

December 10, 1973

Dear Senator:

I would like to acknowledge the December 7 letter to the President from you and several of your colleagues urging that a notice be enclosed with the E-2 forms calling Federal employees' attention to the dollar check off question box for campaign contributions, which appears on the income tax forms.

You may be assured that your suggestion will be called to the attention of the President at the earliest opportunity.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely,

Tom C. Korologos
Deputy Assistant
to the President

The Honorable Joseph R. Biden

December 3, 1973

Dear Senator:

I would like to acknowledge and thank you for your November 29 letter to the President in which you and several of your colleagues urge that steps be taken to insure that no segment of the population, and no particular industry, will be permitted to make profits during the energy crisis at the expense of the nation at large.

I shall call your letter to the attention of the President as soon as possible, and I am sure that your concerns and suggestions will receive most careful consideration.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely,

Tom C. Korologos
Deputy Assistant
to the President

The Honorable Joseph R. Biden, Jr.

May 9, 1973

Dear Senator:

This is to acknowledge and thank you for your May 7 letter to the President in which you and several of your colleagues expressed concern that some of the independent gasoline dealers, petrochemical companies and refiners are having their supplies of crude oil and refinery products cut off by major oil companies.

I can assure you that your letter will be called to the attention of the President. This problem is receiving high priority, and your views will be presented for consideration by those who advise the President on energy policies.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

Tom C. Korologos
Deputy Assistant
to the President
