My dear Mr Nixon.

It was most thoughtful and kind of you to send me the Nixon ash tray which I am sure I will find most useful

One of the practical uses will be as a receptacle for the ashes of clippings of articles from certain columnists with whom I am in vigorous disagreement about the qualifications of Richard Nixon for the Presidency and I intend to burn them with due ceremony.

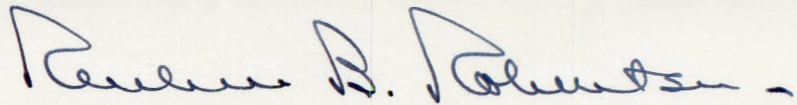

Reuben, Jr and I agree most heartily that the aforesaid Nixon is exceptionally well prepared in every way for the high office for which he has been mentioned and we feel sure he will be our inspiring leader after the November returns are in.

I was most grateful for the opportunity for friendly, informal discussion with you and Billy Graham which your all-too-brief visit to Lake Logan provided.

Russell Logan the colored chauffeur who "carried" you about during your visit to North Carolina, treasures as his most distinguished possession, the Nixon pencil which you gave him

With highest personal regards and best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Revue B. Johnson". The signature is written in a cursive style with a horizontal line at the end.

Dear Mr. Robertson:

With the thought that you might like to have one of my ashtrays I am sending it to you under separate cover. I felt it might be a small memento of the brief but most pleasant visit I had with you back in 1956.

I saw Reuben and his wife here in Washington on January 13th at a dinner the McElroys gave for Mrs. Nixon and myself. It was a pleasure to have an opportunity to visit with him again.

With every good wish,

Sincerely,

RN

Dear Mr. Robertson:

Thank you for your kindness in sending me the handsome photograph album. I certainly am pleased to have this excellent pictorial record of my pleasant visit with you and Mrs. Robertson. You may be sure the pictures will often serve to remind me of the enjoyable time I was privileged to spend at Lake Logan.

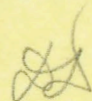

I greatly appreciate your thoughtfulness in providing me with this memento of a very happy occasion.

With kindest regards to you and Mrs. Robertson,

Sincerely,

(Signed) RICHARD NIXON

The Honorable Richard Nixon
The Vice President of the United States
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Vice President:

Many thanks for your most gracious letter of August 15.

As you "made history" at Lake Logan in catching your first trout there, we thought you might like to have photographic proof of your skill, so are sending you with our most cordial regards and best wishes a little booklet of snapshots taken during your visit to North Carolina.

It would give us the greatest of pleasure to have you and Mrs. Nixon with us at the Lake again, and then we hope that Peg and Reuben, Jr. can surely be present.

The preliminary news from California is most encouraging. We hope most earnestly that nothing will happen to alter the trend.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Robertson:

My weekend in North Carolina is now a very pleasant memory, but I want to tell you that I shall always remember with gratitude and deep appreciation the gracious hospitality you and Mrs. Robertson extended to me.

This particular visit to the Tar Heel State was certainly a vacation for me in spite of the fact that my reason for going was to fulfill some speaking engagements. I can't thank you enough for everything you did from providing such fine transportation in the air, as well as on the ground, to fishing in that "Seldom Seen" pond where your guests always manage to catch one of those delicious trout. I think I could be quite content to do just what the name of your lodge implies for many a day in that delightful spot.

The next time you and Mrs. Robertson come to Washington to visit Reuben and Peggy, I hope both Pat and I shall have the pleasure of seeing you.

My thanks and warmest good wishes to you both.

Sincerely,

(Signed) DICK NIXON

Logan, Mr. Russell

Dear Russell:

I have often said that there is no one who is quite as competent a driver as John Wardlaw who always manages to get me to and from various appointments here in Washington, and this is just a note to tell you that I was reminded of him soon after you took the wheel of Mr. Robertson's car when I visited him in North Carolina recently.

With my best wishes,

Sincerely,

(Signed) RICHARD NIXON
