Mr. Alexander P. Butterfield
Deputy Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. <sup>Butt</sup> Butterfield:

I enclose the list of names and current addresses of members of the Duke Law Class of 1937. I also enclose a list of the <sup>1937</sup> faculty. I believe H. Claude Horack, Thomas C. Billig, Charles L. Lowndes, Douglas B. Maggs and Malcolm McDermott are dead.

I urge that husbands and wives be included.

Sincerely, <sup>OK</sup>

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

ADMINISTRATIVELY
CONFIDENTIAL

November 18, 1971

MEMORANDUM FOR : ALEX BUTTERFIELD

FROM : H. R. HALDEMAN H.

Two items for long-range social calendar planning.

Sometime between the Chinese and Russian trips, the President would like to go ahead with that World War II group reunion.

The planning on this should be worked out with Carl Fleps and it should be put together as the 30th Anniversary of the President's Graduation from Quonset in 1942.

Carl Fleps

He wants to have all of the Navy people, <sup>SCAT</sup> cut way down on the list of flyers, and in the Quonset group, have just RN's platoon.

He wants to be sure to have the "little captain of Fleet Air Wing 8; I think it's Peter Boyle. He also mentioned, I think, Gurley, who was the CO from Ottumwa, and Paul Williams should handle the planning for the New York crowd.

The list should be boiled down to about 200 and they should be invited for a reception at the White House without wives.

The arrival setup should be like that of an Ambassador presenting credentials - that is, an Honor Guard along the driveway and perhaps a band outside or something to really jazz it up as they arrive.

The second event will be a reunion of the law school class, some time in June after the Russian trip. This should be carefully researched and Charlie Rhyne should take over all charge with Dick Kiefer and Mack Holland working with him. The occasion here will be that the 35th reunion of the law school class of 1937.

*Charlie
Rhyne*

The group should be expanded a little to include some of the professors who were there at the time and also a few of the members of the immediately adjacent classes, who might have been close to the President personally.
