SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS FOR MEETING WITH

BUDGET WORKING GROUP
10:00 a.m. (90 minutes)
February 12, 1981
Cabinet Room

- note that this is the second of three Budget Working Group meetings you will be involved in this week
- yesterday's meeting should serve as a good example of what determined people can accomplish
- indicate that you recognize, based on yesterday's meeting how much hard work and dedication has gone into the search for budget savings
- commend those at OMB, Treasury and each of the Departments for working round the clock to keep this process on schedule
- ask Dave Stockman to proceed with his agenda -- he will begin with the Export-Import Bank

(CRAIG FULLER WILL INDICATE WHEN TO PAUSE TO ALLOW TIME REPORTERS TO LEAVE.)

Subject: Export-Import Bank - Direct Lending

Expected Savings:	(in millions of dollars)					1986
	1981	1982	1983	1984	1985
Current Base:
Loan Authorizations	5,900	6,410	6,880	7,310	7,710	8,100
Budget Authority	7,010	5,930	5,700	6,050	6,390	6,690
Outlays	2,340	2,780	3,040	2,770	2,960	3,190
Policy Reduction
Loan Authorizations	752	2,010	2,090	2,350	2,500	2,650
Budget Authority	750	1,980	2,110	2,250	2,410	2,560
Outlays	60	410	990	1,380	1,600	1,710
Reagan Budget
Loan Authorizations	5,148	4,400	4,690	4,960	5,210	5,450
Budget Authority	6,260	3,950	3,590	3,800	3,980	4,130
Outlays	2,280	2,370	2,050	1,390	1,360	1,480

Change proposed: The Bank's loan authorizations will be reduced by 31 percent from the 1982 current base, but by only 12 percent from the Carter Budget. The Bank's discount loan program, the component of direct lending which underwrites medium-term commercial export credits and is less heavily subsidized than the Bank's longer-term lending, will be maintained at $400 million per annum rather than eliminated as proposed by President Carter. The Bank's lending operations grew by over 400 percent from 1977 to 1980, primarily due to the Carter Administration policy of using Eximbank as a vehicle for head-to-head competition with foreign export subsidy programs. The proposed change would reduce the Bank's subsidy to foreign borrowers, which results in a low rate of return to the U.S. economy and a drain on capital that is not justified by the gains from trade. Costly aggressive export subsidy programs are not warranted by our current circumstances, and they are weak instruments for achieving export growth in any event.

SUBJECT: Department of Energy (Departmental Administration)

($ in Millions)

	1981	1982	1983	1984	1985	1986
Expected Savings:
Current Base (Carter Budget)
Budget Authority	303	402	387	397	409	409
Outlays	294	370	355	392	404	404
Policy reduction
Budget Authority	-42	-125	-118	-127	-139	-139
Outlays	-33	-93	-86	-122	-134	-134
Reagan Budget
Budget Authority	261	277	269	270	270	270
Outlays	261	277	269	270	270	270

Change proposed:

Overhead activities such as accounting and personnel are cut back largely to complement reductions proposed for other areas of the Department of Energy. Other decreases occur in Department-wide functions such as policy, international, public information and other programs where there is now less need for these activities that once helped the Nation come to grips with the new energy era.

SUBJECT: Synthetic Fuels

Expected Savings:

	(in millions of dollars)
	1981	1982	1983	1984	1985	1986
Current Base
Budget Authority	415	858	1064	362	140	25
Outlays	275	864	859	776	824	756
Policy Reduction
Budget Authority	-5725	-858	-1064	-362	-140	-25
Outlays	-275	-864	-859	-776	-824	-756
Reagan Budget
Outlays	0	0	0	0	0	0

Change proposed: The President plans to curtail DOE and TVA funding for design and construction of demonstration and commercial scale synthetic fuels plants, and allow projects to compete for funding from the Synthetic Fuels Corporation. This will reduce the total amount of Federal subsidies for synthetic fuels plants, but allow financial assistance from the Synthetic Fuels Corporation for those technologies in which industry has the most confidence and is willing to commit its own resources. Shifting the DOE synthetic fuel commercialization and demonstration activities to the SFC will provide a more focused program to demonstrate the feasibility of synthetic fuel production. It will also increase the private sector's contribution to demonstration projects and avoid the high costs associated with subsidizing commercial synthetic fuels capacity. Deregulation of oil and gas prices makes continued Federal spending for these projects less necessary and will allow reliance on private markets forces to pace the commercial introduction of these technologies in the longer run.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL SERVICE, February 12, 1981

Of the millions who come to this city each year there is always a stop to be made here at the base of the reflecting pool and a statue to be seen of a backwoodsman who became a lawyer, a Congressman, and a President.

It is said that by standing to one side of this statue there can be seen a profile of a man of wisdom. And by standing to the other side: a profile of a man of compassion.

Those two views of Lincoln symbolize our own memory of him today -- Lincoln, the national leader who in time of crisis called his countrymen to greatness. And Lincoln the man, whose grace, compassion, and earnest commitment are remembered in countless biographies, folktales, and poetry.

Yet there is more left to us of Lincoln than a ceremony, a monument, or even a memory of his greatness as a leader and a man. There are his words, words that speak to our time, to any time -- words from a mind that sought wisdom and a heart that loved justice.

Today, do our national leaders agonize over the dilemma between doing what is practical and what is right?

"Let us have faith that right makes might," Lincoln wrote, "and in that faith let us to the end do our duty as we understand it."

Or do we ever fear failure in defense of principle?

"I am not bound to win," Lincoln said, "but I am bound to be true. I am not bound to succeed but I am bound to live up to what light I have."

Do we sometimes question the commitment upon which this Nation was founded -- a belief in the uncommon wisdom of the common people, a belief in their right to render a final verdict on the Nation's course?

"I appeal to you constantly," Lincoln said on his way to assume the presidency, "bear in mind that not with the politicians, not with the president, not with the office-seekers but with you is the question "Shall the liberties of this country be preserved to the latest generation?"

In Lincoln's life there is ample testimony to the depth of his mind, to the compassion of his heart, to the breadth of his virtue -- and, above all, to the value of putting country over self-interest.

But for today, I will say of him only what he said so well of those who had fallen at Gettysburg: that the memory of his life and death is greater than any written or spoken tribute could ever be.

The memory of Lincoln belongs to us, but never only to us. For, as it was said at the hour of his death, "now he belongs to the ages."

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 12, 1981

MEETING WITH: Hispanic Community
LOCATION: First Floor Family Dining Room
TIME: 1:00 PM - 2:00 PM

FROM: Elizabeth H. Dole

PURPOSE: To undertake your first Hispanic "outreach" efforts through Elizabeth Dole's office, stressing your appreciation for the significant support given you by Hispanics during the election. (Note: You garnered 36%). It is suggested you reaffirm your commitment to Hispanics that they can expect an active role in your administration. This will help alleviate their current concerns regarding a lack of visible Hispanic appointments and the administration's recent action regarding bilingual education and the PACE review.

BACKGROUND: Joining you for lunch today are representatives of all major Hispanic organizations, with Republicans clearly in the minority. A number of these groups have requested meetings with you since the election. Hispanic demographics are as follows: 75% are Mexican-Americans (80% of these in W & SW), 19% are Puerto Ricans (90% of these in urban NE) and 6% are Cubans (50% in Fla.). Key Hispanic issues are as follows:

1. Concerns about language barriers to a good education.
2. Lack of Hispanic appointments in the administration.
3. Inflation erosion of family unit by forcing mothers to work.
4. Unemployment, especially among youth in urban areas.
5. Sympathy toward plight of undocumented persons, tempered by concerns over loss of jobs to illegal aliens.
6. Cuban immigration/resettlement as well as Caribbean area foreign policy
7. Puerto Rican statehood issue.

PARTICIPANTS: See attached sheet

PRESS PLAN: Press Photo Coverage

SEQUENCE OF EVENTS:

- 12:50 PM After 30 minutes of economic package briefing in Family Theater, guests and briefers arrive at the First Floor Family Dining Room.
- 1:00 PM You arrive, greet guests and ask for all to be seated for brief press photos.
- 1:30 PM You stand to offer brief remarks and invite questions.
- 2:00 PM You thank your guests and take your leave.

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS FOR MEETING WITH

HISPANIC COMMUNITY

- This meeting is especially important, for I consider you a cornerstone of my "outreach" efforts through Elizabeth's office. Her office serves a vital role in developing a consensus for my policies and programs.
- With Elizabeth's assistance, I will be working with both you and a number of other key organizations and groups to expand the avenues through which we obtain advice and counsel on the economic package and many other essential issues.
- I appreciate the general election support given me by the Hispanic Community and I am committed to your active involvement in my administration. I'm confident that much of what concerns you, concerns me.
- Today's overriding issue is the economy. There is a direct link between many of your economic frustrations and the government's runaway spending and subsequent double-digit inflation.
- We will get inflation under control. Sacrifices will be required, but the burden of this transition will not fall on the backs of the truly needy.
- This country needs more jobs and our long term program is geared toward private sector job creation.

(NOTE: An up-dated list of administration Hispanic appointments will be provided you immediately before the meal.)

REMARKS: RELEASE OF ECONOMIC AUDIT

TODAY I AM RELEASING AN AUDIT OF THE AMERICAN ECONOMY THAT HAS BEEN PREPARED BY MY ADVISORS: AND THAT I DESCRIBED TO THIS NATION IN MY ADDRESS LAST WEEK.

THIS AUDIT CONFIRMS THAT THE ECONOMY OF THE UNITED STATES NEEDS A PROFOUND AND DRAMATIC CHANGE IN DIRECTION. THERE CAN BE NO LONGER A "BUSINESS AS USUAL" APPROACH.

INFLATION AND UNEMPLOYMENT ARE THREATENING THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE AS NEVER BEFORE, AND WITHOUT A CHANGE OF POLICY, THESE INTOLERABLE CONDITIONS WILL GET EVEN WORSE.

THIS AUDIT ALSO SUGGESTS A SENSE OF URGENCY: THAT WE MUST HALT THE GROWTH OF GOVERNMENT, AND THE CORRESPONDING BURDEN OF OVERSPENDING, TAXATION AND REGULATION BEFORE THEY IRREVERSIBLY ALTER THE CHARACTER OF THE NATION.

WE ARE STILL THE MOST PRODUCTIVE PEOPLE IN THE WORLD, LIVING IN A NATION WITH A POTENTIAL THAT STAGGERS THE IMAGINATION. I AM CONFIDENT THAT WITH THE FACTS BEFORE THEM, THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WILL UNDERSTAND THE NEED FOR THE CHANGES THAT WE WILL PROPOSE NEXT WEEK. THIS AUDIT SHOWS US THAT OUR ACTIONS MUST PUT THE NATION ON A FUNDAMENTALLY DIFFERENT COURSE.
