CABINET COUNCIL ON MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION

TIME: April 28, 1983

LOCATION: Cabinet Room

TIME: 2:00 PM

FROM: Craig L. Fuller

CS

I. PURPOSE

To determine the Administration's position regarding: reauthorization of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs; reauthorization of the Office of Federal Procurement Policy; and legislative proposals dealing with extension of Presidential Reorganization Authority. OPM will make a presentation on Occupational Opportunities for Women in the federal government.

II. BACKGROUND

Paperwork Reduction Act: Authorization for the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs within OMB expires September 30, 1983. A simple extension of the Paperwork Extension Act is recommended to avoid Congressional attempts to exempt certain programs from the act.

Office of Federal Procurement Policy: Authorization for the Office of Federal Procurement Policy expires September 30, 1983. Legislative options to deal with OFPP will be presented for discussion.

Reorganization Authority: Limited Presidential authority to reorganize the Executive branch expires September 30, 1983. Extension of Reorganization Authority with minor modifications designed to increase effectiveness and other legislative options will be discussed.

Occupational Opportunities for Women: OPM Director Don Devine will outline a number of opportunities which Administration managers have to encourage management opportunities for women. A review of ongoing activities will be presented.

III. PARTICIPANTS

A list will be attached to the agenda.

IV. PRESS PLAN None

V. SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

Ed Meese will be prepared to open the discussion on each issue. Dave Stockman and Don Devine will be prepared to make presentations.

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS FOR CEREMONY

FOR

FRANK C. CARLUCCI

- It is a pleasure to welcome you and your family to the Oval Office and for me to take part in this well-deserved award ceremony.
- Your nearly thirty year career in government service is a remarkable testimony to your versatility.
 - Whether as a diplomat, service to the human needs of our citizens as Under Secretary of HEW or as Director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, fiscal management as Deputy Director of OMB, or national security affairs as the Deputy of CIA and Defense, you have made enduring contributions to our country.
- We miss you, but we know that the free enterprise system is now getting a boost with your presence at Sears.
- I thank your family for the sacrifices that they have made while the affairs of government kept you at your job early in the morning and late at night. And I am sure that you are as proud of Frank's accomplishments as we are.

FRANK C. CARLUCCI

Frank C. Carlucci, now President of Sears World Trade, served as Deputy Secretary of Defense from February 1981 until January 1983.

Mr. Carlucci, a Retired Career Minister in the U.S. Foreign Service, was born in Scranton, Pennsylvania, on October 18, 1930. He graduated from Princeton University in 1952. He served for two years as a Lieutenant (jg), in the Navy aboard the USS ROMBACH (DE-364). Thereafter, he attended the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration and joined the Jantzen Company in Portland, Oregon, in 1955.

In 1956, Mr. Carlucci joined the U.S. State Department as a Foreign Service Officer and was assigned from 1957 to 1959 as Vice Consul and Economic Officer in Johannesburg, South Africa. He was subsequently assigned as Secretary and Political Officer in Kinshasa, Congo, for two years.

From 1962 to 1964, he was Officer-in-Charge of Congolese Political Affairs in Washington and from 1964 to 1965 was the Consul General in Zanzibar. From 1965 to 1969 he was counselor for Political Affairs in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Mr. Carlucci was appointed Director of the Office of Economic Opportunity in 1971 after having served two years as Assistant Director of OEO. He was then appointed Associate Director of the Office of Management and Budget and was later appointed Deputy Director. For the next two years, until 1975, Mr. Carlucci served as Under Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Prior to being named Deputy Director of Central Intelligence in February 1978, he was the United States Ambassador to Portugal for three years.

His awards and honors include: Distinguished Intelligence Medal, 1981; National Intelligence Distinguished Service Medal, 1981; State Department Superior Service Award, 1972; State Department Superior Honor Award, 1969; Department of Health, Education and Welfare Distinguished Civilian Service Award, 1977; and the Defense Department Distinguished Civilian Service Award, 1977. He holds Honorary Degrees from Wilkes College and Kings College in Pennsylvania, both awarded in 1973.

He is a member of the National Academy of Public Administration and the Council on Foreign Relations.

Mr. Carlucci is married to Marcia McMillan Myers of Madison, Wisconsin. They have three children, Karen, Frank and Kristen.

PRESIDENTIAL CITIZENS' MEDAL CITATION

FOR

FRANK C. CARLUCCI

THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 1983

Frank, C. Carlucci, a selfless, energetic statesman and patriot, has made enduring contributions to America's security and well-being. As a Foreign Service Officer and Ambassador, he has represented our Nation and shaped our foreign policy on two continents. Here at home, he has served our people as Under Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, Director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, and Deputy Director of the Office of Management and Budget. His outstanding contributions to national security as Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency and Deputy Secretary of Defense have increased our confidence and pride in our ability to live in peace, with freedom.

Mr. Carlucci's devotion to country, dedicated service, and versatile record of achievements bring honor to himself and to the United States of America.

FRANK CARLUCCI's CEREMONY, APRIL 28, 1983

- It is a pleasure to take part in this ceremony.
- Thirty year government career remarkable in accomplishments and versatility.
- No matter what the job -- diplomat, administrator, fiscal management, national security affairs -- extraordinarily well done, and our country better off because of it.
- Thanks to family endured sacrifices while Frank devoted his energies to heavy demands of his job.
- The family has good reason to be very proud of Frank Carlucci.
