & horrified he was one of the biggest Communists in America trying to keep these Marches going being the word of God for a Cause & he was a way in sheep clothing - And you & G kept Electing the Negroes to our highest offices & also the Republicans elected Senator Brock - Just since when is it that America can't run their own Government & they put a bunch of Negroes in to Veto everything that isn't for the Negro in 8 more years if this Negro business isn't stopped we will have a Negro President
How can our leaders do the American People like that - We are all for you and pray for your Success - but leave the liberal Communists & Negro out of our Government - Please we all love you & adore you so help keep it that way Mrs D Mettice

The daughter of a friend of mine was an enthusiastic campaign worker for Mr. Nixon, and is delighted with the "thank you" letter dated Nov. 12 and bearing Mr. Nixon's signature.

It must have been reproduced in quantity, but the letter itself, fill-in, and signature are excellent. Could you tell me what reproduction process was used? I suspect that the letter was "computerized." Is that correct?

Dear Mr. Peterson:

We of the Prairie du Chien Chamber of Commerce are very glad that you have taken enough interest in our city that you would like us to tell your friends.

We were very happy to send them the information that you requested.

In your letter you also asked about the fur trading Co. that is still in existence here in Prairie du Chien. The name of the firm is "Alaska Canadian Fur Trading Co." and it is a form of the original started in our city's infant years by Hercules Dousman.

We have enclosed a pamphlet that should give you some information on this subject. Also you could write the Alaska Canadian Company at the following address:

Alaska Canadian Fur Trading Co.

Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin, 53821

We hope that this information will help you and if we can be of any further help please let us know.

CANYONLANDS

Tour IT/LACL-8E

The West's Newest Scenic Wonderland!

It's an ancient land that looks as if the handprints of creation were still forcefully on it, yet it is marked with the man-made marvels of the 20th Century. It's Canyonlands — newest of our country's national parks — the 32nd — established in September, 1964. Within its 257,640 acres, located in scenic southeastern Utah, you find a spectacular combination of ancient Indian ruins; canyons ranging from the shallow to the deep and steep-walled; standing rocks, fantastically fashioned by nature through the ages. It's one of America's last untouched frontiers — one you just won't want to miss!

SAN FRANCISCO TO LOS ANGELES (Special)
For your convenience, three of the seven Canyonlands escorted tours scheduled for 1968 originate in San Francisco (departing June 9, August 11, or October 13), before moving to Los Angeles. From that point, regular itinerary is followed as shown below. You board your "private coach" at 8:30 a.m. at the Hotel San Franciscan (Market at Civic Center), before heading for the next stop at San Jose (Greyhound Terminal) — 9:30 a.m.). Here, more Canyonlands-bound companions join your group before you again roll south through the bright Salinas Valley and its fruit-laden trees. In early evening, you arrive in Los Angeles. Hotel Biltmore.

1ST DAY: LOS ANGELES TO PHOENIX
Here (on departure dates shown (left) for Los Angeles), you board your weather-conditioned luxury coach at the Biltmore at 8:00 a.m. to start your eastward travels. Before you know it, you're bound for excitement. Smoothly and swiftly your coach rolls on to fast-growing Phoenix, where comfortable overnight accommodations as well as a delightful "Welcome to the Tour" dinner await you. Sahara Hotel.

2ND DAY: PHOENIX TO SEDONA, ARIZONA
After you and new tour members joining at Phoenix (Sahara Hotel at 8:00 a.m.), are aboard, you start on a full day sightseeing adventure as you head for Sedona, picture book western town. Among the scenic treats in store for you is famed Montezuma Castle National Monument, where you learn about the people who lived there between 1100 and 1400 A.D. Matterhorn Motel.

3RD DAY: SEDONA TO MOAB, UTAH
You are now at the southern end of Arizona's famed Oak Creek Canyon, one of the most beautiful wonders of the southwest. From here, you move northward, seeing cliffs brilliantly painted in white, yellow and red. Your drive is further punctuated by sights of pine, cypress and juniper, unique rock formations, rocky gorges and much more. Soon you reach Flagstaff, at the foot of the San Francisco Peaks, then glide swiftly on past the Wupatki Indian ruins, to Moab, in a region rich in uranium and oil and the locale of many of Zane Grey's novels. Desert Lodge — 3 Nights.

4TH DAY: AT MOAB
At 8:00 a.m. your exploration of Canyonlands begins in Tag-

A-Long Tours comfortable, completely air-conditioned four-wheel drive station wagons. It's just one of the two spectacular trips you will be taking during your two-day stay — seeing both major areas of Canyonlands. The northern section of the Park is seen on the first day. This portion of the Park — called Island in the Sky — has as highlights: Grandview Point, Indian Ruins, Indian Art, Dinosaur Tracks, Natural Stone Arches, Dead Horse Point for visual pleasure. Other highlights are the Colorado River Drive and the Shafer Trail. Lunch "on the trail" is included.

5TH DAY: AT MOAB
You're on the road again at 8:00 a.m. in your Tag-A-Long station wagon — this time to discover the delights of the southern part of the Park. Here — in the "Needles" country — you see Angel Arch Canyon, Newspaper Rock, Indian Creek and Salt Creek Canyon, more Indian ruins and art, plus beautiful arches — one of the most outstanding of which is Angel Arch, which has an opening 190 feet high and 163 feet wide. Again, a delicious lunch is enjoyed in the great outdoors, (included).

6TH DAY: MOAB TO PAGE, ARIZONA
You rise early today, as a 2½ hour boat trip is scheduled on Lake Powell after you get to Page. On the way you enjoy more spectacular viewing — the cathedrals and spires of Monument Valley; Goulding's, the earliest trading post in the area, and Navajo-Hopi Indian life. Now you're in the Glen Canyon National Recreation Area, on the Colorado, where you look forward to an excursion by boat on this recently formed man-made wonder. Lake Powell is 86 miles long, when completely filled. And it has a shoreline of 1,800 miles reaching into coves, inlets and canyons of outstanding beauty. Overnight at Page. Glen Canyon Motel.

7TH DAY: PAGE TO LAS VEGAS
After your overnight stay in Page, you recross the nearby Utah state line for your trip to fabulous Las Vegas. En route you pass through a corner of Zion National Park, giving you another opportunity to glimpse more of Utah's spectacular scenery. An early arrival is scheduled in Las Vegas to enable you to relax a bit before your festive escort's banquet, where some members of the tour party will be saying their "good-byes". Fremont Hotel.

8TH DAY: LAS VEGAS TO LOS ANGELES
Departure isn't scheduled until 10:00 a.m. this morning to enable the stay-up-laters to catch a few extra winks. Then it's homeward bound, with arrival at the Biltmore Hotel at approximately 6:00 p.m. for many of you the end of a wonderful Canyonlands vacation no traveler ever forgets.

LOS ANGELES TO SAN FRANCISCO (Special)
But, for those who joined the tour from Santa Barbara or San Francisco, you will reboard your coach for your remaining trip north the following morning, arriving at your final destination by late afternoon.

Tour IT/NCC-5E

1st DAY MONDAY— SCENIC COUNTRYSIDE... MARINE EXHIBIT... NEWPORT

This is the day—you're on your way from The Statler Hilton Hotel in New York. The enchanting old fishing village of Mystic is your first stop. You visit the buildings and grounds of the Marine Historical Association—and also the last of the sailing whale-hunter ships. After lunch, you're heading east through incredibly beautiful countryside to Newport... world renowned as the fashionable resort of America's "Four Hundred." Among the historic sites you tour in Newport are the Touro Synagogue (oldest in the United States), the "Old Stone Mill" built by the Vikings, and The Breakers, former summer residence of Cornelius Vanderbilt. A delicious dinner and your first night's sleep is at the Viking Hotel.

2nd DAY TUESDAY—MARTHA'S VINEYARD... FAMOUS HYANNIS

After a hearty breakfast, you leave Newport. A tempting lunch is served at noon while enroute to Woods Hole, Mass., where you board the passenger ferry for the trip across Vineyard Sound to the fabled Martha's Vineyard. Here, you see fishing villages unchanged since whaling days, quaint cottages and lovely gardens. After your tour, you board the ferry for the bracing voyage back. By early evening, you board the bus for the ride to Hyannis, renowned residential area for the famous and wealthy. Another great dinner, and tonight you stay at the comfortable Hyannis Travel Inn.

3rd DAY WEDNESDAY —HYANNIS... PROVINCETOWN TOURS

First a good breakfast, then a leisurely tour around the Hyannis area with its many elegant year-round homes. Back aboard for the trip up the Cape, along the rugged coastline to Provincetown. Far out in the ocean are tramp steamers bound for distant ports and fishing boats rolling on the high seas. Suddenly, before you know it, you're in Provincetown. After a stop for lunch, see all the old fashioned houses on cobblestone streets. Lovely winding lanes. Here, life goes on as it has in the past. Nothing seems changed. Little shops beckon to you to come in and "bide a while." Although time has stood still in Provincetown, it hasn't for you, and now it's time to get back to the Hyannis Travel Inn and a tempting dinner served in the Eastern tradition.

4th DAY THURSDAY—SANDWICH...PLYMOUTH ROCK...PAWTUCKET...PROVIDENCE

It's an adventure-packed day, and after a piping-hot breakfast, you board the bus filled with excitement. The first stop is the beautiful old town of Sandwich and an hour-long tour of the Sandwich Historical Society. Next, you are whisked away to the famous Plimoth Plantation and Mayflower II. But before that, a stop for lunch. When you do arrive at Plimoth with its many replicas of the early Pilgrim houses, you are taken on a complete tour of the plantation along with a tour of an authentic reproduction of the ship in which the Pilgrims arrived. Not far away—a brief drive, you visit historic Plymouth Rock. By mid-afternoon, you are once again on your way, but this time to Pawtucket and Slater's Mill, built in the 1790's. This was the first successful cotton mill in the nation. After, you head almost due south to tonight's stay at the Sheraton Biltmore Hotel in Providence, and another palate-pleasing dinner.

5th DAY FRIDAY—OLD STURBRIDGE VILLAGE... NEW YORK CITY

Your last New England breakfast, then it's "Northward Ho" to one of the industrial centers of Massachusetts—Worcester. After an hour's tour of the famous Armory, your Greyhound coach glides effortlessly onto the highway heading southwest to Old Sturbridge Village, an early New England town, often called the Williamsburg of the North. Here you walk through a village reconstructed as it might have been in the late 1700's. Homes, mills, shops, a store, tavern, and school—thirty exhibition buildings in all. You watch early American craftsmen going about their duties just as they did more than a century and a half ago. While at Old Sturbridge, Greyhound has arranged a delightful lunch. With the memories of Old Sturbridge Village still fresh in your mind, you board for the last time. In easy comfort,

RALEY'S U.S.D.A. "PRIME" BEEF HAS MORE
FLAVOR BECAUSE IT'S CORN FED

All of Raley's U.S.D.A. Prime Beef is raised and fed in the midwestern corn states. This beef is fed lots and lots of golden corn. This is what gives Raley's beef its matchless flavor. It's a fact! Corn fed beef has more flavor.

OUR EXCLUSIVE AGING PROCESS PRODUCES
MORE TENDER, JUICIER BEEF

Most other supermarkets do not age their beef properly. They hang sides of beef in a meat cooler. This causes shrinkage because the beef is exposed to the air. Shrinkage results in the loss of juices and flavor.

Raley's "Prime" beef is processed into primal cuts and then vacuum sealed in plastic bags locking in its corn fed flavor while it ages. The natural enzymes work to break down the tissues and make the meat more tender — without the loss of juice or flavor.

U.S.D.A. "Prime" Beef
Is The Government's Highest Grade

NOW AT RALEY'S!
A NEW PLAN FOR BUYING FREEZER BEEF
THAT MAKES SENSE...

NOW SELECT ONLY THE CUTS YOU LIKE AND NEVER PAY FOR EXCESS FAT AND BONE

NOW stock your freezer with only the cuts of beef your family likes best. At Raley's you do not have to buy a full side of beef which includes excess fat and bones plus many of the seldom used cuts you don't normally buy.

You will pay more for Raley's "Trimmed" beef per pound but there will be no excess fat and bone and none of the seldom used cuts (soup bones, short ribs, boiling meat, etc.) that you pay for when you buy full carcass beef. You actually receive more value for your money. More eatable meat.

Make your selection from any of the primal cuts shown here, then ask at our meat department for our wholesale prices on the cuts you have selected. If you bought one of each cut, it would be equivalent to a full side of beef but without the excess fat, bones and less desirable lower priced cuts. Your order will be custom cut, wrapped and frozen to your instructions. No extra charge. Credit terms available.

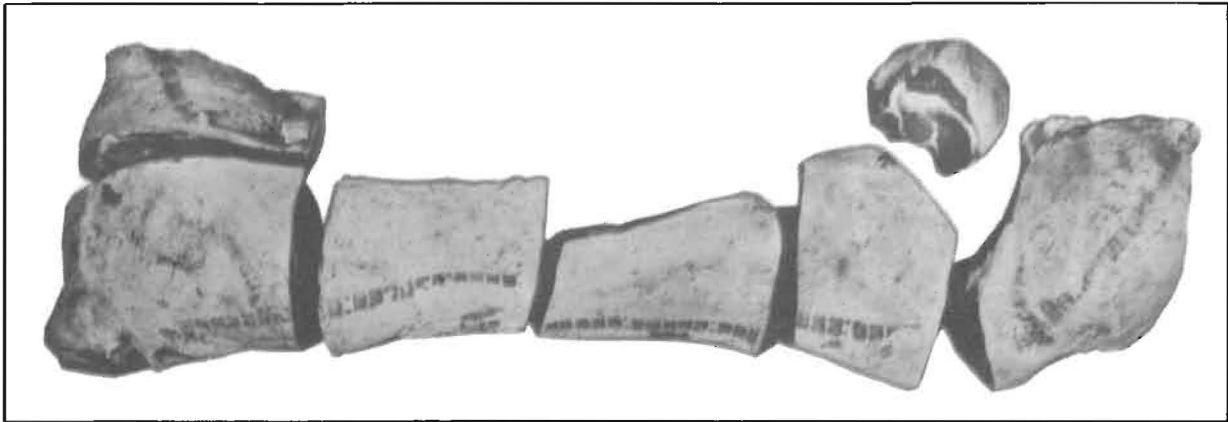

RALEY'S "PRIME-WRAP" KEEPS MEAT BEST

Your order will be custom cut by hand— not on a power saw. This means every cut is perfect. Roasts and steaks will be cut to the weight and thickness you desire. Your order will be wrapped air-tight in transparent "Prime-Wrap". This is the same wrap we use to package our meats for the counter. It provides the best protection for your beef while it's in your freezer and you can see in an instant what's in the package.

What Kind of Legacy?

Among the ways to name the Society as a beneficiary are these:

1. The simple and direct gift of money or property.
2. A residuary gift in which the donor leaves to the Society all or part of what remains after specific provisions for family and friends have been met.
3. A gift in trust which provides for members of the family, or others, in their lifetimes and keeps an estate intact for later use in the fight against cancer.

Each bequest favoring the American Cancer Society brings much closer the day of total victory over man's cruelest enemy—the disease of cancer.

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

How You Can Help Conquer Cancer In 25 Words or Less...

"I give, devise and bequeath the rest, residue and remainder of my estate to the American Cancer Society, Inc."

or

"I give to the American Cancer Society, Inc., the sum of _____ dollars to be used for the general purposes of the Society."

THE American Cancer Society is deeply indebted to the increasing number of people of good will who remember the Society in their wills.

Because these bequests spring from the highest motives, and in each case involve a deeply personal decision, the American Cancer Society feels obligated to acknowledge its deep appreciation and to use these funds in the wisest possible ways to conquer cancer.

This pamphlet describes how these thoughtful bequests are used in the Society's life-saving programs.

American Cancer Society — What It Is...

The American Cancer Society is an association of more than two million persons united in the determination to conquer cancer. The Society works to save lives by:

- Supporting programs to improve the diagnosis and treatment of cancer.
- Conducting cancer research.
- Improving medical, community and social services for the cancer patient.
- Educating the public about cancer.
- Promoting cancer education programs for medical and allied groups.

The Society was started in 1913 by a small group of laymen and doctors who saw the need for educating the public to the advantages of early cancer treatment. This small group has grown into the largest national health agency, with a volunteer governing body of 150 outstanding citizens from throughout the country. Within the Society there are 59 Divisions with their own elected boards of volunteer directors. At the state, county, and community levels, other boards and committees of recognized lay and medical leaders carry out the Society's life-saving programs.

What A Legacy To The American Cancer Society Means

Legacies perpetuate the thoughtfulness of the donor. They help the Society expand its fight against cancer in these and other ways:

- By supporting the research of highly trained investigators in hospitals, laboratories and universities all over the country.
- By financing the preparation and distribution of films and literature which tell how families can protect themselves against cancer.
- By sponsoring the training of clinical and research fellows and other professional people whose lives will be devoted to the conquest of cancer.
- By providing cancer patients with sick-room equipment and comfort items in their homes.
- By supporting year-round cancer information programs in local communities.
- By supporting concentrated attacks on specific forms of cancer, such as uterine . . . breast . . . colon-rectum . . . lung . . . and leukemia . . . through coordinated programs of research and education.
- By presenting the facts about smoking and lung cancer to children in the schools.

PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, WISCONSIN

Villa Louis

The story of Villa Louis dates back to a grass-covered plain beside the mighty Mississippi. It was on this plain that the Hopewell Indians built effigy mounds for their dead. The first white men to come to the area were Louis Jolliet, woodsman and explorer, and his companion, Father Jacques Marquette, who arrived in 1673. They traveled through the Great Lakes, Green Bay, and down the Fox-Wisconsin waterway to the Mississippi, a route which would soon be familiar to fur traders and adventurers alike. Later, famous names like Nicolas Perrot, Duluth, Hennepin, and Le Sueur came to be linked with the area surrounding Prairie du Chien.

To this land already rich in history and adventure came Hercules Dousman, confidential agent for John Jacob Astor's American Fur Company. Dousman, an effective and dynamic businessman, soon became one of the frontier's first millionaires.

When he eventually married, Dousman brought his beautiful and charming wife, Jean Fisher Rolette, home to his "House on the Mound," an elegant mansion situated on the historic Hopewell burial mound.

A member of one of the most distinguished early French families in Wisconsin, Madame Dousman soon made their home the center of social activity for the frontier. Lavish parties were held here and distinguished visitors came from throughout the nation. Here was a place where busy entrepreneurs, enterprising politicians, and young writers could meet and discuss the affairs of the frontier.

Here, too, was the headquarters of Dousman's mercantile business, his land speculation and logging empire, and his steamship line. From here he promoted construction of the first railroad to reach the Mississippi.

An atmosphere of grace and elegance prevails through the entire home today as it did then. Furnished with most of its original treasures, Villa Louis represents the height of Victorian style. Visitors walk through the glass-enclosed porch into the great hall of the Villa and find themselves in a world composed of art treasures, fine china and Waterford crystal, mahogany furniture, and satin-covered chairs.

The story of Villa Louis is actually two stories—one of the men and women who made it famous, and the second, of the house, which portrays a social history of the Wisconsin frontier.

The Honorable President-elect Nixon,

I am writing to you in behalf of the Yeshivath Beth Yehudah yearbook. It would be a great honor for us to receive a letter of greetings from you, the President-elect of our nation.

This year will be the fourth consecutive year of publishing the 'Torch', our yearbook. We are a small Jewish parochial school and it would add a great to our publication to have a letter of greetings from such a prominent citizen as yourself.

It would be greatly appreciated if the letter could be sent as soon as possible in order that we may meet our next deadline. A standard photograph of yourself would aid us immensely.

Thank You,

Sincerely Yours,
Stuart Jonas
