MEMORANDUM FOR THE FILE

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS
SUBJECT: Appointment of Paul J. Coleman, Jr.
to the National Commission on Space

On February 15, 1985 Paul J. Coleman, Jr., telephoned to discuss the possibility of his continuing to be employed as a consultant to Boeing Aircraft Company during his service on the National Commission on Space. Mr. Coleman had listed the Boeing consultancy on his previously submitted Personal Data Statement, but had not indicated that he wished to continue it during his government service. He stated that he would be willing to discontinue the consultancy if necessary or appropriate.

I advised Mr. Coleman that he could continue his arrangement with Boeing, in light of the broad nature of the Commission's work. This advice was consistent with that given other Commission members, as memorialized in my clearance memorandum on appointees to this Commission. I further advised Mr. Coleman that he should be alert to recuse himself from particular discussions if they should ever concern a particular matter with a directly discernible effect on Boeing, and that he should not hesitate to seek further advice if he has any other conflicts questions as the work of the Commission proceeds.

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS

SUBJECT: Appointments of Stephen I. Danzansky,
Thomas N. Tripp, Virginia S. Weinman, and Linda J. Wachner to the Advisory Committee for Trade Negotiations

I have reviewed the Personal Data Statements submitted by the above-named individuals in connection with their prospective appointments to the Advisory Committee for Trade Negotiations. The president is authorized to appoint 45 individuals to this committee, including "representatives of government, labor, industry, agriculture, small business, service industries, retailers, consumer interests, and the general public." 19 U.S.C. § 2155(b)(1).

Mr. Tripp is an attorney and chairman of a private investment company; Mrs. Wachner is director of consumer products for Adler & Shaykin; Mrs. Weinman is President of a Silicon Valley firm; Mr. Danzansky heads the Washington office of the law firm Willkie Farr & Gallagher. No problem is presented by any of the Personal Data Statements. All of the prospective appointees have interests in the trade area. These are not disqualifying, however, in light of the general policy role of the committee and the fact that the statute specifically directs that the various groups affected by trade policy decisions be represented on the committee.

Mr. Danzansky was registered as a foreign agent, the registration terminating in August 1984. I took the precaution of telephoning him and alerting him to the prohibition in 18 U.S.C. § 219, should he ever need to register in the future.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE FILE

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS
ASSOCIATE COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Appointment of Maureen Reagan to U.S.
Delegation to the World Conference of the United Nations Decade for Women, 1985

On February 28, 1985, I telephoned Ralph Tarr, Acting Assistant Attorney General for the Office of Legal Counsel, to obtain his advice concerning the prospective appointment of Maureen Reagan to the U.S. Delegation to the World Conference of the United Nations Decade for Women, 1985. My question to Tarr was whether any problems were presented under the Anti-Nepotism Act, 5 U.S.C. § 3110, by Maureen Reagan's appointment. Tarr researched the question and returned my call later in the day.

The President is authorized by 22 U.S.C. § 287(d) to appoint individuals "to represent the United States in organs and agencies of the United Nations." That authority, with respect to organizations such as this Conference, was delegated to the Secretary of State on February 28, 1948, by President Truman. Tarr advised that in light of the delegation of authority Maureen Reagan's appointment would not constitute a violation of the Anti-Nepotism Act. According to Tarr, the statute is concerned with the act of appointment, and a delegation of authority operates to transfer responsibility for that act to the delegate.

The President is authorized to appoint 30 general trustees to this board under 20 U.S.C. § 76h(a). Mr. Allbritton satisfies the only statutory requirement for trustees, i.e., that they be citizens of the United States. The duties of the Board consist of maintaining and administering the Kennedy Center, and I see nothing that would preclude the conflict-free discharge of this responsibility by Mr. Allbritton.

I have reviewed the Personal Data Statement submitted by Michael P. The President's Advisory Council on Private Sector Initiatives was established by Executive Order 12427. MEMORANDUM FOR DIANNA G. HOLLAND

FROM:

JOHN G. ROBERTS

SUBJECT:

Appointment of Gerard K. O'Neill to National Commission on Space

I have reviewed the Personal Data Statement submitted by Gerard K. O'Neill in connection with his prospective appointment to the National Commission on Space. The Commission was established by Public Law 98-361, 42 U.S.C. § 2451 note, to study space activities and formulate an agenda for the U.S. civilian space program. The Commission is to submit to the President and Congress a long-range plan for civilian space activity.

Pursuant to Section 203(a) (1) of Public Law 98-361, the President is authorized to appoint 15 members to the Commission "selected from among individuals from Federal, State, and local governments, industry, business, labor, academia, and the general population who, by reason of their background, education training, or experience, possess expertise in scientific and technological pursuits, as well as the use and implications of the use of such pursuits." No more than three of the 15 may be Federal employees.

Dr. O'Neill is on leave from Princeton University. He is President and CEO of Geostar Corporation, a firm developing a commercial system to use satellites to aid navigation. Geostar has had and probably will have matters pending before the FCC.

Dr. O'Neill obviously has a direct commercial interest in space issues. I do not, however, view his role at Geostar as a bar to his appointment to the Commission. The statute looks to the appointment of individuals active in space research and the exploitation of space, and the agenda of the Commission is broad enough to attenuate any potential conflicts. In addition, the Commission is purely advisory, and does not engage in any regulatory activities.

SUBJECT: Appointment of Mollie Faison as a Member of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts Advisory Committee

I have reviewed the Personal Data Statement submitted by the above-referenced individual for appointment as a member of the John F. Kennedy Center Advisory Committee.

Appointments to the Kennedy Center Advisory Committee are authorized by Public Law 85-874 § 2(c). Appointees "shall be persons who are recognized for their knowledge of, or experience or interest in, one or more of the arts in the fields covered by the [Kennedy Center]." Id. Mrs. Faison has been active in charitable theatrical productions in Charlotte. Based on my review of her Personal Data Statement, I see no reason to object to her appointment. I would note that she has not answered all of the PDS questions; I assume she was sent an abbreviated form in light of the position to which she is to be appointed. If this is not correct, please advise.

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR

SUBJECT: Honolulu District Director, Small Business Administration

You were copied (along with others) on a letter to SBA Administrator James C. Sanders from Patricia Saiki, Chairman of the Republican Party of Hawaii. Saiki, writing on behalf of the "Hawaii Republican Party's patronage committee," argued that the position of SBA Honolulu District Director should be "patronage selected" rather than a career civil service appointment. The Hawaiian Republicans recommended that Andrew K. Poepe be appointed upon the imminent retirement of the incumbent. You asked if the letter was proper.

I raised the question with Joe Morris, General Counsel of OPM. According to Morris, the position of SBA District Director may be filled on a political basis, and there is nothing inappropriate about the Hawaiian Republicans suggesting that this be done and recommending a candidate. Since you were simply copied on the letter, no action is necessary by our office at this time.

Mr. James C. Sanders

1441 L Street, North West
Washington, D. C. 20416

Dear Mr. Sanders:

The Hawaii Republican Party's patronage committee made up of D. G. "Andy" Anderson, National Committeeman, Carla Coray, National Committeewoman, Dr. Franklin Kometani, 1984 Hawaii Reagan-Bush chairman, and I as Party Chairman, unanimously feel that the position of Honolulu District Director of the Small Business Association should be patronage selected rather than a career civil service appointment.

David Nakagawa currently the Director of the Honolulu district, from all our information sources, is making definite plans to retire.

We unanimously recommend for your consideration, Andrew K. Poepoe, whom we feel is eminently qualified and most suitable to succeed Mr. Nakagawa.

Mr. Poepoe has a Masters Degree in Business Administration and served for 16 years as an elected official at both the county and state levels.

He retired from politics to concentrate on his business career and will be available for this new challenge.

His long service as a Republican Party worker and public official is applauded by our Party's rank and file.

His outstanding career in public office is recognized and appreciated by all segments of our community.

Mr. James C. Sanders

Dear Pat:

The U. S. Small Business Administration is accepting applications for its Honolulu District Director position, and I would like to apply for that post.

I believe that my background and work experience fit the requirements for the job. My educational background at Yale University, U.C.L.A., and the University of Hawaii was business administration. My job experience is in the pineapple industry, a highly competitive market which has demanded a thorough examination of problems and quick decision making under pressure.

I've served in the Hawaii State Legislature, and the Honolulu City Council. This experience has given me a unique opportunity to meet and work with people from all segments of our community, individuals from business firms, the government and community organizations. I have a thorough understanding of the legislative process which will help me to promote legislation on behalf of small businesses.

Attached is my resume for your review. I can provide additional detailed information should you need it, and I will provide references as necessary. Please call me.

Sincerely,

Andrew K. Poepoe

SUBJECT: Appointment of Robert Fryer to the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts Board of Trustees

I have reviewed the Personal Data Statement submitted by the above-named individual in connection with his prospective appointment to the JFK Center for the Performing Arts Board of Trustees. I have advised you orally that I have no objection to proceeding with this appointment. The President is authorized to appoint 30 general trustees to this board under 20 U.S.C. § 76h(a). Mr. Fryer satisfies the only statutory requirement for trustees, i.e., that they be citizens of the United States. The duties of the Board consist of maintaining and administering the Kennedy Center.

Mr. Fryer is a well-known producer of both theatrical productions and films, and is the artistic director of a theater group based in Los Angeles. Certainly conflicts could arise in the course of his duties, for example if the Kennedy Center were considering putting on one of Mr. Fryer's plays. Normally such questions would not be decided by the trustees, however, and Mr. Fryer could and should recuse himself should any situation of this sort arise.

I have reviewed the Personal Data Statement submitted by Frederick Hart in connection with his prospective appointment to the Commission of Fine Arts. I also discussed certain issues raised by the PDS with Mr. Hart by telephone this morning. Pursuant to 40 U.S.C. § 104, the President is authorized to appoint "seven well-qualified judges of the fine arts" to the Commission of Fine Arts, for four-year terms. It is the duty of the Commission to advise upon the location of statues and monuments in the District of Columbia, and upon the selection of artists to execute the same, as well as to advise generally on the arts as requested by the President or any committee of Congress.

Mr. Hart is the sculptor who created the Vietnam Veterans Memorial sculpture (not the wall). There was considerable controversy surrounding the design of the memorial, but that has generally abated.

Dear Mr. Revell,

Thank you for your letter of March 22, in which you discuss modified procedures for routine updating of investigations for NSC staff members.

In regard to the 75-day deadline, please be advised that the extended time frame is acceptable for routine update cases.

In regard to your proposal to reduce the number of interviews conducted in the case of updates, we agree with the President's Counsel that this is acceptable as long as the substance is preserved. As you are aware, the investigation is relied upon by us in every instance to grant top level clearances to all of our employees.

The tremendous support of your entire staff in performing this vital service is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Paul B. Thompson

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR

SUBJECT: Appointments to the Commission on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution

Pursuant to Section 4(a) of Public Law 98-101, 97 Stat. 719 (1983), the President is authorized to appoint 20 of the 23 members of the Commission (the Chief Justice, Speaker of the House, and President pro tempore of the Senate are appointed by statute). Of the 20 Presidential appointees, four are to be chosen from recommendations submitted by the Speaker, four from recommendations submitted by the President pro tempore, and four from recommendations submitted by the Chief.

Recommendations of the Speaker

° Lynne Cheney, Senior Editor of The Washingtonian, wife of Congressman Dick Cheney of Wyoming.

° Thomas Henry O'Connor, Professor of History at Boston College.

° William Joseph Green, Philadelphia attorney, former Congressman and Mayor of Philadelphia.

° Congressman Philip M. Crane (R-IL).

The only difficulty with these appointments involves the appointment of Crane, a sitting member of Congress. As you know, the President stated when he signed the bill establishing the Commission that "in view of the Incompatibility Clause of the Constitution, any member of Congress appointed by me pursuant to section 4(a)(1) of this Act may serve only in a ceremonial or advisory capacity." (This concern is distinct from the concerns surrounding the role of the Chief Justice, which did not involve the Incompatibility Clause but separation of powers more generally.)

Recommendations of the President pro tempore

° Harry M. Lightsey, Dean of the University of South Carolina School of Law.

- ° Edward P. Morgan, sole practitioner in Washington, D.C.

- ° Senator Ted Stevens (R-Alaska).

- ° Senator Wendell Ford (D-KY).

I have reviewed the Personal Data Statements submitted by Messrs. Lightsey and Morgan, and have no objection to proceeding with their appointments. I have received nothing from the Senators. They would be subject to the same limitations discussed above with respect to Congressman Crane.

Recommendations of the Chief Justice

- ° Charles Wiggins, U.S. Circuit Judge, Ninth Circuit.

- ° Cornelia Kennedy, U.S. Circuit Judge, Sixth Circuit.

- ° Herbert Brownell, Of Counsel to Lord, Day & Lord, former Attorney General.

- ° O.C. Tanner, founder and chairman of O.C. Tanner Company, attorney.

I have reviewed Personal Data Statements submitted by all of the foregoing and have no objection to the appointments. Service of sitting Federal judges does raise separation of powers concerns, but as those were overcome in appointing the Chief as Chairman I see no purpose to be served by raising them now.

Presidential Choices

- ° Bernard Siegan, Professor of Law, University of San Diego School of Law.

- ° Fred Biebel, Executive Vice President of the International Republican Cooperation Fund.

- ° Betty S. Murphy, partner in Baker & Hostetler.

- ° Phyllis Schlafly, President of Eagle Forum.

- ° Ron Walker, partner in Korn/Ferry International.

- ° Charles Alan Wright, Professor of Law, University of Texas.

- ° Russel Kirk, author.

Kirk has yet to submit a PDS. Of the others, some, such as Schlafly, will obviously be controversial. Siegan's writings on the Constitution advance a theory of economic liberty that will be controversial to many constitutional law scholars. Wright is an attorney for Tavoulareas in the controversial Tavoulareas v. Washington Post case. Ron Walker was a consultant in 1975 for Saudi Arabia. I telephoned him to alert him to the prohibitions of 18 U.S.C. § 219, and he advised that he was not now registered as a foreign agent and saw no likelihood that he would be in a position to register in the future.

In sum, we can proceed with the appointments of Cheney, O'Connor, Green, Crane, Lightsey, Morgan, Wiggins, Kennedy, Brownell, Tanner, Siegan, Biebel, Murphy, Schlafly, Walker, and Wright. We can add Senators Stevens and Ford if you wish to dispense with PDS's from them. Kirk should not be announced until he submits a PDS. Finally, there is still a remaining slot on which I have no information.
