My compliments on the fine campaign you waged. Regards,

The reports I have been receiving about the vigorous and effective campaign that John Rollins is waging in his gubernatorial race have been most gratifying.

My association and friendship with him goes back to 1952 when he did such outstanding and helpful work as a charter member of the Citizens for Eisenhower. Since that time I have watched with great interest and satisfaction his career as a successful businessman and a very capable Lieutenant Governor.

There is no question but that on the basis of his tried and proven ability, integrity and dedication he can provide an efficient and responsible state administration for the people of Delaware. He certainly has my wholehearted support.

MEMORANDUM

I spoke to John Rollins of Delaware this morning and advised him that you were unable to call the Los Angeles Airport Commission and put in an indorsement for his application for a booth at International Airport. I explained the reasons for such a policy and the number of similar demands of this nature which made it necessary.

He seem quite upset and the conversation ended before he had been completely satisfied. I am sure he will understand the reasonableness of your position once he reflects a while, but for the time being he is a little miffed.

P.S. John called back one hour later to make SURE that we had not misinterpreted his request. So we had a happy ending on this one, even though he didn't get what he wanted.

Dear John:

This is just a note to thank you for your letter of June 4 and to tell you how much I enjoyed seeing you again when I was in Selbyville for Senator Townsend's birthday celebration.

I don't often receive invitations as tempting as your generous offer for my family and me to stay at your guest house in Lewes Beach. Although it does not appear likely that I shall have many free week-ends until after the adjournment of Congress, you may be sure that if an opportunity presents itself we shall take advantage of your hospitality!

With kindest personal regards to you and your family,

Sincerely,

Richard Nixon
