MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THE WHITE HOUSE

SUBJECT: Gift for Newly Independent State of Grenada

The Island of Grenada achieves its independence next week and I would like to recommend as the official U.S. Gift a Cybis Porcelain limited-edition sculpture of Pegasus, the winged horse (Photograph attached). The sculpture is 13 1/2" wide and 13" high and will rest upon an additional walnut base with enameled Presidential seal.

To Her Majesty
* Elizabeth the Second,
by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Her other Realms and Territories Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith.

Your Majesty:

In recognition of Grenada's having achieved its independence within the British Commonwealth, I have designated Eileen R. ^{*}Donovan as my Personal Representative, with the rank of Special Ambassador, to attend the ceremonies incident to the celebration of the independence of Grenada.

I have entire confidence that Ambassador Donovan will be acceptable to you in the distinguished duty with which I have invested her.

I therefore ask that you receive my Personal Representative favorably and accept from her the renewed assurances of my high regard and of the friendship which she bears of the Government and people of the United States of America for you and the Government and people of Grenada.

Very truly yours,

By the President:

Richard Nixon

Secretary of State.
