Dear Senator Biden:

Thank you for the joint letter of June 24th to the President regarding the summit meeting in Moscow.

Although your letter was received too late to include in the President's papers for the Moscow trip, it has been forwarded to him. Be assured that your views will receive priority consideration.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Senator:

This is in response to your May 21 letter in behalf of Mr. Chauncey Messick who would like to have a Presidential pen used as a bill-signing ceremony.

These pens are reserved for personal presentation by the President to the persons who have a particular interest in the legislation involved. However, I am pleased to enclose a pen of another type, bearing a facsimile of the President's signature, which you may wish to send to Mr. Messick.

With kind personal regards,

Sincerely,

Tom C. Korologos

Dear Senator:

Further reference is made to the December 7 letter to the President from you and several of your colleagues urging that a notice be enclosed with W-2 forms to call Federal employees' attention to the dollar check off question box for campaign contributions which appears on income tax forms.

I have been informed by the Treasury Department that the suggestion was received too late to implement in the manner proposed. As an alternative, however, the Treasury has prepared such a notice and will, in the next few days, request each Federal agency to convey the message to its employees.

As you are aware, the Internal Revenue Service also has made plans to publicize extensively the taxpayer's right to make campaign fund designations.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely,

Tom C. Korologos
