MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. CHAPIN

For planning purposes regarding the President's campaigning activities, we should figure that if he does any at all it will be in late October and he would probably go out on one-day swings doing four or five small states in a day.

I need immediately a thorough rundown on what Eisenhower did in '54 and '58 and what Johnson did in '66. Also, I guess we ought to have what Kennedy did in '62. This should be quite a complete analysis of the off-year campaign activities of those Presidents.

MEMORANDUM FOR: H. R. HALDEMAN
VIA: DWIGHT L. CHAPIN
FROM: STEPHEN BULL
RE: OFF-YEAR POLITICAL ACTIVITY
BY PREVIOUS PRESIDENTS

Attached are summaries of off-year political activities for past Presidents for the following years:

- Tab A - President Eisenhower: 1954
- Tab B - President Eisenhower: 1958
- Tab C - President Kennedy: 1962
- Tab D - President Johnson: 1966

The political activities shown on each summary are for the period August 1 through Election Day of the respective year. The information was obtained from:

- (a) Rather incomplete records in existence in the Transportation and Telegraph Office;
- (b) An inspection of Press Releases on file in the Press Release section;
- (c) An inspection of the context of speeches printed in the appropriate volume of Public Papers of the Presidents.

The events have been listed in a format to designate blocks or groupings of activities. A listing of a number of different cities in one block indicates one single campaign trip from start to finish in which a number of political events took place.

The starting point for most of the political trips for all four years was Washington, D.C. However, in the case of President Eisenhower, a few trips originated from the mid-West and, with Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, a few trips terminated in Texas or Hyannisport.
